

The Word of God

... Lord Jesus said, “Lengthen your little dress!” and she took an ugly look at me. Lord Jesus said, “I have seen you smoking!” and he looked at me as the worst of my enemies. Nor even Caiaphas or Herod looked so fierce as that young man or virgin. Lord, Jesus Christ said, “Let the Christian lady not have her head uncovered, let her not show her bare leg and let her not wear high or sharp heels.” And this led to a great war between them and I. Now I say nothing. I close My mouth and swallow, for it is My turn, but later on there will be your turn, for you will swallow until you swell and crack and you will cry but I will not save you. It is hard Christian. It is hard for someone not to obey My teaching. It is hard, hard, son. This is the sufferance of My vessel through which I speak; the disobedience of My people. This is it, sons; the disobedience of the people in everything. Son, I have the power to heal but let the people who suffer heal it.
