

The Word of God at The feast of the Ascension of the Holy Cross

Peace to you, little garden of My word! Peace to you, sons anointed in the garden, as your faith in My word is My path from heaven to earth. Amen. Peace to you, as by your faith I will fulfill all My words, as it is written into the prophecy of Isaiah: «For as the rain comes down and the snow from the sky, and does not return there, but waters the earth, and makes it bring forth and bud, and gives seed to the sower and bread to the eater; so shall My word be that goes forth out of My mouth; it shall no return to Me void, but it shall do My will and it shall accomplish its work». Amen.

Be full of zeal for My word, sons, and give this bread to the hungry and feed the poor, and your light will arise into the darkness, and your gloom will be like broad daylight, for I will guide and feed your souls and I will give strength to your bones, and you will be like a watered garden and like a spring of living water, which never runs dry, and you will lift Me up on the ancestral stone, and I will call you renovators of roads, as it is written into the prophets. Amen.

My word to you is the river of life, which flows from God's throne and from the Lamb's of God. My word is faithful and true. Amen, amen, amen. My word is the water of life, which waters the places without water, without living water, and the lack of water scorches the people, and I come to bring the commandments of the eternal life over the earth and to give the people and to teach them to drink with faith of My living water and to eat with love and hunger of My heavenly bread. My word rises on the earth and speaks on the heights and declares to the roofs to bow down, so that My holy word may rise above them, and that the roofs and heights may be sanctified and to stay bowed at My holy word. Amen, amen, amen.

My word goes to those who stay over My wedding country and I come to announce them that Romania is the country of the heavenly brightness because of My word, which is the river and water of life, and I come to let them know that I established My throne in Romania, and out of My throne flows the water of life; My word flows like the rain and snow in the sky, which waters the earth and makes it bring forth and bud and to give seed to the sower and bread as food, and it does not return to Me without yielding fruit. It does My will and it accomplishes its work. Amen.

Peace to you, to those on the seats of Romania! I am the One Who spoke out of the burning bush on the top of the Mount Sinai, to teach Israel the path to life. I am Who I am. Open so that I may come in! Amen, amen, amen.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, may My Romanian country be blessed, My new chosen people, and may you be blessed, those in the gates of Romania, who believes in Me, the One, Who becomes word over the earth. I am the Lamb of the heavenly Father, and I gave Myself as food to those that are faithful to Me. I am the One Who was resurrected two thousand years ago and I come forever living and I walk on the earth to draw all the people to the Father and to prepare My path through the word, so that I may come the second time with the kingdom of heavens, which has no end, as it is written into the Scriptures. I come with peace and love for all who are faithful, as those who are faithful to Me are blessed. I am. Be faithful. Make the love and the peace of your hearts ready to come in you, Romanian sons, who stand watch over My country of wedding, in which I set My wedding table, the table of My word, as I have a bride people in your country, Romanian sons, who watch over the country of the Lord's election. Be with a heavenly heart and ask Me why I chose the most enslaved one, the most humble one. Oh, My people, Israel became haughty even since I chose him to be My people, and I made him great among the nations. The more I loved and taught him, the more conceited and far away from Me he became, joining to a foreign body, to idols and lawlessness, and becoming conceited over Me, and I made him raise his hand against Me to forsake Me and I to forsake him. Israel stumbled, and because of the multiplying of his iniquity, his love grew cold, and only a small remnant of it endured with Me, and it was fulfilled with Jerusalem the Scripture which says that the abomination of desolation will come upon it, and those from Judea fled to the mountains and they fled without their clothes, according to what was written: «Let him who is in the housetop not go down to take out his things that are in his house, and let him who is in the field not return back to get his clothes», and I burnt Jerusalem, for the rulers of Jerusalem of that time sold Me on money, the One Who was the gift of My Father for the people, and the damnation of the money fell on Israel. I said that the Gospel of My kingdom, which was put aside by Israel, will be preached all over the world as a testimony to all the nations, and Israel will come to an end, and the nations will be blessed by faith, and I will choose the New Jerusalem out of the gentiles, and I will come with the kingdom of heavens on the earth and I will redeem the man from death and I will give him everlasting life as I promised by the Scriptures to those that are faithful.

Oh, Romanian sons, I did not find a more pleasant people among the nations of the earth than the Romanian people, as My Father gave Me great love for this earth chosen by Him from the beginning. Its Mystery is eternal and this land lies before My Father, for it was the first piece of dry land, which came out of the water when the heaven and the earth were created at My word; it was the first inch of dry land, which came out of the waters of the flood after the flood was gone; and it will be the land of salvation, as it is My Father's mystery, and My Father calls it a supper of the word, and all will be made by the word again and will be new. Amen.

Oh, Romanian sons, who watch over Romania, your country has always been under cross, but it has endured to the end and it has not raised its staff against any nation on the earth. It has not oppressed anyone, and it has not taken anything from anyone. On the contrary, it gave from its body submitting as I did, and My Father loved it with a limitless love and He waited for the time of its glory among the nations. My word in it is its glory, and it will become action and body of glory, as I will be always word in it, and the throne of My word will shine out of its midst, and out of My throne will flow the river and the water of life over the earth and it will water the whole earth, as out of Eden a river went out, which watered the Paradise, and from there it was parted into four heads over the earth. It is written: «He who endures to the end will be saved», and My Father has Romania as the country of patience and forgiveness, and it is written about it in the Scripture of the prophet Daniel, and it is called the country of brightness and victory, the country of the Lord. Amen.

Get ready with the love and peace of your hearts so that I may enter you with My kingdom, you Romanian sons who keep vigil for Me upon Romania. I am lowering down the gift of the holy faith. Amen. My word is rising on earth and is speaking on the high places telling the roofs and peaks to bow down and to let My holy word rise above them so that they may have eternal life. I am coming soon, but My house of guests does not want Me to come any more. The Church from Romania needed to be the house to receive in it My word.

Oh, you Romanian sons who watch for Me over My wedding country! Call at the gates of My house of guests, for the enemy came into My house and took My little house and My little coat getting Me out of the vineyard as he did two thousand years ago. I want to bring salvation to the human people, but the antichrist stands against Me, Romanian sons. The antichrist has entered My house and is reigning into My name; for the Father has sent Me but I am not welcomed into My house. My word calls out at the gates of My Father and no one wants to open for Me so that I may come in and bring the words and the water of life and the food of My word for those who are thirsty and hungry of life. I am the One Who spoke in the bush on the Mount of Sinai. I am the One Who speak to the Romanian people from the middle of the little garden of My word from Romania. Lift up the glory of My word and lift it up to the life of the people, for I come to save the human people and I have to fulfill the Scripture of a new heaven and a new earth, and of the kingdom on earth. Amen, amen I say to you: I am coming soon, and I will show Myself above Romania and I will make it into a New Jerusalem, My holy country from the end, and I will shed a great light from it over all the nations of the earth. But the servants of the church from Romania are cold and do not want My coming, and they do not want peace and holiness from heaven upon them and they do not believe in Me. It is written in My Scriptures: «If someone wants to believe he will understand My word and My will and My salvation».

Oh, Romanian sons, I have compassion on the Romanian people, for I love it with a love without limits. My sheep do no longer have shepherds, as their shepherds graze themselves and do not take care of My sheep, and they oppress them and scatter them and inflict many wounds on them, as they do not fulfill My Scripture, which says: «Freely you received, so freely give». The shepherds of the church cannot give anything freely, for they did not received freely, as everything they have they took on money, and they got used to the money, and they sell Me on money, and My sheep are oppressed and trampled under feet by all passers-by. The shepherds of the church took the key of knowledge and neither do they want to be with Me, and nor do My sheep know My knowledge. Help those who are oppressed by unbelief and ignorance, as My word comes to you to ask for a dwelling in you, and be faithful and open to the Lord. I am. Be faithful. I have spread the manger of My word in Romania for more than forty years and I work by the word to fulfill its glory with Me and to prepare My second coming and to come with those that are eternal and to give redemption to the human kind and to work from Romania over the nations, with the light of My word. I am. Be faithful. My word is the river of life, which flows from My throne, but those that are not faithful in the church from Romania strike into the city of My word. Open the books of your time and look in them for the iniquities of the people of the church, who oppressed My Romanian flock and those who love Me in Romania. I had power from heaven come down on you and I supported you to watch over Romania, but take care of My country, because it is still oppressed by the people of the church, who stand against justice, holiness and truth. The people of the church clothe themselves too much with their empty glory; too much do they defile My holy places. Too many people of lawlessness hid under the church cloak and deceive My chosen people. Work with My heavenly wisdom and bring to repentance all the sons of this nation, who hid themselves under My cloak and oppressed many of my righteous people. Receive light from the light and bring the darkness into light, as the man has been falling for seven thousand years by hiding. I want to give freely to those who want to have My gifts, and I want My gifts to be given freely. He, who wants to come after Me, let him deny himself and take his cross following Me and not deceiving Me saying that he comes and he does not come. And if he does not come, let him not tell that he is with Me, and let him not lead My flock astray.

Oh, Romanian sons, I long for the salvation of the human kind, but I do no longer have in My church people clean in their hearts to work with them salvation over the people. Get up, you who watch over the country of My choice, as I became word upon you, and I will ask from you the fruit of My word, as I want to protect your country and to put the Spirit of Truth in it. Amen. I am true in this word, and I give you the gift of the holy faith. Receive from My gifts and be alive and work like Me and not like the man, and protect Romania and keep it for Me and for you, and watch with holiness over it. Receive Holy Spirit, as the gifts of the Holy Spirit will come down on all Romania's sons, but let them be sons. Amen. Love My ways and My truth and My life in you, as I am the protector of those who walk on the paths of justice. Justice lifts a people up, while sin is the shame of the peoples. I want to make a land of justice out of the Romanian land. I am He, Who spoke this. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, Romanian sons, who watch over Romania, your country was always under its cross, but I, the Lord will lift up its cross and I will make a heavenly sign over the people of Romania, for it is My Jerusalem, newly chosen, and I will also urge Israel to repentance, which did not receive Me and forsook Me, and it will be My people again, as I have My signs over it, and I have its signs over Me.

Peace to you, Romanian sons, who stand watch over Romania! Receive My peace. He, who can believe, will know that I am this word, the Lord, Who comes on the clouds, as it is written: «I will come soon», and the Spirit and My bride say: «Come, Lord!».

I am the One Who was crucified by My servants. Those of that time crucified My body, and those of nowadays crucify My word, which I come on the clouds with, to prepare the day of My glory and of those that are faithful and wait for Me to come. I am the God Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, as Father is in Me with His Holy Spirit, and I stay on the clouds of My glory over Romania. Oh, My loved country, My love, I want to make you My heavenly church on the earth, and My servants in you to be holy in their mind, heart, body and faith. I always come as word over you, My love, as My Father sent Me to you to be with you and to protect you and to make you known to the nations of the earth that you are Mine.

Amen, amen, I say to you, watchful sons over Romania: work and fulfill My plans over you and over your country. Receive into your midst the one, who has anointment over Romania, (King Michael, r.n.), and give him peace among you and take care of his life with Me, and you will be blessed. Work out peace between Me and you, and fulfill My heavenly plans over Romania. I come soon, soon. Be faithful like Abraham and keep My blessing over you. Receive from the river of life, as the throne of My word is with you. Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! Receive the gift of the holy faith! Receive the Holy Spirit and work with the Lord to the building of the kingdom of heavens on the Romanian land, which will share the richness of My kingdom to all the peoples, which will come to receive from My glory with you.

Peace to you, Romania! Peace to you, My country! I give you My peace. Amen, amen, amen.
