

The Word of God at The Feast of the Lord's ascension

Peace to you, My people! I am the Lord, your God. Amen, amen, amen. I celebrate with you a royal feast, for the Lord your God is the King of all that are seen and unseen, known and unknown by man. I come into your midst with a day of a heavenly feast. After I arose from the dead I appeared alive and I proved out My resurrection by many signs and I spoke about God's kingdom, and forty days after My resurrection I told My disciples to remain in Jerusalem waiting there for the Holy Spirit, the Father's promise, which I was telling them about. They were to baptize with the Holy Spirit the people who would believe in Me by My resurrection, the news that they had to spread to all the margins.

My people, I come from heaven into your midst. I come with the feast of My ascension into heaven. Oh, what a great mystery is My ascension into heaven! There came a cloud from heaven to Me and enshrouded Me and then I disappeared from the sight of those who were looking into the sky after the cloud which enshrouded My resurrected body. My people, wake up well the spirit of your understanding, for I come to you with the mysteries of the heavens. The Spirit of understanding is the greatest of all gifts. And only the good believers have it. Amen. Those who were gathered into My name in the mountain of Olives, from where I ascended into heaven, asked Me: «Lord, are You really going to restore the kingdom of Israel?» Oh, My people, only the Holy Spirit knows this mystery, Who has come to us today. When the Holy Spirit came over My apostles of that time, fifty days after My resurrection, the word which I gave them was fulfilled, for this is what I told them: «It isn't for you to know the times or seasons which the Father has set within His own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you and you will be witnesses to Me to all the margins». I told them this way, and then I was no more with them, for the cloud, which came from heaven, enshrouded Me in those that are not seen. The cloud ascended into heaven, and the angels of the Lord came down in white garments and stood near them and told them: «Why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus that you saw going into the sky from you, will come back in the same way as you saw Him going up into the sky».

My people, open up well the spirit of your understanding so that I may reveal My mysteries to you, for you to know and the entire earth may hear of God's work. While God was walking with Israel on earth, the cloud was covering God, Who was going in front of Israel. Moses knew My heavenly mystery, for he had the spirit of understanding and was speaking with the Lord, Who was covered into the cloud. All the prophets had the understanding of My mystery from Me, which covered Me into the cloud when I was speaking to them about those from heaven.

You shall look, My people, but you also have to understand from now on, that it is time to come in a visible way, as I also ascended into heaven. You should look above you when I meet you in the word to see the white cloud, which enshrouds Me when I speak upon you. This is how I am coming to you, for it is written: «As He ascended so He will come back, as you saw Him going up into the sky». This is how My coming is, for it is written: «He is coming with the clouds». Amen. This is what I told My disciples: «I will always be with you, to the end of the time». And it is so, as I told them, but the cloud is My garment, as it was from the beginning. I was the same with Adam; I was speaking with him from My word. And I also worked likewise with Abraham. I had always been with Israel into its midst and I was speaking from the cloud, enshrouded by it. I was speaking with the prophets as I usually speak, for the spoken word of angels is true: «As He ascended, so He will come back; He is coming with the clouds, and the Lord speaks over the earth».

Oh, My little garden of sons, I speak with you about My descending upon you, so that the entire earth My hear of My work with you so that the man may open up his spirit of understanding and to understand My coming to you, as I come to you for the entire earth. The little white stone from this little garden is great, for My name, My new word, is written on it, which only the receiver knows it. It is written into the book of Revelation about this mystery of the little white stone of today; you have known of the sons of the garden of My word, whom I made to be overcomers in time and over the world, for they have overcome the world, as I did.

There have also been some other works, which have come from heaven to call the world to repentance, but those who are comprised in part by heavenly works, have not wanted to overcome the world through them, and the word of the judgment of their works, the teaching coming from heaven on them, is also on them, if they have not overcome the world yet. Those, who are sons of the kingdom of the heavens on earth, do not get married or given in marriage and are clean like the angels in heaven, clean in their body and soul. However, with you, sons of My word in Romania, I have overcome and became King over the earth and I speak My word from heaven, for the clouds of My glory come down above you and I speak from the cloud on you and you give Me to the people, for the time has come for every man on the earth. Until yesterday, I was speaking only to you, but now I give Myself over to everyone through you.

Oh, My people Israel from Romanians, you should rejoice at My meetings with you and do not worry about the wind and the cloud over you, for the Lord, your God is coming to you with the clouds and this is how He speaks to you. Blessed is the man who understands My coming to you, sons, receivers of My new word. The kingdom of Israel was now restored, for Israel means the Lord's people, heavenly people, a people who comes from God and speaks from heaven. Two thousand years ago, when they asked Me about the restoring of the kingdom of Israel, I answered them in an instant that this mystery is not their work, but the work of the Holy Spirit, Who is from the Father, and I was suddenly enshrouded in the cloud ascending into heaven from them. If God was always seen by the people, the people would speak of those of the earth with the Lord, as it was then too, but I hid in the clouds and I speak over the people, and I hid in the man and I speak over the faithful who receive teaching from God.

Oh, My new people, oh, dear God's sons! I sent My disciples of that time on to the earth to be witnesses of My resurrection, which followed after My crucifixion, and I made you into the disciples of My coming, and from your midst I give Myself over to the people as word, for I made you into My sign on earth and in heaven, the sign before My coming in a body of glory. If I had not hidden from people's sight, My godhead would have been lost from the mind of the people. However, I hid with great glory, with great mystery, for great is My ascension.

Sons, the Father's Holy Spirit is within Me, and the Holy Spirit from Me is within you, and I am Holy Spirit in you. Amen, amen, amen. Sons, I ascended to be the Holy Spirit on the earth, for My body was humble among the people; it was without any glory, because God does not want glory from the people, but rather He wants love from the people, love as God's. Amen. Behold, I speak a mystery to you: as I ascended, so I will come and I will come with the clouds. Amen, amen, amen. My body is covered in the cloud, but My word is the Holy Spirit of the Father, for I am the Word of the Father Sabaoth. Amen.

There was a beautiful and cloudless day; it was a breeze and My peace over My disciples in the day when I was with them on the mount of Olives, and the white cloud was coming top down and I was enshrouded by the cloud and I hid and I glorified My godhead and I descended as Holy Spirit from My body over My disciples after ten days from My ascension from among them. They did not leave Jerusalem, as I also did not depart from the place of My peace, the place where I reconciled the man to the Father, the place where I was crucified for the man that God created, and then I gave Myself over to the entire world through My disciples, who have been confessing Me to everybody since then time and up to you, sons of My coming. And behold, I have come and the world is not with Me and has not been watching for My coming, but I come with the clouds and speak from the clouds over the little garden of My word, and the clouds will stand aside and the people will see Me, as those, who were looking at the cloud which enshrouded Me, saw Me. And the heaven will be opened; it will be opened and I will be seen by the people's eyes, who will not have waited for Me to come. Blessed is the man who sees Me with his own spirit, for that one received Me with My Holy Spirit in him. Elisha, the prophet, had Me within him and saw Me with his spirit, but his servant did not. And Elisha told Me to open the heaven so that his servant could also see the heavenly host, and Elisha's servant bodily eyes saw the Lord's salvation, the salvation of Elisha, the prophet. He, who sees Me with the eyes of his body, does not remain alive; he does not remain with the Lord and with the Lord's righteousness. That is why, I hid into those that are not seen, for blessed is the man who sees through the eyes of his spirit.

Israel, Romanian Israel, let no sons of yours be in you that do not know how to believe in God, how to have God and how to bring God among the people. You are covered in a great mystery, My people. The day in which your bodies will be in glory and when you will be enshrouded by the glory, which comes from heaven, as the cloud of the Lord's glory came over Me and enshrouded Me in the day of the ascension of My body in glory.

Oh, sons who overcame the world and the spirit of the world. It is written into the Scriptures that after the dead are resurrected, those alive will be taken up and all will be together with the Lord meeting each other. Those who overcame the world within their body will be taken up into the clouds and will meet the Lord in the air, and they will be forever with the Lord, with the new heaven and with the new earth and with the holy justice, which is coming with the Lord. Amen.

Oh, dear sons, what a great mystery is My ascension into heaven! I have always been into your midst and I am mysterious, and I am, but let Me be, sons. Let Me be there where you also are; let Me be forever with you, sons. Take care to always be from heaven, sons, for those of heaven have the Lord in them, among them and with them. The heavenly ones are known that are from heaven; the heavenly ones are covered into the eyes of those around them, for if it had not been so, they would have been tempted by those on the earth, as the spies also tempted Me and did not rejoice over My being the Son of God. The heavenly ones are in the cloud, as I am. The heavenly ones are despised by the people of empty glory, as I also am despised by them, but those from heaven are forever with the Lord. Amen, amen, amen. They love the Lord's justice and are from heaven. Amen. Blessed is the man who understands and sees with his spirit My coming from you, sons, receivers of My new word, for the clouds of the heaven will make room and that one will see Me as I am. But what are the clouds of the sky? Sons, teach Israel to see and to know My mystery with him. May the spirit of perceiving the heavenly mystery be with you and may it teach you the heavenly things over the earth, sons of Israel, Romanian sons, for the name of „Romanian” is a holy name as „Israel” is also a holy name. Amen, amen I speak to you: to you and to every human nation on the earth: the name of „Romanian” is a holy name. Amen, amen, amen.

15/28-05-1998