

The Word of God

... Oh, sons, how you give God's kingdom for an earthly lust! The time is coming for heavenly messengers to visit you: the Lord's Mother with the angels from heaven. The time is coming for them to go with you on the way. The time is coming for the Lord, Jesus Christ, to eat at the table with you, as He ate in Cleopas' house.

... Women, I speak spiritually: One will come into your house and will call to work. What will you do? And he tells you a lie that you work for victims of a disaster. You too were a victim and no one gave you a loaf of bread into your house. Victims of today, who did not believe in My work are punished.

... You may know that many will be sealed in the tomb, for where My Body is put (The Holy Supper, r.n.), they put the body of evil spirit too; where they put My blood, they also put the blood of the evil spirit.

... Let everyone eat from this sweet manna. Do not murmur in the day of feasting. Do not murmur on Sunday. Do not murmur in the day of celebration, for every holy day will love its own children.
