

The Word of God

... You have to know that you will be destroyed by this time, if you do not take My power as your shelter, and My teaching as your food, for you would take after the angels who fell down. Who thought that they could fall? They fell because they had hidden thoughts. And you will fall down in the same way, because you have hidden thoughts, Christian, and you will not succeed in what you want to do, what you think to do against God. You should know that the punishment that comes over the world and over some of you does not come from Me, but it rather comes by itself; however, those of you who will be with Me will be protected and spared.

... Son, have you seen a socialist church? It has not been since age. From now on it will be socialist. The priest will change his people from a believer into a socialist. The man will be taken out from the church and brought to work. The socialist is claiming him, the republic is claiming him and you will know that you will not be able to bear this burden. And this was to come because of the unbelief of the Orthodox who went into the church only to meet his or her friend, or to look at you, Christian, to see how you present yourself, so that he might have something to take to the one who put him to be a spy for your life. (Service of the security dictatorship, r.n.) That is why I say: an unbelieving time.

... Straighten yourselves Christians, for little, little it is, and we will see each other, and the one in the grave, who sleeps today, shall rise. A trumpet is sounding now, in a little while; it will sound your arrival. It will call you to come in front of Me, not dead, not lying, not asleep, but awake. Pray always to God, so that this trumpet may not find you somewhere, awry, but rather praising God and singing. Well, children, be wise and do not ponder wrongly, for the Lord did not say any wrong words.

... Cristian, be careful! The time is full of lies. My little children, raise your hands, your mind and your thought, to the Lord, so that He may bring the truth into the light, to bring this lie to shame. A little angel will come from heaven if you are good, whom the Lord will send to the king and he will tell him to put an end to this lie, because if he doesn't, then all the breath will be destroyed. And the king will not do so, because he will be afraid of being shot by those that will be with him. And then all the breath will be destroyed and man will turn against man and they will kill each other. And those who will be out on the sea will steer their ships and steamers back and they will sink them. They will do this by themselves, because they say that they will die any-how, either now or some other time, or when they will come out to the shore. My little Mother has cried and mourned over the destruction of these lives.

... On the river banks it is written an ugly name: "seaside." And there on that bank are only the stripped and naked. It is freedom to these. Only you, Christian, do not have freedom. How is the sun to shine when it sees these? For, it has been given freedom to the unclean things and the freedom was taken from the clean ones and the divine curse will catch up those who prohibited clean things.

... You should never go to sleep and never eat without God. Sit at the table, and put for Him a chair and a spoon, and do really believe that God is at the table with you.
