

The Word of God at The Sunday of the fearful judgment

I enshroud you within the mystery of the Holy Spirit and His work, My people, because I want to make you into My fulfilled word, and you should be My will, for so and this is the true people of the Lord: the Lord's will as in heaven so on earth, the Lord's will. Amen, amen, amen.

I wanted that the first man that I created in the beginning to be My will and that is why I built him when I created him. But the man who comes out of the man, that one is the will of the man and his own will, after that he becomes a man who another man can come out of. This happens because the first man, built by My hand, pulled himself out of My Spirit and made an evil spirit for himself, and I have remained crying and I have remained without man because from then on the man was no longer according to My will. Since then and until now I have been crying after the man, and My angels long near Me and they do their work, which I gave them, to keep the man away from the spirit opposing to Me, from the man's opposition in order to be according to My will, and to keep the man from his will and to bring him again at My will.

As for you, Romanian Jerusalem, you shall not forget that you were chosen from among the people. You were chosen by God to make you His will on earth, and then, served by His angels, to do the Lord's work, the work of the man's coming back to My will, My people. You shall not be afraid of the opposing man to My will, My people, when I am with you and when you are with Me, for many of those who believe in Me according to their will, wait for the antichrist not for Me, and they have been looking after him as they have received teaching from the earth about the antichrist's coming, and the antichrists of today rejoice greatly when they see the man waiting for someone with the name of antichrist!

Oh, My people, the faithful man does no longer wait for Me. He gets lost in rumors, for the broods of antichrist know what to do to make the man no longer know of My coming and no longer prepare for it, and to lose his mind, his courage and his life waiting for the antichrist. However, you should wait from dawn to dawn for the Lord, your God, Who is coming to save you for His kingdom, Jerusalem of today. The man looks at you and does not want to know of My coming to you, My people, and behold how I come and when I come to you and how long I am with you! I go with you through the world but the world does not see Me, for I reveal Myself only to the eyes of those who have the Holy Spirit believing into My coming of two thousand years ago when I told My disciples that I would be with them to the end of the age, with those who are Mine, with those who do My will and My coming on earth.

Oh, My people, woe to the man who does not have Me as his God! However, I have no one to tell all these, because the man says that he has not got Me, but he does not say that the man cannot serve two or three gods. First, the man serves to his own self and those who come out of him and then he serves the man of vainglory, and by this he serves the evil spirit, the spirit opposing to God, the spirit of lawlessness, which I will destroy together with his man, by the breath of My mouth whenever I come to you as word on earth, My people, for this is the breath of My coming: My word, which breathes of My mouth, and that you hear from your midst, and by which I prove out the man of lawlessness; however, I always destroy his power displaying his work, hostile to Me and to the man who would try to get up and deny himself and then to be able to follow Me for his salvation, seeing all his wisdom for My kingdom on earth with the man, a kingdom that will never be destroyed. Amen.

I celebrate into your midst the memorial of the Gospel of My word of two thousand years ago, by which I spoke to My disciples about My kingdom, which I will come on earth with. I told them this: «When the Son of Man will come in His glory with all angels with Him, then

He will sit on the throne of His glory and all the nations will be gathered before Him and He will separate them one from another and will set the sheep on His right hand and the goats on His left hand. Then the King will tell those on His right hand: Come, blessed of My Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry, and you gave Me food to eat; I was thirsty and you gave Me to drink; I was a stranger, and you took Me in; naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me. You served Me whenever you did it to one of the least of My brothers, for you did it to Me. And those who did not do this for My least ones, they did not do it to Me and they will remain in the place prepared to the devil and his angels». (Matt. 25:32-45)

But why do I speak so clearly the word of the Gospel, which is remembered today in a work of church? I speak of it and I call it the fearful judgment, to show to the man that he does not want and he does not look to be the blessed of My Father visiting Me, the One carried by those that are My least on earth. Those who have become great and so great that they rule the earth and every man on it; I do not find any of these to search out the shortcomings of those who are the least of My people: Mine are those little ones who suffer because they are Mine, for the big man says: „Let God give to those who are His.” But behold the fearful judgment: I am word on earth and sitting on the throne of My glory from the midst of the Romanian people with My angels, I speak for all the nations of the earth and I set them by the word on My right hand and I set them also on My left hand. Those who have visited Me and looked for Me with faith, when I, carried by those little of Mine, cross the earth with the word to bring the news of the kingdom of the heavens against the kingdom of the antichrist, the man of lawlessness, I call these the blessed of My Father, and I tell them to come to inherit their own things that are gathered there, where the moth does not eat and where the thief does not steal them.

But to whom shall I speak this word of My Father’s blessing, My people, when you, My least one and with whom I carry the cross of My second coming from the Father, are not helped under the cross? I have been teaching you not to receive anything as a gift, but rather to work for your food, for your drink, for your clothing, and to take care of you and to keep from the evil one, in such a way that the man may be drawn to the work of your hands when I come with it into the man’s way to speak to him about My coming with My kingdom and about its heirs who come together in it through My least ones, and for the man to take from you and to give you from him.

Oh, My people, the whole world, which still knows that God is and that the faith in God still is as well, and the reward for the sin of the man’s separation from Me, remains in the world too, a world of lawlessness, for the lawlessness is a greedy woman, who entices the man to take and to eat of it that he will not die but live instead. There is no man in the world to be able to stop him doing his trespasses, by which he heaps up treasures on earth. I seek and I seek again after the man to make him be the blessed of My Father, if he wants to find the fallow land with a treasure in it and to give everything he has got in order to buy it. Oh, how beautiful for the man and how sweet for him, if he made everything on earth with My blessing and not with the blessing of the man that takes after him! And behold, the man does not know who the antichrist is, who makes high places on earth for himself and then writes My name on them in order to draw to him all those who still have faith in Me. But these men do no longer see and do no longer know the way to Me because of the antichrist who set himself on a high place, clothed in My robe (Of priest and bishop, r.n.), because by assuming My name on him, he is no longer known by the man without wisdom, and the man does no longer see Me and does no longer discern Me to follow Me, the humble and poor One through those that are My least ones, and then to help Me while in need and sufferance, but rather he helps him and only him and his debauchery and haughtiness, drunken by the blood of the saints. However, I, the Lamb of the Father Sabaoth, am the Lord of the lords and the King of the kings and I wage war against every man who is My adversary and I will overcome him and you will also overcome those who are working together with Me for My victory, you who are called My elected, for behold the fearful judgment, because they have not gathered anything with Me, and they have not given anything to Me, but on the contrary, they have robbed Me, My name, My house, My clothing and My glory. And for this, here is what the fearful judgment says, which I spoke with My mouth and with the breath of My mouth two thousand years ago, when I came from the Father and when the ruler of this world was judged by My death, by My resurrection and by My sitting on the right hand of the Father as the King of the world, the slaughtered Lamb for the man's redemption. Amen.

My people of today, it is for you that I help those under My heavy cross of today, because I have among people those that have not bowed their knees to Baal and I will carry you into My arms until My great salvation with you, only for you to be My least one and to listen to Me and to work My glory into your midst and to receive it as your inheritance for the joy of My coming.

Pray, Romanian Jerusalem, for every man, from Adam up to the one in the day of My glory, for all the nations of the earth stay, willing or not, before the fearful judgment, so that all the man's gathering may become dust, and that I may be glorified by signs and fearful miracles for those who have not gathered for themselves and have not sold all their wealth for the kingdom, which is to remain on earth and which the man that has not been waiting for, since he has been building his own kingdom and the kingdom of his offspring.

You should get ready with a big heart and a strong faith for praying and fasting beside it, for I, the Lord and your God, through these, I will take the devil and all his angels away from the earth and I will take over the kingdom of the earth from his possession into My possession, because he still has a little bit of time, very little and he will testify that God is against him and he is no more. Amen.

Sing Jerusalem, and comfort God and be an obedient child, My people. Let your comfort and your life be My glory and My love over you, for I fulfill the prophecy for the end from your midst, in which is written that all the nations will come to the spring of this mountain of My glory and of My word and they will say: «Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths». Amen.

The lust and the pride of those who call themselves My servants in the world, I tell them from the seat of the glory of My word: I do not know where they have their lust and pride from, those who would like to be in My place among the people. And I also tell them that the people that are shepherded by them serve more to the devil than to Me, since they have not got any parable set before them to follow.

Oh, Jerusalem of today, you should tell this to the man what a Christian man is supposed to be, and a son of the church whose head is Jesus Christ! Many people have been waiting for My teaching that is on you, My people, and you will share the Lord, and you should always be clothed in grace, always dressed beautifully inside and outside and well known to Me, and you know this work of those whom I know. Multiply yourself within the grace from your midst and long for it as the spirit of comfort, for I want you to be My sign on earth, the place and the time by which I ask the man about his life and about his work. Amen. And you should keep on praying in such a way that the Holy Spirit may start burning from one another into your midst according to the nature of His work, My people. I have a guiding light before you and you should always live only in light and to remain like that to see you and that you may see Me and to be able to follow Me, My people, and that you may always be only glory, always, because the glory of My word is being given to you to share it and to get used to sharing it.

Oh, Jerusalem, you should always be ready for My glory with you, for I want to give way to the river of your mouth to flow for the man to see Me near you and in you and to humble his pride and to stretch out his hand so that I may give him and to have what I give him. Amen. Now I strengthen you within all My things with a word of blessing for you to grow and blossom by

My grace and not by your power, for you are little and have no power, My people, and that is why I teach you to ask from Me and to be able to work for Me and for you with Me and for that man that will stand up to take Me from you because I want the whole earth to find out about you and about the country of My choice, in which I have you, My people, Romanian Jerusalem.

Be blessed forever. May the anointed sons always bless you, and strengthen yourself by My work on you as body and word, for this is how I am wholly into your midst and I am always today, and you should also be the same, My people, you should always be today. Amen.

Strengthen the spirit of praying and of worshipping and praise the Lord and bless Him. You, those who are anointed by a threefold anointment, strengthen the prayer placed on the altar and strengthen it and make it threefold and even sevenfold, anointed sons, and administrate well the time for you and for the people for Me, as it is for you that you do this and for My glory with you, sons. I strengthen you all and I keep you all the time at My bosom and I teach you to always stay like that and this is how the people are to learn from you, but be careful to My teaching into your midst, anointed sons, and love one another through it, for through it you are Mine. Amen, amen, amen.
