

The Word of God

... There has been no law such as this since age. When I was in the body, there was a bad law, but not as the law now. Then it was a number, now there is another number. Oh, Lucifer, man is praying to God and you stop his prayer.

I spoke through Noah. When the clouds came in the sky they were crying: „Noah, take us as well!”, but the door were closed from the outside. I spoke through Lot and I urged the world to repent but they did not repent. Now the Christian life has turned into debauchery. Everyone knows that the fire comes but is not afraid of it and keeps it into his mouth.

Son, put the little coat of the world into the fire. It is a parable of speech. When you were into the world you have been drinking. Drink no more!

... I have come to talk to you as I came to talk to the shepherd from Maglavit, who was deaf and mute, but when he opened his mouth, I gave him speech. (Petrache Lupu – 14.10.1907-14.12.1994, the second trumpet, r.n.)
