

The Word of God at The feast of the Lord's Resurrection

The Lord is coming down into His garden. Amen. The Lord is coming down with a feast of new Passover and of new resurrection. Amen.

Sons of the garden, come to meet Me, as I came down to you in the garden to become a word of feasting of My resurrection from among the dead. I am the One Who rose from the dead two thousand years ago, after the priests and the bishops of the temple in Jerusalem got together with Herod and Pilate and killed Me before My passion. I come from heaven to you into the garden and I announce Myself welcoming you with the greeting of My resurrection: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Amen, amen, amen.

You need much food, sons, for you need to share the bread from heaven to the multitudes, My word by which many a soul, that take Me as word from you, are given birth and grow and live, for I come down to you, and you break Me and feed many souls. It is no greater gift among the gifts like the gift of those who have and give My word as food. The word from you comes out of My mouth, as I come down above you and I stand in the clouds of cherubim and seraphim speaking over to you and springing Myself up as word, and then I help you to make a course for My word upon the earth. And behold, this is how the Lord comes, and the people do not know what My coming down is, in order to value it and to rejoice over the coming of My word, which comes with Me from the Father to prepare My great day with it, the feast of the day of the Lord's glory, because of which the heaven and the earth of now will pass away, so that the new heaven and the new earth may remain, and also My righteousness on them and its sons. Amen.

Peace to you, to those who eat of My Body in holiness, for you came out from the service of My resurrection, and stay now under the food of My word and eat and grow and become wise from My word.

Oh, where else on the earth is the Lord as he is with you? Sons, sons, always take care of Me, to have broadness with you, as all the doors on the earth became too narrowed for Me, and I do no longer have room through them with My greatness. There is everywhere only earthly and human greatness and fleshly and worldly greatness. I have nowhere room the way I am. My door is narrowed to the world, for the world enjoys it party, but not Mine. I look into the churches and I get full of grief. I am mentioned and sung everywhere by mouths, but the hearts of those who gather together do not have love for heaven and for those that are eternal. The priests fight for money, which they sell Me on. The people are overcrowded to take from Passover, and they do not know what they do, poor of them, for they do not grow in those that are holy, if they take from those that are holy. They reap only mourning from everywhere My name is mentioned through the mouth of the servants of the church, who read Me in books and that is all. The day of My resurrection is not welcomed and lived with holiness and love of God. The churches get full of immoral people and sick in their soul and not healed, and then they go to their own business and enjoy their own party on the day of My resurrection. It hurts Me and it hurts Me again the mourning which is brought together upon Me, for My name is mentioned in the churches of the world; it is defiled and not honored and My feasts became a worldly joy for the people, and not a heavenly joy.

It hurts Me, sons. What does the man do when something hurts him? He goes to look for salvation. I will do the same. I will seek to heal Myself of pain crushing the hypocrisy on the earth, as the people's hypocrisy and especially that of the servants of the church, who serve Me, as they say; the hypocrisy is the most outrageous sin that the people fall into their sins through. It is only hypocrisy on the earth and chasing after the wind. It is nothing truer on the earth than My people.

Oh, sons of the little garden of My word, and you, sons of My people, seek day and night to be My true sons, for there is not any kind truth on the earth. The truth is the godly man who fulfills God's plan between the earth and the heaven. In the time of My passions, Herod asked Me about the truth. Oh, how could he understand the mystery of the truth? The kings of the earth do not know, and the rulers of the people do not know how to understand those about the truth as long as they are looking for their own business and for the business of the people, and not for those of the Lord. But you, children of My new people, keep yourself as truth on the earth and fulfill the Scriptures of My second coming from near My Father, as the few ones in the time of My body fulfilled the Scriptures of My coming as Man among the people through the Virgin, to save those that are faithful who were waiting for the Lord, the One promised by the prophets.

And now, little children of My garden, go with My heavenly blessing and eat the food for the body, and we will be with a service for the feast of today, and then, we will sit again and will eat again My word, the eternal feast of My word which is with you. May the food for your body be blessed! And may it be greeted with the greeting for Me: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! And then may the resurrection service be blessed, the remembrance of My risen appearance after the resurrection! And blessed it is the spring of My word, which flows from heaven over to you as food of power and My comforting with you and yours with Me. Amen, amen, amen.

And behold, I am over you with a rain of word, for it is a feast of resurrection, and My word has power of resurrection of the soul; it has power of My resurrection in the man. Amen. I give you word abundantly and not grudgingly, for you need abundant food, to share it in abundance. I give you power to multiply for all those on the earth, to announce My coming with resurrection from the dead to all the margins, who are dead in their bodies and those that are dead in their spirit. I give you word in abundance, for you are sharers; you are the rich people of the heaven, and I put you to share My kingdom to those who do not have it. My kingdom is the truth that the world does not love, as it did not love it either when I came from heaven on the earth, and I became Man from God; I became the Son of Man and I became God without visible glory, as I humbled Myself for the man so that I may die for the man, and then to rise in glory, and so that I may speak to the man the truth for which I became Man among the people. Oh, what could I have told Herod and Pilate then, what the truth was, when they knew that I was only the son of the carpenter, Joseph, and that is all? When they knew that the truth was their worldly life, what else should I have told them about truth?

Oh, Jerusalem of My coming, I am coming to you as the Truth, for My word is My Truth, but the people from the earth, like Herod and Pilate, are taught by those that are human and earthly. Oh, Jerusalem, do not sleep, My people. Watch out in a heavenly way on earth, for the people of this age have taken hold of the truth of My coming on the clouds, as they found it written in the Scriptures, and they will seek to fancy about Christ's coming. But let you not sleep; watch out and remember what I said about My coming, for I will not come for those who love lawlessness rather I will come for those that are holy and faithful on earth. I will not come for those who have not got the Holy Spirit, for the Holy Spirit is from heaven, not from earth. The people on earth want to go beyond God, they say this, but you watch out as these days are very dark. There are only Antichrists in the churches who say to themselves that they are the host of My servants, but they feed on the man's science things and do no longer believe the truth from the Scriptures about the creation of the heavens and the earth and of all that are seen and unseen. The servants of the church have fallen asleep for a long time towards Me and have listened to people, for the lying people from under heaven have discovered the truth and brought to light their lying as truth and people have taken from people and not from God anymore, and this way the darkness has come over all the earth as it was prophesied in the Scriptures for the last days. But I have taught the sons of the church and told them to believe in God, for the people would work out the lying and they would have an angel come down from heaven to give them other teaching, but that one would not be an angel rather it would be a lie made by people. Watch out Jerusalem, and be careful with those from Me over you, for I will not come for those who love the sin rather I will come for those who love Me. Amen.

Oh, My people, I make a stronghold of My word around you, so that you may not falter when the people work out the Christ's coming from a lie, for they will work with a lie. However truthful the lie would seem to the lying man, you watch out with Me, holy Jerusalem, for I said: «There will rise false Christs and will give great signs and miracles to deceive even My elected», but the fall of My sons on the earth will not be possible to happen for behold, I am among you and you are My sons and I keep close to you, as a shepherd among the sheep, and you will not fall under the delusion of the lying ones who will think of Me out of the work of their lie. My coming will not be sensed by the lying ones but you will feel it and will stand to welcome Me as the Holy Spirit will tell you from the Father not from an angel.

He who is coming ahead of Me is a thief and a robber to rip off My sheep, not his sheep, but I will make My heavenly sign, for after the pressure of those days of the lying about Christ's coming, the sun will be turned into darkness and the moon will not give its light anymore, and the stars will fall down from heaven and the powers of strength will be shaken out and then the sign of the Son of man Will be seen on heaven. Then the people on earth, who allowed themselves to be deceived, will beat their chest as they will see Christ coming as the Son of man on the clouds of heaven with much power and glory. Amen. I descend the same as I ascended, and not otherwise, but I will be with much power and glory in My next coming, for the first time I came and let Myself into the hands of the unfaithful as a helpless man so that the men may be judged by their deed and to humble themselves as God did, the One Who came to humble Himself for the salvation of the faithful.

Oh, you who sing the song of My resurrection, why do you not look into the Scriptures to see what I told the faithful man to do? So that you may see what I said about the heaven and the earth, about My second coming on earth and about the payment that I will give each one according to one's own deed? Why do you not live the truth for which many saints died in their bodies so that they may not lose My life from them? Why do you not believe in the Scriptures? You should have been on the side of the Lord of heavens, but you fall from heaven as the leaves fall from the tree, upon which all passers-by tread. Your woe is prepared by you, for you sit in the name of the truth over the multitudes. You do not sit as the lying man sits, for the lying man has wrapped into My coat so that your fruit of unbelief and of your hypocrisy may not be seen. Wake up! Amen. And if you do not wake up your sleep will work out and bring My wrath upon all unbelievers, and I will ask their life from your hand, as you had the Lord as the truth but covered him, and the lie took a body upon the earth and you prepared the Lord's massacre instead of preparing the Lord's supper with a heavenly and eternal Passover upon the earth. You have come to serve reluctantly, for money, in order to blot you out from My book, but I will fulfill the Scripture of My coming for the faithful and for the saints, even if they are few, for I had never had many when I was doing My works between heaven and earth. And you will suddenly fall down as Israel did, for look, Israel does not even today believe that I do not receive its sacrifices of its services, and does not believe that God no longer has. Wake up! The humankind is sleeping under the cover of lying and emptiness and there is no more man on earth to take on the side of the truth. I will burn the earth by fire and all science on it together with its actions, for all are only emptiness and rush after death. I, the risen Lord from among the dead, am coming soon from beside My Father; I am coming with the reward for the deeds; I am coming as I ascended and all man will see the futility of his science. What is man's science? It is the work of the antichrist, which separates God from people. And I will make the conceited bow down to the feet of My people who is nourished with the word of My coming. Amen.

But you, My people, you should pray to God only how I teach you, and you should not ask for the stopping of the sword of My wrath, for I am like a man drunken of pain, and I sharpened the sword of My wrath for those who trampled My truth under their proud feet and full of their hidings. The people do not know what love is, since they lie to each other to their self-haughtiness. There is no longer any truth on the earth, not one of them but you, My people; I and you, in the middle of an immoral people, which loves falsehood and that is all.

Woe to the people who did not believe and do not believe into My words heard by them! This is what I wanted; that is the entire earth to hear the word which came out of My mouth, which judges the lawlessness and lying which stands against God. I will set the seats and dominions from the earth on fire and I will establish the seat of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit over the earth, for the earth belongs to God. Amen.

You, Jerusalem from the Romanians, small and little Jerusalem, strengthen yourself with My love and truth, as your power is with Me, and I am with you so that you may not perish, and so that you may not get frightened of the reward of the evil on the earth. You, My people, watch, for you will be great among the nations, and your gates will be wide opened, in order for you to embrace those that will come to you from the great tribulation, which will be released over the earth, as My angels will bring to you those that are faithful that cried after Me and for Me, the aggrieved One.

And you, Verginica, My trumpet from heaven, you, who woke up this people to get up and to be My people, prepare yourself and come down with Me as word on the earth in your book, so that you may make another cry over the city that I took you to heaven from, for we have to open the way to the harvest, Verginica, and any fruitless tree will be put to fire. Amen.

Jerusalem, sing the truth of My resurrection, for those who are truthful sing truthfully. Sing, sing My people "Christ is risen!" Sing My people, and rejoice over My truth. Sing with the angels from heaven, for they also sing truly. Sing, My people, and be My truth and grow within My coming. Amen, amen, amen.
