

The Word of God at The second day after Passover

Let Me be with you through the word today too, children of the New Jerusalem. Let us spend a feast of resurrection to make the saints and the angels rejoice, to rejoice the Father, sons, for the Father is rejoicing greatly over My joy, and My joy is the man, the resurrected man, the son of the resurrection. Amen.

The angel of My resurrection is celebrated once with My resurrection. My day of resurrection is also his day, for he has My resurrection to announce and he tells you from near Me: Christ is risen!

Oh, children of the Jerusalem from above! You need not forget any moment that you are the sons of resurrection and that you have to live each and every moment together with the saints. And in order to be with them, you need to be like them, like the angels sons, like the sons of the resurrection and not like the people on earth. Those on earth are the sons of this age and those who live like angels are the sons of the age, which is to be. Amen.

The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage, as I told the Sadducees who do not believe in the resurrection and who believe in this age. But I spoke them about the living ones, who become worthy of this age that is to come, and who do not marry and are not given in marriage, but all are like the angels and are God's sons, being the sons of the resurrection. I taught you how the son of the resurrection is, how the son of God is. And if I taught you, you should be the sons of the resurrection, like the angels, and to be the body of the angels, as I give you many angels for everything that I had to work on the earth with you. Amen.

Oh, heavenly sons, the angels hear that I tell you to be the body of the angels, and the angels are preparing towards you, so that you may be like them, and to belong to God as they do. I want to make many angels of the sons of this age too, and to build them again in the mystery of the age to come, and to be a new building, a people without death, as the sons of God are, as it is written into My word of that time: «They, who will be worthy to get that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry and nor are given into marriage, as they can no longer die, for they will be like angels, and are the sons of God, the sons of the resurrection». And then I also said that the dead rise to life and that God is not of the dead but of the living, and that Abraham and Isaac live in God. Behold, it is that age. It was and it is, since the dead rise.

When My angel appeared to Moses in the flame of fire, which was coming out of the burning bush without consuming it, Moses marveled that this burning bush was not consuming and said: «I go and see it». And if Moses came near, My angel called him out on his name. And Moses answered: «Here I am, Lord!», and the voice of the burning bush said to Moses: «I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob».

Sons, sons, that age is and they live in it, as God is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all that are alive, live in God. Amen. You should live in God every moment, so that you may not die and to be the sons of the resurrection, the sons of God. This is what you should be, and let a seed of resurrection spring up out of you, and let it be taken by the wind, by the wind of the Holy Spirit, Which blows from Me and from you upon the earth; moreover, let it then rain upon the seed, and the seed may become a new body, and let many multitudes of the sons of this age become sons of resurrection, as soon, soon, it will not be any marriage or given in marriage, as what it is now on the earth is called fornication, not marriage or given in marriage.

Oh, there is no longer marriage and giving into marriage; there is no more time. This is a great mystery, as the apostle says, but this mystery is no longer on the earth. The apostle Paul said to those of that time, that because of sexual immoralities each man should have his own wife, and each woman should have her own husband. He said this because he knew of the man's sexual immorality, and he told the man to keep away from sexual immorality as this breaks down the man in his inner being; it opposes to God's dwelling in man; it breaks down God's throne from the man. All sins cost the man, but the sexual immorality totally separates God from the man, as it is written: «If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him». Behold this age, and behold that age. That age will soon have the feast of the resurrection, as the sons of the resurrection are there; they are the sons of God and are like the angels. Amen. The same with you; you should be children of the resurrection and this is how you should remain forever; and you should live like angels and to be the body of the angels, children of Jerusalem, for we are to build, sons, Jerusalem, which is and which grows to be. Let the angels rejoice over your bodies, that are raised by sacrifice and by My resurrection, and may your spirits give forth only resurrection for you and for they who will long to be with you. Amen.

The father rejoices over My joy. You are My joy: the Father and you. The life of the age to come is the life of those who are alive and who make the age, a new age on earth, the resurrection of those who are living, the redemption of their bodies through those who are in a body, through those who are alive in the body, and through those that the angels work out My work of new age and the resurrection from the dead.

The angel of My resurrection fills you with the news of My resurrection so that it may be spread out: Christ is risen!

Oh, open up for Me early in the morning tomorrow, children of the resurrection. I have lessons of resurrection for many nations. I have and I give you so that you may give further and the news of resurrection to be caught. Let the resurrection from the dead be caught by those who still have a little drop of love, a little drop of life in them.

Christ is risen! I and the angel of My resurrection, Christ is risen! This is what we say. For the resurrection of many; that is why we say. And to you I give you peace, the peace of My resurrection. Peace for the disciples, peace, sons! Peace to My disciples! Amen.

Give comfort to those who come to life. Give coming to those who come. Do the work of a disciple, for the earth needs resurrection far and wide; it needs disciples, sons. The disciple gives birth to other disciples and he puts them at My work of resurrection, for many will become worthy of the resurrection from the dead so that they may receive that age, the age which is to come and which is to be. Amen.

Christ is risen! Peace to those who are resurrected! Peace to the disciples! Peace, sons! Peace to My disciples! Amen, amen, amen.
