

The Word of God

This little bird entered the crows and eats what the crows eat, she eats even carrions. Now she eats carrions for she is with crows. I have seen once how a flood of crows came from abroad on earth, a large flock, and I was with Peter, My friend. And the crows found a foul carcass and they sat on and ate it. And Peter said, “Oh, Lord, such a food do these crows eat?” And I said, “So do they eat for crows are crows.” And I told him that these crows are the humankind of to-day, which eats what does not know, meat of humans too, dog, cat and mouse. (They are put into sausages and other “meat products,” r.n.) Then they found that foul carcass in the field, but now this carcass is in the stores. Christian, keep this hidden so that the world may not realize that you know it. And then Peter put his hand to his mouth and wept bitterly. And I said, “So will it hap-pen with My servants too.”

I have spoken many times, “Do not eat things if you do not know where they are from. Eat only things made by yourselves!”

... Christians, what are you doing? If I were to tell you everything, all, the end will come to Me. What are you doing? Some of you eat and others mourn; some of you shiver with cold and others, with seven clothes on them too; some of you pray and some others revel and gorge themselves.
