

The Word of God at The Word of God at the feast of the holy prophet Ezekiel

I am coming again to you, sons from the garden, to speak to you and to teach you what is clean, for Elijah, My prophet, is praying to Me to touch the iniquity on the earth, the lawlessness from the churches in the world, as it is because of these iniquities that God's wrath is coming upon the sons of disobedience. I am coming again to you, and I am coming in a hurry and I am speaking again. Lift up your hands and prayers for the extirpation of the unbelief from the people of the church, for behold, whenever these get up to strike into My word, as they have been doing in all the ages, they bring about My wrath upon the earth. Oh, and I am compassionate to the poor people, to the people deprived of My knowledge, for there is no one to teach them the way of My light, and they are struck by My wrath because of the unbelief of the people of the church. I have been protecting again and again this little village, in which I have been coming down to turn Romania into a country of My wedding, and to make it into a mountain of My blessings, in order to work out My salvation with it over the nations of the earth. I have been working again and again to protect the cities around this little village, the little village of My word. I have been working again and again with My mercy up to the borders of the cities, which belong to the city of Târgoviște, for I have mercy to the ends of this city because of the gift that it has in this little village of My word. Oh, I have been struggling again and again to have mercy of My Romanian country, of the country of My word, but the people of the church are full of trespasses and stand like that before Me for Romania, and if they stand like that, they do bring about My wrath upon the people. I have been protecting Romania in all its time, even it has also been going wrong before Me, but I have had here and there, and from time to time I have had someone who was pleased to Me, and I have turned him into a heavenly word and into salvation by repentance.

I am coming to you in a hurry. Lift up your hands and ask from Me in a spirit of repentance for all those that do not love repentance; ask to gather the clouds back into their place and to let the clean sky come out and to stop the measureless amount of rains, for I take pity on the poor ones, on the wretched and needy ones, and I have mercy on seeing them without food; I have mercy for the time presses on heavily, and bad people grow and those that are small and good, poor and faithful, stay under the wickedness of the time and of the people of the time, who build their own kingdom in time.

Oh, Elijah, My prophet is praying for Me to touch the spirit of unbelief in the church. The people of the church want to strike you, little garden of My word, full of salvation, peace, love and holiness. They want to get up to fight against Me, the One Who become Holy Spirit and word over My little garden in Romania. I have chosen in Romania the little patch of land, which came out of the water first, then when I made the heaven and the earth, and I called this little patch the little garden of My word, My mystery, which came out in the beginning from water, the first little patch of dry land, the cape of the earth, the stone from the top, and when I built the man of the dust, this was the place where I took the dust from. I am speaking of this mystery clearly so that the people of the earth may hear Me and know from Me, who they started to make war with.

Oh, people of the church, oh, bishops who strain out a gnat and swallow a camel! Oh, My servants, who punish the sins of the people, but under no circumstances do you refrain from iniquity, from debauchery and from drunkenness and blasphemy against the prophets of the Holy Spirit, of whom you speak that they have a demon and not God! Oh, I am coming and asking you, and you should answer Me. What evil does the little garden of My word do to you? I am the One Who flow as a word over this little patch of little garden with small sons in it, not as great as you are, for they do not want and do not receive glory from people, but rather they flee from empty glory, the same as I and My apostles and My true saints did. I founded this little garden in Romania, as a blessing over it and for it. Why are you afraid of My plans and of their making? Is it really not better and holier for Me to work in order that My salvation, peace and light to come on the earth? Would it be really better for you to work? Behold, you work out unbelief and you put it on the people, and because of you and of your iniquities that you do in the church, My wrath is coming over to your sons and the sons that are faithful to Me, suffer as well; however, I am the protector of those who are clean and faithful within their spirit and life.

You say that you do not believe that I am the word sent to you and over the earth. But what does it prevent you from putting Me to test? You say that it takes much time for My word and for the salvation, which is coming from it, to come true. But those of today, which I become word upon, do not need salvation by this saving word? Who taught you that the time is needed to pass over My word? Oh, I am always today, and the Scripture says this: «Today, those that hear My word do not harden your hearts on its hearing». My word gains its own truth from the Scriptures, but why are you not alive? And why are you not faithful like those of old who received the Holy Spirit and did not drive Him away through unbelief? Do you really want to bring about My wrath over the country of the election from these days? Oh, I will not let you prevail by your unbelief over the course of the river of My word, which is coming this time from near My Father on the earth, as it is written into the Scriptures.

Oh, do no longer condemn; do no longer dishonor and do no longer humiliate the bishop whom I anointed over My wedding country. His love for you will condemn you. His goodness and his obedience to you will urge you to repentance; He urges you to listen to Me as he also listens to you, for the smallest is the greatest among you. He has not done any evil. He has fulfilled My word, for My word carries power in it to be accomplished. I put the spirit of wisdom, of faith and of the fulfillment of the Scriptures on My bishop. I look at you and see how you humiliate him, how you laugh at him, how you threaten him, how you blame him, and he suffers from you for My name. Oh, if he was among you with his mercy on you and with his warm prayer, which inclines Me to have mercy on you, what would you do in this time, when everything that you have is to be uncovered, for your works made in the darkness are ugly? He is My blessing among you, but behold, you are unfaithful, and the holy fathers look at you and see how you violate their teachings, asking others to fulfill them. You should fulfill them first, but you have no love for Me.

Oh, bishop of Târgoviște, you work with hidden plans against the little garden of My word, for you have no love of God. You try to humiliate the bishop that I anointed in front of the Romanian people, but he is clean and he has done nothing wrong against you. You were not over the churches of Târgoviște at that time. He has done nothing wrong interfering with you. I sent him to the greatest one over the church and he told him My plan and he let him about My word, which required the raising of this stone, and the greatest one did not tell him not to raise it, but he rather told him to take care of what he was doing, and did, and he made the thing that I commanded him to do carefully. But when you came over this city and found this little stone keeping watch with a spirit of salvation over your city, you got up with wickedness, with unbelief and trickery, and condemned My faithful bishop, and since then you have brought only trouble in church, because you do not love the church. You love yourself and you do not shepherd the sons of the church, but rather you urge them to do the works of lawlessness that you also do.

Oh, you bishop of Târgoviște, how much trouble, how much division you have worked in the church of Romania! How good it would have been for you and for Romania and its church in it if you had used the spirit of understanding and love to the mystery of My word and of the church that I build through My bishop, anointed by Me! And why is he anointed by Me? Behold,

I tell you a great mystery, and let the mystery be known in the church: I have declared a word and I sent it by the sons of My word to the greatest one in the church, (To Patriarch Teoctist, r.n.) and this is what I told him: „Take heed, you ruler of the church! Get up and call a council, and then anoint with the oil of holiness the anointed one from Me, for this is from Me and not from you, and I will make a living covenant with him for the church, and I will make Romania into a New Jerusalem and into My glory over the nations”. This is what I told to the greatest one, and he listened to Me and anointed the My anointed one and he fulfilled My word. Whether he wanted or not, whether he believed it or not, he anointed the one from Me, so that I might set a clean and holy stone through him, a spotless church, without any wrinkle, a heavenly church on the earth; heavenly and not earthly. I told to My bishop that I will raise him over the church, and I told him many years ago by My word, and he was saying to Me: „Lord, I am afraid. I cannot. I like the monastery and peace and I like a humble life”. But I have had him in My plan for a holy and clean church and I took him out of the monastery to pass through all the levels to the archiepiscopacy in order to work with him for Romania, as Romania is the country of brightness, which is declared by the Scriptures.

Oh, bishop of Târgoviște, put the sword back in its sheath, for My sword is a double-edged sword, and it is My word! Amen. You are unfaithful and you do not love Me; you do not do My will and you do not love the holy life, and My church needs holiness. Behold, you bring My wrath upon your sons, on the sons of your church, for the sons of My church are those who do My will in their spirit and body. You get up and push My bishop to curse My little garden, but I said to the sons of the garden: bless those who curse you and do well to those who hate you, for I am with you. The sons of My little garden do nothing wrong to you; they neither go wrong in the spirit and nor in the teaching of the church or towards the saints. You are those who go wrong against My commandments, and I gave you this stone of holy altar as a gift, to be salvation for you, for it is written: «If there are in a city ten or five people who do My will, I will save the entire city from sword».

Oh, bishops, do no longer hate the place of the little garden of My word. Work with the spirit of My peace. Do no longer work with wickedness. Do no longer condemn anyone without judging his cause first, for the Scripture does not allow you to judge without investigation. Work out a spirit of repentance towards Me, and I will heal you of unbelief. Work out with love, for everything will be proven out through My light. Work out My will in the churches, for otherwise you bring My wrath over your sons. It is written about the hypocrites: «Woe to you, for it is because of you that God's wrath comes over the sons of disobedience». Behold, the prophet Elijah is crying out to Me to deal with your works, and his prayer is bringing forth fruit. The earth has been filled with waters and they flow over their riverbeds and produce pain on people, and people are wretched. Why should My country suffer? Why shall it not have My blessing over it by the works of your faith?

Behold, you have decided to come with threatening over the garden of My word, and I got angry with all the cities of Târgoviște and the people suffer, for the upper waters damage their fruits, and My voice speaks by My signs. Do no longer bring My wrath through your unbelief. Let My peace be over you and among you. Let My blessing come over Romania. I have sent the sons of My word to undo the binding knot over the cities of Târgoviște, for the former lawlessness brought about My wrath and put a bond over the city. Let the blessing bring forth fruit. Do no longer stir up wrath. Give a river to love for the law does not stand against love; it does not stand against it, but it rather falls through love, for I am the heavenly love among the sons of love.

Behold, I still tell you: you bring about contempt on you from all those who see that you fight against My little garden from Romania and against its sons. It is a hope and a spirit of hope and of holy peace over Romania. Romania is infested with foreign brotherhoods, with beliefs foreign to the spirit of Orthodoxy, and I want to clean it of foreign spirits to the Orthodoxy, for you cannot clean it. Romania is My Orthodoxy and this is how it was born and this is how it was baptized. Be true Orthodox, for I have been speaking so many times on you by My word of today! I have declared a word on you, and I have spoken it in a hurry, for you get ready to work out wickedness over My little garden. Turn away from your wicked deeds, and I will heal you of disobedience and disbelief. Amen, amen, amen.

And you, My people, and you, little garden of sons of My people, bless those who curse you and do good to those who hate you, for I am with you and I am with My peace over you. Amen. I have come with the spirit of righteousness, and I have revealed the lawlessness, which tries to come over you, My little garden, for I am the One Who, protects you. Amen, amen, amen.

21-07/03-08-1997