

The Word of God at The Feast of the Saint Martyr Mina

I am the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Let the sons of the garden of the Word hear. Let the gatekeepers hear and open to the Lord, as the Word comes to Israel; the Word God comes to speak over the earth. The Lord comes from heaven on the earth to be with the man, as it is not good for the man to be alone, but it is good for him to be with the Lord. Amen.

Peace to you, little garden of the word, which comes from heaven, which comes with the clouds, as it is written! Peace to you, anointed sons from the garden! Stand awake before Me, for I come and work a fresh word over the earth, a word of new age. I have been pouring out the grace of My word over Romania for seven years, to start with it a new age on the earth, but Gog and Magog have opposed Me. Be awake, anointed sons, so that you may stand before the word. I become fresh word over all Romania and I tell to My trumpet to prepare you so that you may stand before My word.

Oh, Verginica, here I am with you in your book. We come in to prepare the sons of My garden beautifully, as they are the messengers of heaven on the earth; they are placed on the earth during the time of today to testify about God's voice, the word of God, the Son of God, Who comes, Verginica. Here I come; here is how I come, but is there someone on the earth to understand My coming? I am the Word; I am He, Who is; I am He, Who comes. Amen.

– Oh, You are the One Who comes with the saints, Lord, with the tens of thousands of saints, as it is written into the Scriptures, Lord. I am Your trumpet and I am in Your coming; I am in You, Lord, and You announced Me to the multitudes that I am Your trumpet, but do the multitudes know to understand Your coming with the saints? It is written that he, who believes in You, will be alive even he dies. And You believed in me, Lord, and You came to life in me, and You had been speaking from within me for twenty five years on the earth, and You called a people to You, the people that Your Father gave it to You, to have it for Your coming in the word. And You became word from me, Lord, and the sons of the word testify about Your coming in the word. I was Your tabernacle among the people, the tabernacle of Your word, and if You took me into heaven, You also came back with Me to Your people, to my people, and You speak with it and command me to become word from You as well, so that the earth may know that You have me as Your trumpet, Lord; to know that in the time of my body the heaven joined to the new age, to the new age and the new earth that are, Lord. Your sons wait for Your promise, the new heaven and the new earth, the heaven and the earth of peace and righteousness, Your peace on the earth; Your peace, not the peace of the people.

I gather the chickens under my wings; I gather them under Your wing, to be protected by Your peace, as the people's peace it not peace. The people do not have You within their peace; the people are full of the spirit of wisdom on the earth; the people are full of spirits; they are not poor in their spirit for the kingdom of God to have room in them, so that You may have where to bow down Your head in the man's body, in the spirit and the soul of the man, Lord, and You are the One Who has been wondering away for seven thousand years. The people have their gods; they have their spirits; they have their own spirits, but I cleansed a people and I made him poor in the spirit, so that You may have room with Your kingdom in them, and to be, Lord, to be with the man on the earth, as it is not good for the man to be alone, alone without God, without God's word, as You have always been speaking with the man, always, with the man who has been hearing Your voice, Lord, and You have reached to me, to Your people, who is Your son, and You speak from above him, and he listens to You, Lord, and he does Your will, the will of Your word. I gather my chickens under the wings as a hen, good Lord; I teach them to eat from Your fist; I teach them to share You, Lord, so that the nations may have light on the earth, as You are light; light and word. Amen.

Sons from the garden, stay under the hen; be the hen with the golden chickens; be of gold; be golden vessels, useful to the Master; be trumpets from trumpets, as God, the Word, is being poured out, sons. The sower sows the word. Keep your little fists open to receive seed and to sow upon the earth, sons, sowers. Seed the word of God over Romania. Be awake, as the Lord is coming and is speaking in the garden for Romania. Take the Lord's book and stay with it open before Him as the Lord becomes word into His book; He becomes word in Romania, and you will go as peace messengers in the midst of the multitudes and will sow God and God's voice, and you also will seed the grace from above in the people.

You, Lord, have come with Your grace into the sons of the garden and made them sowers and gave them Your power, to tread on serpents and vipers, and that they may not be harmed. Oh, give Your grace to the people, Lord. Sow Yourself in the people with Your grace, as it is not good for the man to be alone, alone without God. It is not good for the Lord to be alone, alone without man. The people are idol worshippers, Lord. The people are idols for themselves, and they make a carved image for themselves and bow down to themselves, Lord. Give the people Your grace. Make the man again; make man out of man, Lord, as You came from heaven to be with the man, to be word, as all are made by the word, by You, Words of the Father. I pray to the Father in You, Lord, as he who worships the Son, worships the Father, for the Father is in His Son. Amen.

Oh, Father of the Son, receive me from Your Son, Father, as I pray for the man, Father, Who are in the Son. I pray from the son before You, as You are in the Son, and I am in the mystery of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and I testify about it on the earth, so that the man may know about the heaven of the saints of God, as the Son of the Father became flesh, and the Father is in His Son, and the saints of the heaven worship Him. Amen.

Sons from the garden, be in the Son of the Father, as Father is in His son, sons. Worship the Father in His Son, sons of the garden of the word. Amen, amen, amen.

The Lord is coming from heaven on the earth to be with the man, as it is not good for the man to be alone; it is good to be with the Lord. The Lord comes from heaven on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

Peace to you, sons anointed in the garden of My word! Peace to you, little garden of the word! Anointed sons, welcome My word, so that I may come and work fresh word upon the earth, word of new age, manna from heaven, honey and milk from heaven on earth, bread, sons, bread from heaven as food to the multitudes, which do no longer know what bread is. I have been pouring out the grace of My word over all Romania for seven years to start with it a new age on the earth, but God and Magog have been opposing Me.

I am Who I am; I am the One Who comes. I come with a new heaven and a new earth which are. I come with the peace and justice in the work of a new heaven and a new earth, for the men's peace is not peace. The people are full of the spirit of earthly wisdom; the people are full of spirits; they are not poor in their spirit so that the kingdom of heaven may have room in them, for behold, I, the Lord, have been wondering since seven thousand years and I have nowhere to bow down My head, but I have cleansed a people and make it poor in his spirit, to have room with My kingdom in him and to be with the heaven on earth, for it is no good for the man to be alone, alone without God, without the word of God. I have always spoken upon the man who heard My word from heaven and I have reached this day, and I have My people, who is My son, and I have been speaking above him, and he has listened to Me and done My will, the will of My word, and I have taught him to share Me, so that the nations from the earth may have light, for I am the word and the light. Amen. I have chosen golden vessels from the sons of the church that do not mess up with the worldly affairs, vessels for God's service, so that the Lord may enter the Jerusalem and to make Jerusalem from man, to make a church from man, a living sacrifice before God, a burning sacrifice, living, living burning in man.

The sower seeds the word. Sons from the garden keep your little fists open for Me to pour out and to seed over the earth, sons, sowers. Sow over Romania the word of God. Go as peace messengers into the midst of the multitudes and sow God among into the people. The people have their grace. Sow My grace in the people, so that they may understand the work of My word and that the people may eat bread from heaven, to eat My word so that I may be sown in the people with My grace, as it is not good for the man to be alone, alone without God. The people worship idols. The people are idols for themselves. The people make from themselves a carved image and worship themselves; they worship their own wills, their own conscience, as they do not love God with their mind and with their heart and with their virtue. Give them My grace to the people, sons, sowers. Give them My word, to make the man again, as I came to be with the man, to be word, as all are made by the word, by Me, the Word of the Father. I want to take the spirit of the world from the earth and to replace it with My Spirit; to put God's Spirit on the earth, as behold, the world does not know to love you, My messengers into the world. Oh, if you were from the world, the world would love you, as everyone loves what belongs to him, but I love you because you are Mine, for everyone loves what belongs to him, and you love Me, as I am your love. The time comes for the people with human and earthly wisdom to follow you seven times seven, and they will sell out their possessions to buy My name from you and to bear it, so that they may have a name, as it is written in the Scripture which says: «Fall on us mountains and hide us from the Lord's wrath!». But then you will not be able to witness that someone is Mine, but only the one that you will know that does My will into My name.

My people, why does the man do not believe this word? He does not believe because he is not good, and if he is not good, he hides under disbelief, for the man to clear oneself of his stature, as it is written: «The fool says into his heart; there is no God». It is not the good one who says so, but rather the fool speaks against God.

Oh, God calls you, man! Do you hear My voice? Your creator calls you, your Shepherd, your Teacher. Oh, you wonder away because you do not have any shepherd, but the word from heaven comes and speaks upon you, and the word becomes deed upon you, as that is why it speaks: to fulfill itself.

I have knocked at your gates, Romania. You are My country; you are My coming back from the Father to the people. Do you really know your mystery? Do you really believe what I say to you? Can I really find faith on My coming back to the people? I have called out at your gates, My country; I have cried over your rulers to make peace with Me, and they, hearing, did not hear Me, and seeing, they did not see Me that I came with a calling over them. I told them to take home the chrism of Romania and they did not do this, and I took them their service, and their share is with the unfaithful that, hearing Me did not hear Me; however, Romania will not be resurrected before Me without her chrism.

Romania, those who ruled over you are sorry; they are sorry because they did not fulfill My word to bring your chrism home and to put it on your head. They would have made a name for themselves before Me, if they had listened to Me, but the man is not good, and he says into his heart that there is no God. Romania, you are the fishing net thrown into the sea and in which all kinds of fish are caught, small and big, so that the good fish may be selected, and the bad one to be thrown into the sea; however, if you do not make peace with God, you will not please God. If you do not take My word on you as garment, as clothing with God to help the Lord over the nations, you will not be pleased before Me; on the contrary, I will reprimand you like a daughter to your resurrection in Me. Let the man make peace with God, as there will be left no lawlessness in you, and the holy laws of the Lord will no longer be crushed within you.

Oh, daughter Romania, do no longer trample under your feet the feasts of the heaven on the earth, as the saints are above you with God's heaven on the wings of the Holy Spirit, on the wind of Holy Spirit. Search into your laws from before the storm (Before the Second World War, and then of the instauration of the dictatorship of the communist red beast, r.n.), and come back with your face to the parents, so that your parents may also turn with their faces to you, as the prayers of My anointed sons, who I come to you with, will be fulfilled in front of My eyes. My word will be fulfilled as the preached word has power in it. First, it is the word, and then its face comes, as this is how it has been worked through the word.

I have preached the word upon the shepherds of your church, Romania, and hearing, they did not hear Me and did not believe Me, and if they do not repent of their wicked deeds without God, their service will be taken away and they will be with the unbelievers. The shepherds of the church extol those that know to speak beautifully in the way of the man, those that know to sing beautifully; they praise those that are skilful in their science, with their gifts, but do not praise those who know to live beautifully, beautifully in Christ. Christ is lived by My people, and I made him light on the earth; I put him in the candlestick and I give light with him before the people, as I am spirit and truth; God is body and word.

Let the man make peace with God and let him be the Lord's church! The man seeks the church, but this is written for you, people, who seek: «The kingdom of God is in you». You will not find a church nowhere but in you if you build it in you. The church is nothing else but the Christian's body, the clean body in which the Lord comes in a clean way. If the Christian does not come clean to the wall church in order to take the Lord as a body and word; that of walls is not a church.

Oh, people, you build churches of walls in vain if the Christians do not come in with their clean bodies and hearts. Let the man make peace with God! Let the man kneel down and make a real cross upon his body, utter a prayer of repentance, cleanse himself by remorse, put upon him the promise of the resurrection from the dead, and let him take God in him only this way, for reconciliation to God, to the everlasting unity with God. Let the man forgive one another, for many things which are forgiven on earth shall be forgiven by God. Let Christ be lived by man and the man live in Christ, for the wisdom from heaven is one, and this is: «Let the man deny himself, take up his cross and follow Me» on the earth and in heaven, through the world and in the church. Amen.

But you, Romania, are a country without shepherd, and I came to shepherd you. I am the Word of God. I call out the shepherds who stay over you, to call them into account of your life, of your blood, of your church, as having you do not have; you do not have shepherds. Your shepherds live lawlessness before Me and before you, and you do not have, you do not have shepherds to bind your wound and Mine. They graze themselves not you, My love. Oh, My day will come as in the time of Noah, and I will find you drinking and eating and going to weddings and you will be taken by surprise if you do not want to hear the voice of My word as in the time of Noah. Noah saw his salvation but the world did not see Noah's salvation. Noah saw the Lord on His coming, but the world did not see God, and rather it saw the day of disbelief coming on them. The man who saves his life will see the One Who is and Who comes. The man who does not save his live will not see God on His coming, for I will come as in the time of Noah, and I want to have you at the wedding, as I took My bride out of you, and I call you to the wedding. Come to the wedding, country of My wedding! Change your garment and take on a wedding garment; take on you a garment of pure linen and let your priests shepherd you to the light.

Oh, your priests deceive both you and Me, and the Lord's altars became heavy because of their transgressions. Let them wake up with repentance and cleanse themselves of their iniquities; let them give up drunkenness and tobacco and let them bring before Me holy chrism and incense, as the church is the house of prayer, and not a house of robbers. The church is the house of God, the house of God's sons, but will the Lord find a church of His at His coming? Behold, I come and call out only the scattered sheep. Let the scattered sheep hear Me and let them gather together at the voice of the Good Shepherd, as the Lord comes from heaven on earth to be with the man, as it is not good for the man to be alone, but rather it is good for him to be with the Lord. It is good for the man to be with God; it is not good for the man to be alone, alone without man. Let the man make peace with God! Amen.

I have been pouring out My grace for seven years, Romania, to begin a new age with you on the earth, but God and Magog have stood against Me in you. Let no enemy be hostile to you and Me. Let My peace be with you, for the peace of the people is not peace. The men are full of spirits; they are not poor in their spirit so that the kingdom of heaven may find room in them, for behold, I wonder and have no room in man and I have no church where to bow down my head and find My day of rest. Oh, daughter of Romania, come so that I may woo you to be a resting day, as My people chosen from you is for Me, a resting day and a bride for My coming, for I am the word, and all are done by word again; and there will be a new heaven and a new earth from you, Romania, for this is how I am well pleased, and the Father is well pleased with Me. Amen.

I am the good Shepherd Who is laying His life for His sheep, Who gives His body as food for His sheep, for this is what My life given to the sheep means, so that My sheep may have life and have it abundantly, but you should learn to be a church; you, man, should learn what Jesus Christ's church means; you should learn from Me, for I am the body and word in the church, the spirit and truth, as it is written in the Scriptures.

I became flesh in the Virgin two thousand years ago and I have dwelt among the people as a body that came through the Virgin, and now, after two thousand years, My Father made Me the word in you, daughter of Romania. Do you hear the Word? I am the Son of My Father, the One Who is. I am the One Who is, as My Father is. Come to be, daughter of Romania, for the one who is, is in Me, and the one who is, is no otherwise. Come to be in Me; come to make you a body into My holy body, for I am the body and word in the church; I am the church of My Father, for My Father is in Me. Come to be My church, for I am in you and I speak from your midst upon you. The Lord is coming from heaven to you to be with you, for it is not good to be alone, My love, alone without the Lord. Receive Me, for the one who does not believe in Me and in My coming, that one has part with the unbelievers.

Come daughter Romania, at the feast of the heaven on the earth, as I have been spreading the table in you for forty years, and you have been hiding so that you may not know. Oh, do no longer hide under your guilt, but rather give it away from you by being sorry and make peace with the Father, with the Son and with the Holy Spirit, because you are My daughter, and you have in your root a foundation of waivodes and you are noble. Be a church to Me and sing before Me a song of memorial of your waivodes, who cry for you before Me. You are anointed with chrism, daughter Romania. Where is your chrism from Me on your head? Where is your anointed, daughter, Romania? (The King Michael, r.n.). I have called him and his far, as you are far from him. I have called you from near so that you may hear Me and to pray so that I may lift up your curse from your land and to replace it with a peace covenant with Me, for the people's peace is not peace. My peace is peace, daughter Romania, and I chose you to be a garden of My coming back, to be My glory seen before the nations on the earth. Do you hear My voice? Do you hear My word? I am the Word of God. I come from heaven on the earth to be with you, to sow Myself in you with the word of life, as I have come so that you may have life and to have it abundantly. I have a field with a treasure in it. This is My news upon you. Stay before Me as a field to be sown, as you are you as Mine. Let your watchmen hear, and let your gates be lifted up so that I may enter them to you! Let your gates be renewed and strengthened before Me! Amen.

Oh, people from the gates of Romania, (The rulers of Romania, r.n.), let yourself be woken up at My voice and wake up Romania, as she is My glory for My coming, and all the girls and all the sons of the people will greatly love her. Lift up you, gates of Romania, so that the word of God may come in, as the Lord comes from heaven on the earth!

I am the way, the truth and the life. I am your peace and your life, daughter Romania. Let him, who has ears to hear, hear the word of God, which comes from heaven and is heard on the earth to your blessing, daughter Romania! Amen, amen, amen.
