

The Word of God

... Israel, My people, Israel, wash yourself well so that you may not have any dirt on you, for the end is coming; there is no end that someone may remain behind Me, but all has come to an end!

... Keep the job and your life with Me. Do no longer work on feasts and Sundays, sons. Live with fear, for behold, you have neighbors around your house who work on Sundays. You have got people who do no longer keep the feasts, and the plague will come from Me, but you should not be scared, for it will not come upon you if you keep these with Me. Listen, Israel, for God has moved on with great sufferance against this people that works on Sundays. Arm yourselves well, and let there be in your hearts nothing that may trouble you, even if it is your sister, even if it is your mother, for God has started to go with evil against the wicked one, for God can no longer endure the evil way.

... Sons, hear well the words from Me. Your fathers and ancestors, in the eve of these days, were praying and fasting. I opened the heaven and saw a priest going with the baptism from house to house, and he found people eating meat on the eve of Epiphany and they invited him: "Come, father, let us eat." And what did they say afterwards? "If the priest ate, why shall we not eat either?" Blessed is the priest who did not eat and rebuked instead. There are still priests, but they are rarer, who live by fasting and praying and love the people that live with the Lord, and these priests will be counted at one price, not by one leu, not by one hundred, not by one thousand, not by ten thousand, but by millions of lei.

... I am the Lord, Jesus Christ. I am not in a body, but there is still a little time and I will come in the flesh, and in the flesh I will divide the ages: the earthly one from the spiritual one. I will make a new age, which will no longer be changed or troubled.

... It is the time from the end and this is not known, that justice has been hidden and the truth has been covered. It is not wanted someone to tell you this. And you should also know that there is not much time and you will move to the second age and there will no longer be another, but beware of death (Of sin, r.n.).

... Look well and search well, for you live in the last times. It is seen after the time. Outside it is warm, sunny and peace in the world, but among Christians, there is bad weather, and killing. Write on paper.

... Be perfect, therefore, for behold I flounder, for I am great with word, and the trumpet is small. Liberate your relatives from hell. Give them too the joy and salvation by deeds, for I do not speak only to you, but to all of you, alive and dead.

Be perfect! The time is coming to send you to lay your hands on the one that is lying in his bed, and he will get up; and to pray for the blind ones and they will be healed, so that they may see the power of prayer. The time is coming for you to go to the prisoner concentration camp and to lay your hands on the lock and it will break open. The time is coming, My child, when everyone among the Christians will do their job.

All clothing and fabrics and all footwear will be thrown out in the streets. But why it will not be said. I ask you not to use anything. Tread and spit on them but touch nothing as you will turn into a lump of stone and Lot's wife. Teach yourselves well these exhortations from Me, for you will see fabrics and clothes and will ask yourself why they were thrown away for they were good. Do not take for the curse fell on this disrespectful behavior.
