

The Lord and Holy Virginia's trumpet calling upon the Christians from Mănești town

The Spirits of the Most Holy Trinity call out and work powerfully on earth. The Lord, Jesus Christ girds and sets the Christian people at a heavenly table in the midst of which He has been speaking for a long time, for this is what the Lord spoke: «Here, I will be with you to the end of the age». Amen.

I said: «I go to My Father, for if I do not go I cannot come to you. I go so that I may come to you. I go and I will send a Comforter to you; I will send the Holy Spirit Who will take from Me and give to you and He will teach you and reveal from what is Mine».

God is speaking again to this town as He spoke at the beginning of this work through which He came down and in which He said from its beginning that He will dwell in with His Spirit until the end. Amen.

The Spirit of God is working and speaking in the town of Mănești. Peace from God upon this town! Peace, resurrection and faith! Peace, edification and unity, as in the beginning so in the end, for the Lord wants to finish victoriously the work of His creature's salvation and then He wants to announce His kingdom.

The Spirit of the Lord has come down to this work, and the people of this town has known this beginning of work and this people will not be able to say that God did not speak with it, for this town spoke with God. Whatever you may think Christian, that you will escape to confess this, here, the Lord is coming to you and is telling you today that you will be a witness before humankind, that God spoke on this blessed earth and that the Lord chose and spoke to you. Well My child, you will be a witness, for it is only a little time and you will see this work brought from hiding into view by God. You will see that this mountain will rise above the mountains, above the powers, above the heights and the Lord will speak through this work from the rooftops, you Christian who either wants it or not, you will have to testify that you are an adopted son of this work. You, Christian people, are a child of this work, for when you believed at the time you came and joined, when you came and said, „Yes, Lord”, I want you to know Christian, that since then you have the seal of God on you; you have the sign of this godly working. I know that now it is still hard to believe that you have this sign on you, but with the Lord you are past as a part of the people's counting which ate at this table. This counting testifies before the throne of the Most High Trinity and the words of this working cannot be abolished, which were written the same on earth as in heaven, for the heavenly Holy Spirit was speaking with you, Christian, and a commandment came down on earth to be written the words of the Holy Spirit, and they were written My people, and this book is testifying to the Lord about you that you are written into it, you child who forgot that you are written in this book. The words of the Holy Spirit cannot be abolished, as not even a jota from the words of the Book of the Truth, from the Book of the Law, from the Book of the prophecies, can be abolished. Not even your name can be abolished from this book written by the Holy Spirit, and here, the Lord is speaking with you, Christian people from this town, and is asking you to remember and not to forget that you are written in the book that the Holy Spirit wrote at the time of the darkness of the beast's dominion, (Of communist dictatorship, r.n.), that is written about in the Book of the Truth, for here, the time is coming for the work of God to receive its first appearance and the time of the victorious days is coming. The time of the second appearance of God is coming, however hard it is to you to believe, you Christian people of this time, for if you do not believe, many nations will believe, that will be lead by God to this mountain, until this heavenly Zion, from the top of which the Spirit of God will speak once again to the peoples, languages and nations, as John the evangelist wrote in the book of his prophecy.

Oh, Israel of this time, the child of Israel, the child of promise made to Abraham¹⁵, your father, remember the Lord's words that He gave you when He went up to sit at the right hand of the Father, for He said that if you were faithful you would not work only those miracles, rather you would work things and miracles greater than those. But then God said to the multitudes: «Blessed is he who stays fast for Me», and He also told you, well Christian people: «Blessed is who is not shattered against this rock». And here that it happened as in the time of Moses' people, which the Lord took out of the slavery with a strong arm and guided it in a pillar of cloud and a pillar of fire, the same as you were led by the Lord, you Christian people. And Moses' people murmured ceaselessly and rebelled at the slightest trial and that murmuring and unfaithful people shattered and perished in the wilderness swallowed by the earth beneath it and died with the food between its teeth when it murmured against the heavenly manna which was coming down from heaven upon that people, for it was the holy and blessed people and that is why they were eating manna from heaven. Moses' people were continuously unfaithful and rebelling against Moses and even his brothers after the flesh were touched by the wrath of God for trial. Oh, how hard it was for Moses to stand in front of that people and ask God better to move him above than to let him carry in his back the pain of that people which was always murmuring. And the Lord comforted and told him to take from the chiefs and elders of Israel and made them stand in front of the tabernacle and the Lord made that the spirit of Moses rest upon these, and so it was; and they started to prophesy and Moses rejoiced and was comforted in his spirit and when Joshua told Moses to stop them prophesying, well children, what did that Moses, full of meekness, said? He said this: «Oh, only if the whole people were prophets in such a way that the Holy Spirit may come down upon them!». This is what he said, and reprimanded Joshua telling him: «Are you not in some way jealous when telling me to stop them?»

Oh, My loved people, it hurts Me that the people of this time like that one are perishing from lack of wisdom, for who is this that can thwart the plans and works of God? Who could stop even one of the achievements and prophecies which had to be fulfilled in the time of the Lord's being in the body and which were prophesied by the prophets long before; for they were fulfilled exactly the same way as they were prophesied. Could someone abolish such a thing? Well children, no.

Here, well Israel of this time, for your body is coming from Abraham up to you. Here, son, that the Book of the Truth also writes about you, for as the prophets of old did not know what they were writing when the Holy Spirit was prophesying through them about the time of Messiah, the same way they did not know when the Spirit of God wrote through them about this time too, about the time of the smallest Israel and about the time of God's glory, which will soon be shown; for whether you want it or not, whether you believe it or not, well Christian people, this time has come as well.

When I started to give you birth, you little Israel, I raised a body (Saint Virginia, the sixth apocalyptic trumpet, r.n.) and made it a vessel in which the Spirits of the Most Holy Trinity have been dwelling for twenty-five years and since then I have been speaking to the people being born: «Blessed is he who cleanses his life into this vessel, and blessed is he who will not be shattered by this rock». But you did not understand the way you had to understand so that I may remain with you to the end, and you understood according to your wisdom and not according to My wisdom and shattered My child; for if you had understood that the word of life that was speaking by this working was in this vessel, and if you had understood that the rock you shattered against was the Lord, Jesus Christ, Who was doing this work; if you had liked to remain under the light of this wisdom, I would have had you even today and I would have had you great and with such a power that you could have said to the mountain to move and would have been able to raise the dead of this time, you Israel of this time of darkness through which you should have given and shared light. But you Christian, you made the God of the Holy Spirit come down, you made Him come down to the man so that you might be able to judge Him and go mad and shatter yourself against this rock, as you have continuously forgot that the Lord is not of this world and He is without sin, and that is why He called blessed the one to whom He says: «Blessed is the one who is not going mad for Me». Did you not have the saying of the Scriptures which says: «John, the Baptizer, came neither eating nor drinking and you said that he had a demon; and Jesus Christ came eating and drinking and you said that He had a demon and was eating with sinners»? You Christian had a model of those that exterminated from their midst both, John, the Baptizer, and the Son of God, and did not receive them into their midst. But here, children that John is and is working and coming to prepare the way of the Lord for the second time. And behold that, the Lord, Jesus Christ, is the head of the church and He is with you to eternity the same as He has been from beginning to this end, for through this end the iniquity, death and hell have been finishing and the ephah is being raised between heaven and earth to be put back into its place, and behold, the time is coming for the Lord to announce His kingdom and to establish the New Jerusalem and the spring and the tree of life; he is coming to make new heavens and a new earth, the same as it is written and nothing can be abolished from the Book of the Truth and all have been fulfilling, Christian people.

You children of this town, the children of God, I came once into this town a little while ago; and I came to write a book of testimony for the Christians who remained close to the words of life, which is flowing from this spring even today, from the spring that you also know, the ones that once were embraced by the Lord on the way of this road and have been drinking from this spring of the living water. When I called the roll that is being done in these days, when I called those who believed in this heavenly coming down, I told them that I would raise again the gate of heaven for the town of Mănești to call, gather and tell them, and to those who were from the beginning and are no longer today, to tell them too that the heavenly spirit is calling to bring the flock together, so that he may cleanse and bring it to this cowshed and to add it to the people which remained after taking out from their midst the spirit and body who carried God¹⁶; for it has been added to this people that you know a more people born on the way, and behold, now every Christian that was past to the counting of this people is being searched out.

Ten years have passed since I raised up to Me the body that carried Me and by which I sounded the trumpet and spoke once again on earth, the same as was written for this time; and it was written that I will raise it for a while to hide it from the face of the wicked serpent (The Communist dictatorship, r.n.) and to test the faith of this people. But look that a word of testimony stands written in the book of this work when the Lord said: „Verginica do not lose yourself, for in your days you will rise with a mighty spirit and feed the multitudes which will be lead to the glory of the New Jerusalem in order to hear the words of the Lord from this mountain of blessing which will not be taken back.” And behold children of this town God is coming with his working in the town of Mănești; He enters as in old times when He was speaking with many in this town; He enters again with His Annunciation to bring you also the good news that I sent back on earth the spirit of the trumpet by which I sounded in the days of darkness of the red beast’s reign and so, through the darkness of disbelief, I have worked and made for Myself a close flock and said that I will make out of it and with it a light and salt on earth and salvation on earth. There have passed seventy years since the red beast’s reign, (1921 – the year of the Romanian Communist Party foundation – 1991 the end of the communist dictatorship, r.n.), and here, the Lord has been searching out His people as He was searching Israel in the old times, when he was lifting his hands up and was praying to God for salvation, when he was taken into captivity by other nations or when because of his sins he was carrying upon him the yoke of wicked judges and without God. Behold, the Lord has been searching out the people who ate the heavenly manna through that dish that you know, through that body which I used to make the heaven speak to you, people of Israel from the time of the end, because so it is written, and the Lord wants to do with you a new start of a new and clean age, a nation of heavenly bodies, which will be established on a clean earth, on a new earth, and the Lord wants to make a new Jerusalem with you and to establish in its midst those that are written in the book, as this river of life will richly flow with living water, and as the Magi were led by God up to the manger where the Savior of the nations came, the same way it will flow in the days to come peoples and nations to the spring of life which flows from Jerusalem and they will stand up and rise and will be added to those that are saved.

Behold that I raised the spirit of the trumpet by which I sounded for a long time on earth; I woke her up and clothed her with the power and strength of the Spirits of the Most Holy Trinity to start working her mission in her days, for look, these are the days of her work, for she hardly waited to rise and prepare My way and to lift her people up for the days of the Lord’s victory; and this is what I said to her: get up Verginica for the time has come; the time I was speaking about when you are to feed with a heavenly word multitudes of people, and you will prepare a great nation that may come out for the meeting of My day, to enter with it the feast of the great Passover when I will gird and feed once again the multitudes from the fruit of life, from the tree of life, so that My creature may be and live forever. Arise from now on, arise Verginica! Wake your spirit up and take a round trip, My daughter, to see that your people is dried out and your children are only dry bones, as they are yours, My love, this people is yours, it is your earning, it is your work, it is your flock, for you stood before Me and gave Me a dwelling and cover to be able to speak with this people that I born out of you, for you suffered. You suffered more than everybody that I have now with Me; each one with his own flock. Every saint that I have now in heaven worked and produce a fruit for himself; a work and a flock. And behold Virginia that your people is the least one and it is waited by all heaven, for he is the youngest son that the Father set to share the heavenly reward and wealth, to give each one as he worked. This is what the Father is doing with His youngest son, for this is written: «The least will be the greatest over the kingdom».

Come My love, come Verginica, speak to those who were with you then, for these have undergone as those from that Scripture which says: «I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered». Here, I raised you and gave you power to sound and gather together the scattered flock. Gather it, My daughter, from all the steeps, from all the valleys, from the mountains and hills. Blow Verginica, blow My love, over these dry bones so that they may rise and know that God was in their midst; the One Who worked, prophesied and fulfilled, and will fulfill with this people that Scripture which says: «A great multitude, clothed in white garments will stand before the throne and sing the new song of the New Jerusalem which is coming down from heaven». Speak darling; speak Verginica to those that We have gathered together today for he who believes in My messengers, this one believes in Me. Amen.

– Glory to You, Most Holy Trinity, and peace from You to this place where I am come down with the power in spirit to write a book for the town of Mănești which I entered with You once, and then to give You the book to add it to the book of resurrection and sealing of my people.

My loved ones, my loved Christian, children of God, I found you written at the Lord. I found you called to the counting of my people. I am the one who you were walking embraced with on God's way. I am the awakening trumpet which the Lord sounded in the midst of this people. The people of Moses turned around on the spot for forty years instead of forty days because it murmured and gave up Moses; and that people rebelled and fell into the wilderness murmuring against the heavenly manna which was coming down every day. That people ate a godly food and drank from the spiritual rock which was to come, for the rock was Christ; but they fell into the wilderness because they worshipped idols as it is written that «they ate and drank and rose to dance», and they went into fornication and thousands fell in a single day, and they were tempting God and were dying bitten by snakes. But here my people, the Lord made it this way with those so that you may learn from them, and these examples were written for our enlightenment; there were written new things for us who reached to the end of the ages.

Behold I sound the trumpet to be heard. I sound it loudly that my people may rise from everywhere. Wake up and come to your senses! Come back to the words of life which you were feeding on in the old times! Get up my child, get up my disciple and come with me; let us go to destroy the enemy since ages who has always been fighting against the Israel of God. Get up, as no one of your wicked deeds will be able to stay before God to disinherit you, people of this time, as nothing and no one will be able to curse the blessed one, and remember of the prophet Isaiah by whom God writes: «Behold, I forgive your transgression so that I may not destroy you».

Get up Christian, get up with love that you may not be raised by God's strength, for you know what the Scripture writes: «That servant who knew from his master to do and did not do, that servant will be much beaten». Make peace with the Lord, my people, lest your accuser from the evil age give you to the officer of the prison and to not be able to get out from there until you have paid the last penny. I came to welcome you and I have power to raise you in a moment and reconcile you to God in a moment only if you want Christian, for look that the Lord is coming and is making peace with you; He is coming and forgives you everything and does not destroy you; He is coming to make you the light on earth; He is coming to dwell in you, to come in you with His kingdom, for a word from the time of the Lord's body stands written: «His kingdom is not coming openly; it is in you», but the time of the Scripture has come, that one which says: «The Lord is coming to gather together peoples and languages to see His glory», and when this blessed earth, chosen and called by a new name, pronounced by the Lord's mouth, will be raised for greatness, blessed will be he who will believe the words of the propheties from the book of this works made at the end of the ages, for these words are true, for the Lord of the prophet's spirits sent them and wrote them for testimony. The Lord sent those words which were written to testify about these what come to happen soon, as the Book of the Truth writes.

I came to gather together the body of this people, for the body of this people is undone and scattered through every devastated place. Take it as an example to believe, for I know that this people is stubborn and without faith. Oh, you unfaithful people do not let the words you once believed and then denied testify against you. Learn from the saints whom the Christians exalt, for the saint martyr Mina (Menas, or Mina; 285-309 A.D., r.n.) left for the Lord and came back in the body and spoke with the sinners and gathered together the body, open to pieces and buried piece by piece by the evildoer man who forgot that the Lord is, sees and make it come true. But the Christian cut to pieces was praying to the saint Mina, and behold the miracle known through the faith of well-known Christian. But what a great pain on me, what a great sigh in my spirit, for I have stayed for such a long time in front of this people and suffered and cried and carried affliction and terror from the rulers of the world and from the Herods of that time. I have stood before the Lord for such a long time for you, Christian people, and you will not be able to say to the Lord that you did not know; you will not be able because you saw that God knows everything. You saw how He said to Cain asking him of his brother's blood, and Cain said that he was not aware of his brother's blood; but well, you said in vain Christian. Oh, you will not be able to say anything. It is written at God that you are the son of this working and will have no way to hide no matter how hard it is for you to believe, for you will have not even time to think of hiding. It is a little more time and behold, I have come with love to you to cry with you the time of leave and then to get together, to use well this little bit of time and to rise and forgive and make peace, as afterwards we have work to do, my people. Take a look upon the world for the world is dead and needs to be resurrected. Get up my loved people for it is written about you that you will rise from the dead and the dead will rise up from their graves, at your word. This is written in the Book of the Truth, as from the mouth of the one who believes in God will flow rivers of living water.

Behold, you children of this town, I tell you also, get up and live for Jesus Christ! Oh, it is not enough to believe what I tell you, because you need to put the Lord into your life, in your living of every day. Get up with love to be able to search Jesus Christ well and so that He may also search you afterwards and to cleanse you of disbelief, of weakness and of immorality, and that the Lord may be seen in you. But be careful that the New Jerusalem is being established from heaven, and be careful that it will be heavenly and nothing impure, defiled or perishable will be able to remain on this earth of the promise, for behold my people, this is the time when this corruptible body has to clothe for incorruptibility and this dying body to clothe in immortality to overcome death. That Scripture which says this, neither it can be abolished as nothing can be taken or added to the words of this book, but woe to the one who takes out or adds, for you know what is written for that one.

I want that the victory over death to be fulfilled with my people and that is why I call out pathetically and my spirit is walking crying through all the towns, through all the corners where I have hearts written to the counting of my people to gather them into my arms and into the cowshed of this working, to bring them back to the way and to make that the people may be clean in the day of the Lord, for the Lord is coming to you; He is coming, my people, to engage you for the grape gathering and to make with you resurrection on earth. Whether you want it or not He calls you. And if you do not want to come to terms with Him and if He want to remain with you and you do not want,

He will take you and push you from behind, for behold, the Lord gave into my hand the trumpet and sword for your awakening, people of Israel from these days. Come loved people as the Lord was well pleased with you and even now He is well pleased with you, but come for the promise made for you cannot be abolished. Come with me, for behold, God is asking me to appear to you ready for work, but let yourself be worked out, well Israel. Do not harden your heart for today God is calling you out and you should know that the Lord gave me great power to be able to pass through the rock if you are a rock.

Children of Jesus Christ, you are His witnesses and will have to testify about the salvation work of the Holy Spirit Who triples the threefold work of the Most Holy Trinity. The Holy Spirit by God. It is being done the new counting of the new people, for it will be new, it will be incorruptible; this people will be heavenly and will inherit the new earth, for it will soon be new; this earth of the promise will be new twice, as in it and out of it, the song of the New Jerusalem will resound. That is why I want, Christian, to make you incorruptible and heavenly, for this new people of the New Jerusalem will join the heavenly one and the new song will be heard: «Glory to those of God above and peace on earth»! And it will be heard singing: «Holy, Holy, Holy, the Lord God, and Sabaoth, He Who comes again»! Amen.

Let it be written about this day and about you, the raised town, for look, it is being written by the heaven also. Amen, amen I say to you; it will be easier for Sodom and Gomorrah in the days to come than for those whom the Lord call out and deny Him.

Let this town believe in God and arise! Amen. The Lord empowered me to blow over the earth so that your earth and your body may turn into heaven, Israel. Behold, I am blowing upon you now. Take from my spirit for my spirit is empowered by the Spirits of the Most Holy Trinity Who blows resurrection upon those from the grave of disbelief. Lift up the cross, lift up the gates so that the King of glory may come in; the kingdom of God to come in you, children of Israel!

Get up Israel, for your people is waiting for you; Abraham, Isaac and Jacob is waiting for you; the body of your tribe is waiting for you; your root is waiting for you Israel, for you will sit at the table with all your kindred and with all those who will be added to you after the promise made through Abraham, the faithful one; you will sit at the table with heaven, Israel, for the old will pass away from now on, and the new heaven and the new earth will receive their first appearance, and the Lord Will shine and He Will be light. When the Lords said: «Let it be light»! it was so; it was light. Behold, the Lord is saying once again: «Let it be light»! Let it be light everywhere. Amen.

Peace to you, those who arose from this town! Peace and feasting of remembrance! Peace to this town, and resurrection and light from the east upon you, the town of my people! Oh, only you have come? How about the many; where are they?

Peace and a threefold power upon you, to put aside the cold slab which fell down and shattered the sons of this town. Behold another day of testimony, another book and another day of resurrection. Your parents, Israel, desired but did not see these days; but look, they are rejoicing together with you, as they also see now and leap for joy, well people of Israel. Give your hand to your tribe, Israel! Come out to welcome that great day and be ready, for the Lord, Who is hiding His face now, look, He is revealing Himself soon. Amen.

Peace to you and once again, peace to you! Let the peace of the heaven not come back and remain with you! Amen. Peace to you, people of the New Jerusalem! Peace to you, new Israel! Amen.

I have in my hand the seal of this time; I have in my hand the awakening trumpet and the seal of the living God, of the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Well Israel, a word of testimony stands written in the book of this working, that many houses of Christians which do not have the mark of God, will be struck by the tool of destruction which is coming behind me, by the tool of death. Let you be sealed, and be then a Christian after the truth. Throw away from your house the weapons of the evil spirit and be a child of God's love, for God is love, Israel. Give up your law for your law is not good, and take up God's law so that you may no longer die, Christian. Leave the lust of the flesh, leave the lust of the belly and do not do what those in the time of Noah did, who did not want to take heed and did not want to believe as Noah and his house did and made an ark for salvation. Woe,

Christian, watch out, for now it will be the same, as in the time of Noah, when all people were eating and drinking; they were marrying and given in marriage, and the death came unexpectedly upon them, but Noah and his house remained clean and faithful and gained their life.

Get out from the world, my people, for the world has come to its end! Get up and be born of heaven, for what is out of the flesh is flesh, and what is out of the spirit is spirit, Christian people! Do no longer be part of the world, Israel, for the world has come to an end.

Jerusalem, be worthy of your name, for you will have to testify about how you received this new name, as a new name and the name of the fortress of New Jerusalem will be seen written on your forehead.

Peace to you, New Jerusalem! Amen

Peace to you, Israel. Amen, amen, amen.
