

The Word of God to His elected Irineu

My love and My peace and My hosts and My word are to My loved one, as I have him faithful to My work in this time; I have him among all who serve within the order of the church, as for the others it remained an order made by people, as they do not serve to the God of order.

Peace to you, My love and My chosen! Peace to you and refreshment to your heart, for great is the mystery in your heart as I live in it; I have room in it and I am pleased with it! Peace to you and peace to Me in you! Joy for you and joy for Me in you! Hope for you and hope for Me in you, for I hope for you to accomplish My visible work and My new light, which makes its own path to appear upon this time. This is the time for the kingdom of Israel to be established, and behold, let us be great and resolute, My child, as we have to work what no one has worked by now. Do not be afraid, do not murmur and do not be afraid of people. What can the man do to you? Nothing. And you will see they who depart from the One Who speaks from heavens, that their judgment will be more severe than of those who did not want to listen to the One Who was speaking on the earth; for the time is coming for the heaven and the earth to be shaken, and those that are shaken will remain steadfast, a steadfast kingdom and a pleasant worship to God. And in this new beginning, I want to have you as a foundation, as for this you were born, and if this was written to Me, I had to have your word as a foundation, and let this word be yours: „Behold, I come to do Your will, my God. Be it to me according to Your will.”

I have a book that made for you in this time and I have to write in it all that I have to speak and fulfill by you, and then we will speak the words of this book, and they will speak on the heights and testify about this mystery that we work; a mystery that is still covered for a little while, for a moment, My love, My servant, My anointed, for in the place that I anointed you over the New Jerusalem, behold, we set a rock of witness, and you will be My faithful witness. This mystery will be hidden under this testimony a very little time, but I had to send you to the one who is great on the seat of the church, (The Patriarch of the Romanian Orthodox Church, r.n.), for if he had not known, he would have had no sin and he would have justified before Me.

Do not be afraid of them, for they are no stronger than you. Be determined like Nicodemus from among the priests of My time, for he did not fear of the scribes and Pharisees when he stood up and took care of My body's burial. He was the priest who buried the Son of God, as the Son of God totally submitted to the law, «as I did not come to break the law; rather to fulfill it». Oh and there was no one found among the priests but only one who believed that I was the Son of God and that I was from heaven and I came to fulfill the Scriptures.

Behold, I am now too with Mine through the word, from beginning to the end of the ages; I am forever with Mine, for I am endlessly in they who are Mine, as I promised. I came down with the word in the midst of this people and I have the manger of My word here, where, look, we build a tower of witness, a strong tower, a rock of resurrection, for the testimony of the word that I worked with; it is the rock that now we build on the new beginning, for it is new, it is a new covenant; it is a beginning of righteousness, of cleanness, of holiness, as in heaven so upon this beginning. And we will establish a word of testimony to this foundation, and new days of feasting, and we will celebrate here the resurrection and the Holy Spirit, and we will celebrate the name of the trumpet that the Lord worked (Through which the Lord spoke, r.n.) at during this time for the unsealing of the seven thunders which spoke in the time of the apocalyptic vision, about which the apostle of love, John, the Evangelist, testified, for his spirit was also emptied into this vessel that God spoke through during this time, because the angel said then to John: «Take the book and eat it, for you will have to prophesy once more, in the last time».

When I came in the flesh on the earth, the Father worked secretly in Me, and no one knew that I was the Son of God and that I came from the heavenly Father and from the Holy Spirit; no one knew until the voice which came from the Father spoke: «This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased». The Father worked secretly to fulfill His work that was through Me. This way He worked during this time as well, as Verginica had carried Me for twenty-five years, and I spoke mouth to mouth with Israel during this time, and I spoke through Verginica, and she was hidden from the understanding of those around, as this work was so. I took Verginica to Me and then I sent her again on the earth, as this was written in the book of this prophecy. I raised her spirit and Verginica has sons on the earth, for her sons gave birth and they have sons from Verginica. She is the one who will stand as the foundation of this rock and on this rock; on this rock, this dwelling will stand as a witness.

I put the spirit of wisdom upon you, for I am in you, but you should believe that I am in you. I remind you of the one who prayed to God and said: «Lord, if you can, do well to my sick child!». And the Lord told him: «If you can believe everything is possible!». And he answered: «I believe, Lord. Help my unbelief!». I remind you something about that time to strengthen you, My child, and be faithful, as through those that are mine by this work, I will work greater things than in that time.

Take My wisdom and make a foundational work with it and put your name at the foundation of this word of new foundation; and put into this word the name of My anointed Michael, (King of Romania, r.n.) for I want to speak his name from the top of this rock when we will finish working this rock. I am the One Who will bring My anointed. I am the God of the powers, and what is impossible to the weak ones is possible with God. But this blessed country will be cleansed of all iniquity, of all filthiness, of all injustice, for it will shine on it the glory of the Son of God, Who is coming again, as written, and He comes to establish His footstool on this chosen and blessed earth.

I want to speak with My anointed Michael, with the king of this nation, and I gave you this heavenly mission to set upon him, upon his house and his offspring that will be on his side, the holiness after God's likeness, after God's establishment, which the Lord will be perfecting with on this earth with a holy name, with a name of the New Jerusalem.

Be My witness and be the witness of this time of heavenly glory and holiness upon My anointed Michael, by the words of this testimony and by the establishment of a holy life upon him, according to the godly order, because this order will be the way which will bring him into My chosen country, into his loved country.

He, who loves Romania and is not with Me and My commandments, does not love this people and this earth; that one can do nothing for this chosen people. I will make My laws come down upon My anointed Michael and make the laws of this chosen land come down, for it is the land chosen by heaven and the eye of God is upon him; the eye which sees those that are wicked and hidden and which penetrates and discovers, which cleanses very deeply and takes out from this land everything that is filthy and spoiled and given to defilement, so that this new earth may be new and the rainbow of Romania may come down upon it, accompanied by the new glory of the heavenly Jerusalem. This is the faith of this land, of this New Canaan, of the new Eden which will shine upon the nations, and My anointed Michael and his offspring will be in me, and will not be without Me on this new land.

Now you will come and I will set by your own hand the beginning stone of the dwelling of God's testimony, who is and works by the word, and everything will be worked this way until we finish; and we will work quickly the new beginning from which the resurrection will arise upon this nation, and all others shall be added to you by God. Seek first the embodiment of My word which is coming upon you, for My word has to become flesh after I speak it, and the others will be made easy to you by the Lord, and will be worked out by His power, by His angels, who are always sent to your service, for your protection and around you.

In the beginning was the Word, and the word became flesh, for God said it, and all were made by the word. The same is now; the Lord speaks a word and the word becomes flesh for the perfection of the kingdom to come. Amen.

Peace to you, My love, but do not be feeble! Be determined and do not be afraid. I am with you and I will be, and all will be worked out, but let My love be your love. Let your love serve you now for the happiness to come, and we will rest and celebrate new days, a celebration of resurrection and of Holy Spirit, as from this rock it will be heard a hymn of resurrection and the song of the Holy Spirit, the song of the redeemed who will wear white garments and a garment of grace and of righteousness.

You should put a celebration of resurrection and of the Holy Spirit coming down upon the blessed people. This is how these days of feasting shall be upon this holy place, which is build now by the power of God in His faithful ones.

Peace to you! Peace from the saints in heaven, who look from heaven to the testimony of the day that you were anointed on, in the Jerusalem that was lowered from heaven! Be faithful to the anointment which is on your head, for we will rise and plant fruit trees from place to place, and these fruit trees will be nourished by the sap of the life tree, which is worked here by My faithful servants, and this fruit tree will be placed in Jerusalem.

May your faith be blessed in Me and into the work of My word by which I am with you! Keep what you have until I come, and let no one take away your glory, for I come soon.

May My kiss on your head and the myrrh of the comforting be with you always! Amen, amen, amen.

02/15-07-1991