

The Word of God at The Feast of the Assumption

Love comes down from heaven on earth. Amen. Love became word, spread over Romania and speaks; and the voice and the word of love are being fulfilled. Love comes down and speaks. God is love. Amen. God speaks in Romania. The Lord speaks over the people of His word. God speaks the word of love.

Peace to you, My people born of word, and I want to give birth through you to all Romania by My word; and I want to give her birth out of love, so that she also may be love before Me. Peace to you, My people, as the news spread to all the ends that God speaks from heaven with you, that the Lord sits above you and speaks His word over you. I turned you into a gate, My people, a gate through which My word enters to the people. Peace to you, blessed people! Peace to those who love you, to those who believe in Me through you, by My word given to the people by you.

Oh, how much love I have put in people, as the man fell from eternity and virginity! Why, Christian, did the man not understand how much love I have put for the man? I have first created all the beauties, all that can be more beautiful and blessed, and then I sat and worked out the man with My own hand, to have someone to give everything that I created. Oh, how much suffering on Me, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit! How much suffering on Me, when I saw that the man fell from the heavenly good! Oh, My people, how much love I have mixed with My pain and how much I have suffered loving, loving and waiting to see the man near God again! I have worked afterwards for five thousand years to repair the things the man has spoiled. I have dwelt by the word in the prophets and I have let My anointment among the people, as My prophets and My anointed ones have worked with My word in them for five thousand years, My people. In the beginning I had worked for five days, and on the sixth day I made the man to give him everything that I had worked for five days, and the man had crushed them all; he had crushed the eternal life of those created by Me. Then I had worked for five thousand years to bring the man up into the eternity, and in the sixth thousand years I had been creating a new man. Oh, My people, and how had I done this? Behold, I was the Man, as I became the Son of Man within the sixth thousand years. I became Man, so that the man may know how he had to be, how he had to multiply and how he had to work before God. And behold, within the seventh thousand years I have been with the word over the earth, and no one is ready for this love, for this descending of love.

Love came down on to the earth, and the man does not know what wisdom is. Love calls the man. Man, where are you? Oh, you hid yourself; you hid yourself because you are naked. For seven thousand years you have been walking naked. The man that is born of the man is naked; he is barren. He is born naked of man, and naked he goes back, and behold, Love calls the man so that he may not go back again. Let him get up; let him cover himself and go forward, as Love is waiting before him. Man, born of man, Love waits for you to be born of it and then to know what wisdom is, as wisdom is a loving spirit of people.

My people, I enter the gate to call out the man. My people, My child, stand in the gate and give life to the word, which calls out, to the man. I am the word. I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, am called the Word of God, (Apoc: 19/13, r.n.) God from God, God Who came among the people from God. At the beginning I had Israel as My people, and I was speaking upon it, and Moses heard Me and worked to give to Israel eternity, virginity and the Canaan, and the man did not want even then to come back to God. I have Israel again in the end and I called Israel, Romanian. Israel means the Lord's people. Israel is the name of the Lord's people. Oh, Romanian Israel, behold, in the end I made you My people and I called you Romanian, the new chosen Israel, and I said: «Peace to you!». Israel, Israel, the Lord God calls you to become the people of the heavenly happiness. Romanian Israel, your Creator is calling you, as behold, I gave birth to My word in you, and I give birth to it on and on, as I always become word before you and I call you to go ahead and not come back any more. Look Israel, how I graze My sheep born of My new word, and keep the track of the sheep, Christian, as I put My flock before you, and I am the Shepherd and the Teacher. Israel, keep the track of My sheep and eat as well, so that you may grow up in wisdom and to learn the lesson of the kingdom of the heavens on earth and to become a builder, Romanian son; a builder of the heavenly kingdom between heaven and earth. Those that the man has built for seven thousand years are not good, sons. Only those that are built by God are good. Come for a work of heavenly masonry on the earth! Come, Romanian, come Christian, as the Romanian is the chosen people from the end. Come to build the kingdom of the heaven, as this is how I did with Adam. I created him to build the kingdom of the heavens, and he built disobedience. The first stone was disobedience, and everything that has been built for seven thousand years is built on it. And what has been built on it? It has been built lust; and the lust conceived and became sin, and the sin blamed the man and it has been standing against him for seven ages. But in the sixth age I made a new work, proclaimed by Me through the prophets. I came and I sown Myself into the Virgin, and I was the seed, I, Who came from heaven; I became Man in the Virgin and I was born a baby and I grew up a perfect Man, and then I stood with much love as a man to taste the death to break its power by My resurrection from the death.

My people, My people, who can understand what I did in the sixth age? I made the new man; born and not created. I made the work of the birth of the new Man. I came down from heaven among the people, as I had to give birth to every man from Me; from Me and not from man; from Me through the man, by the work of God's hands. The First Man was the work of God's hands, and I also want to make this kind of work in the end. In the beginning it was the man's creation, a worked out creation, and in the end it is a man's birth, a birth through the word, not through the man; a birth from heaven on earth, as it is written: «He, who is not born from above, from heaven, cannot enter into God's kingdom».

Israel, Israel, My dear people, I let the word through the Scriptures, and I spoke about the new birth of the world, and I prophesied about the world's renewal. Oh, My people, I also finished the seventh age, and I made a step of a new age, and who can understand the Scriptures anymore? I sent the angel and I asked the Virgin so that I may sow Myself into her, and she received Me. By what did she receive Me? She received Me by her word, and she said: «Behold, the handmaid of the Lord» and in that moment the Word was conceived and grew up and was born: he was born by a closed door, as that door was not used and the Virgin remained virgin. Behold, this is what God worked, the One Who made the heaven and the earth and the man. God worked out a birth from the Virgin and did not spoil the virginity through child bearing, but the man has no longer wisdom.

Oh, My people, I am with you in a heavenly celebration on the earth, and we celebrate the mother Virgin. The joy of heaven with you is in celebration. It is My mother, the Virgin, celebrated by the people chosen in the end.

Rejoice, mother Virgin; rejoice near the new people and help the small one, as you helped Me in the time of My infancy and childhood, until My full perfection. Help the small one, swaddle him, feed him and grow the little one up quickly, the one born of God by the word, as he who is born of God is included within God's kingdom. Rejoice mother Virgin, and teach the small one the hope in those that are promised by the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit; the hope in the renewal of the world. Amen.

Oh, how much love I have given for man! I, the Son of God, became the Son of Man, to make him son of God, born of the Son of God.

Man, where are you? Do you hear My voice? Oh, you hid yourself, because you are naked! You have been naked for seven thousand years. Behold, My word breathes upon you. Receive from My Spirit and let you be born of the Holy Spirit and stay swaddled in the Holy Spirit, as I call you son. Man, I love you and I call you. Love calls you. The pain of love is long; it is as long as seven thousand years. Man, My work, I came down from heaven after you; I came down into this little village and I made a cowshed of word in it and a path to the people. I made a garden of heaven and I hover above it and speak the word of the renewal of the world, and I call the man out to become eternal, to become virgin and to let him be taken over by life without death. Amen.

Man, fruit of the sin, come to a godly nature, as the Word came to give you birth from it, and that you may come then to life. Man, take from the fruit of life and fill yourself with life, as I am the way, the truth and the life. Amen.

What way did you choose, dear man? As the price that I gave to redeem you from the way you chose was expensive. God died for you, and then He rose to life and said: «I am the way, the truth and the life».

Oh, My people, I am the way, Romanian Israel, and I gave Myself to you to have a path and to walk on it. Take care of your walking and search yourself well and walk on the path, son.

The man has to be adopted by love. The man must have a mother's love. The man must become a baby at the bosom of love and to call it mother. The man must be the fruit of love.

Man, fruit of the sin; let you be born of love, of its word. It is waiting for you to feed you on its fruit. Love is life without death. Love is God. God is love and the man will be new, a man after God's image and likeness. This is the work for the new birth of the world, and behold, the heavenly wisdom speaks upon the earth, and it is bestowed on the people to renew the world, as it is written into the Scriptures. I have been coming down for forty years and I have become word and I have become a path of descent for the man; a path for the man's ascent to Me.

I made Myself known to the people of today's church, and they did not receive Me, and they have not known the Spirit of God, Who has spoken in the end; and they did not receive the comfort of the Holy Spirit into their church. They brought the Word again under the law and under the judgment, as it was two thousand years ago. The people of the church say that they have education; they say that they have knowledge. Where do they have knowledge from? Oh, Paul also had knowledge and education taught on the earth, but until I made his knowledge blind, I could not use him as a tool of My word; I could not, as I also cannot do it with the man of the church today. The Church has its own business; it has no time of the Word, which comes from heaven, from God. The Word comes; the Word came as it was written into the Scripture, but the church broke its way. The Word of God came and made itself a people; and it has a people, and it has a church, and it has a manger, and the Word of God is being born in it. The Word is the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Oh, people of the Word; oh, church of Jesus Christ, Jerusalem, New Jerusalem, made out by God! Take son and eat the word, as the church from the world went to sleep, and it does no longer wake up to eat. The church sleeps its own sleep, and it does not wake up from its sleep. I woke it up to hear My word, and then it went to bed again, and it does not wake up to stand before Me. He, who serves the sin, does not understand God; he has sin as his father; he has no time for God. But the man who fulfills God's commandments, has knowledge, has a sober spirit and it is a son of love, a son of God, as it is written into the Scriptures: «But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in His name; who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God».

Love comes down from heaven on earth. The love became word and is laying down on Romania. Peace to you, Romania, as you have the people of My word in you! Peace to you, as I want dress you like a bride and to give you birth from heaven and to be My bride; to make you virgin and to make you eternal; to give you the gifts that the man lost at the beginning. When Adam had a new son in the place of the murdered one, he said: «Behold son, in my own likeness and after my own image» and from that son the man has multiplied on the earth in Adam's image and after his likeness, as it is written. Adam was created by God in God's image and after His likeness, but when the man was born again of the man, he was in Adam's image and after his likeness. The man born of the sins must let himself be born from heaven, from God, from God's love for the man.

My people, you should be bread and salt for the poor and for the rich. My people, you should be a staff for the weak that will come to the path. My loved people, may you be blessed, and may you celebrate My coming, as behold, I have always come towards you and I speak from above you and I guide you and I am the path for you, My people.

Romanian Israel, come to the feast of My word, as the heavenly table is in the midst of Romania. Israel, Israel, you should make the cross right and you should make your life right to follow Me and to come at My table. Peace to you, My people! Peace to you, son; to you and to those who believe in Me and in you! To those that believe that you are My people, I give My peace and unfold My path, to see the way and to follow it.

My people, behold a heavenly supper; a supper of word in Romania! Romania, Romania, may all the holy heaven and all the heavenly powers bless you, and may you get up, daughter, and be a heavenly church in the middle of the nations of the earth! Peace to you, My country! Peace to you, Jerusalem, New Jerusalem! Peace to your anointed one, who has the anointment from Me! Peace to your body and spirit! Peace to you, Romania, New Israel, New Jerusalem! Amen, amen, amen.
