

The Word of God at The Feast of the Romanian Christianity, (Whitsuntide), the second day

I embrace you in the word, children who receive Me when I come, and I am the word. I hold you and I embrace you within the Holy Spirit by everything that is and I open the spring of My word and I give them to drink of it for you have brought Me sheep to the spring and how much I want them to become sheep and that those who take from Me may stick to the pasture and its taste, to those who hear My longing after the man! Amen.

It is a celebration of the Holy Spirit on My land with you. It is a feast from heaven over the little village of My word, in which I have a cradle with My manger of coming down from near the Father. There are the days of the coming of the Son of Man. It is the time of this Scripture from the end of the time, and I, in a sweet voice, as on the cross, call the man to My coming. Amen.

Man, have mercy on God! Have mercy on the One Who made the heaven and the earth and spread the news of His coming, and drink of His spring. Drink and come to life! I have brought you together to the spring and I give you from it. I am. The Father Sabaoth comforts Me and tells Me:

— Rejoice, My beloved Son, with Whom, I, the Father am well pleased in the beginning and in the end of the time. Wipe out Your tear, which has been crying after the man for seven thousand years, for You are the Bridegroom, dear Son, and the Bridegroom rejoices. Rejoice with Your bride and rejoice together with the wedding guests and come and feed the man from the spring of life! Amen, amen, amen.

— I, My Father, I struggle heavily with My coming, for I have a little and tiny people and it is tired of the labor for My coming and because of its work on earth. I have set My people to lay over My table to have a dinner of word with the man, to make those who come to the spring sit down. Amen.

Now, in a voice of Whitsuntide feast I tell you, those who hear: Receive Holy Spirit! Receive Holy Spirit! Receive! Receive so that I may be one spirit with you and you may be one spirit with Me, for there is no greater love on earth than the love and the work of the Holy Spirit between God and man. As a hard-working gardener pours out water to the root of the trees, so I give you to drink to be able to bring forth fruit, for the tree, which does not bear fruit is cut and cast out into an unquenchable fire. Amen.

The hosts of saints and angels taste to the full of the joy of My feast with you and with those that are gathered near you, My Jerusalem people of Romanians. Those from the invisible heaven taste of My table with you. Those that are gathered at the spring do not see and do not know that the invisible heaven sits here with them at the table, in the garden that is prepared by Me to meet the man and to give him of My life and for the man to have life, as I have. Amen.

I am the Son of the Father Sabaoth and I have the country of eternity into My arms to give it to the man, for I take and knead it in order that sons of God may come out of it by the power of My word, which gives birth to every man who comes after Me. And I said: «If anyone desires to follow Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me». (Mat. 16:24)

Man, come after Me, not after you! I come after you to tell you to follow Me, as I follow the Father in heaven as on earth. The one who is a son listens to his Father and this means to be God's son. I was with the sons of Joseph, the carpenter, when I started to call My disciples, and then I made them listen to Me and follow Me on earth. I was going with them from place to place, in Jerusalem, in Galilee and in Samaria, and I was doing near them the work of My Father,

Who sent Me. I was My Father's messenger as I am today. I was speaking the word with power over the man, and the Father is in Me now just as He was in Me then, for He was, He is and He will be, as I am. Amen.

The Father is and I also am. I am the One Who is and I want the man to be too, not only God to be. My word, by which I speak for the man to be, is great. That is why I come down from the Father and I give you of My life and of its breath, which becomes word from Me, man wanted by God. I give you to be, as God is also. Amen. «I am Who I am», this is what I told Moses when he asked Me what was he supposed to tell the Israelites about the One Who sent him after them in Egypt to take them out of slavery and to give them the country of Canaan, the land of promise with milk and honey in it. I told him to speak to Israel that I was He Who was. Then I gave him power to show Me with power in him and in his word and he did great miracles into the midst of My people of that time, and it was only in this way that Israel received him as My messenger in order to take them out of Egypt and to give them the country promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

I am the One Who is and I want the man to be either, and to bring the heaven down on earth, for heaven means God with His saints and with His angels who serve Him. Amen. My Word is the Holy Spirit. Receive from Him and be one spirit with the Holy Spirit, for it is a Whitsuntide feast in heaven and on earth. My word comes with the wind on earth. The Holy Spirit comes also in the wind on earth. Amen. In the day passed of the feast in the garden of meeting, the wind spoke and told you that the Holy Spirit would come on you. The earth was washed by the water from above and the water said that the Holy Spirit would come upon you. The ghosts also spoke rejoicing greatly over My feast with you and with those that have come together at My spring among you, children of the Romanian Jerusalem. Oh, it was the same on the day, when I, the Lord, the One Who was resurrected and ascended to the Father, sent the Holy Spirit upon the disciples in a visible way, giving them the tongues for the nations of the people and to everyone who were with a living soul between heaven and earth. It was a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and the wind was speaking with its noise, with its voice, and then tongues of fire came down upon My disciples and they all spoke upon those that were together in Jerusalem from among all the nations of the earth, and all them that were there were amazed and perplexed and they were saying one to another: «What does this mean?» And Peter spoke to them all: «Let this be known to you and listen to my words. This is what has been spoken through the prophets: 'It will be in the last days, says God that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh... and whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved'». (Acts 2:14-21) And then he said to them: «Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit»». (Acts 2:38)

Oh, behold how My church has been being built. It is built this way and not as the man builds it, who makes himself a minister over the church. Church means a miracle of the Holy Spirit as two thousand years ago, after I gave the Holy Spirit onto My disciples in tongues of fire and every soul was full of fear, because there were being done great miracles and signs upon them in Jerusalem and the fear of God seized them all, and all who believed were together and had everything in common, and they sold their possessions and goods and distributed them to all, according to everyone's need, and then they were all together in one spirit breaking the bread in home and taking bread with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God and His grace let upon the people, and the assembly increased in number as the Lord added to it day by day those who were being saved.

The Holy Spirit is in My word. I give it to you and I tell you as My disciple Peter told those who asked him about what they had to do. And I tell you: repent into My name for the forgiveness of your sins, and then receive Holy Spirit! Receive, for the Holy Spirit is the word, which flows of My mouth over the earth, with power and much glory, for it is great and sweet for those who are being saved through it. Give your hearts to God so that He may make them into heavenly places, the dwellings of the Holy Spirit, for whoever comes is alive and is no longer dead and is Holy Spirit instead, a life giving spirit, a godly body, of which the anointment of the Holy Spirit flows, as it flows out of Me. Amen.

Oh, the word that says that “the dead with the dead and the living with the living!” is true. Whoever can fulfill this, that one will look for the living ones, for he will understand what the spirit of the world means and what the Spirit of God in man means, and he will choose the life and will choose the Holy Spirit that cannot be learned and it is not obtained from the books and from the learned and schooled people on earth, but it is received from heaven instead and it is received from God and from those who are like God and with God in their mind, in their heart, in their soul and in their body. Amen.

I comfort Myself when I speak to you. The Holy Spirit, the Comforter, is comforted with you, those who really came to My spring of word. The Father is comforted with Me when He sees Me with My bride from the Romanians, with My bride people, which labors in a spirit of the heavenly wedding for the days of Holy Spirit on earth, for the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit want to be revealed with the whole heaven on earth, and let those, which are and are not seen, be seen. Amen. I miss to open the eyes of the man. I miss to remove the mud from his eyes to be able to see God and to repent for the forgiveness of his sins, and then to receive the Holy Spirit and to show Him alive in him. Amen.

I comfort with My soothing word those who came from the four corners of the wind to blow from their spirit the spirit of love for this little patch of holy land, in which I dwell and speak over the man. I open up My arms and I embrace them within the mystery of the word by which I embrace them and I tell them: receive Holy Spirit, and let Him be the breath of your mouth and praise the Lord with your heart, with your love, with your mouth, with strings and organs and with sounding cymbals and psaltery and harps, for holy is His name, which everyone that loves Him bears with joy and with the purity of heart, praising God and His grace descending upon the man. Oh, this is how the church is being built and it has just one Creator, the Holy Spirit, Who works like God, for church means the miracle of the Holy Spirit on earth. Amen.

Oh, I speak of My pain and My wound that I have had for two thousand years from those that have no calling, and have no holy life, and who are seated as churchly servants over the nations, and I, the Lord, am no longer worthy to be followed by those who call themselves Christians. I have spoken by this word what My church means, to urge the people to repentance for the forgiveness of their sins and to the Holy Spirit by holiness, for My wound is deepened and the pain from the lawlessness hurts Me deeply, which hides with its works under the appearance of My church.

Oh, man, who have been losing the heaven for seven thousand years! Learn from Me how to know Me, how to know God on earth. I am this word by which I advise you. Learn, man, and come under My robe, come in under a guide and look for it and seek after My word, which is coming now from heaven to guide the man, for the man is without any guide on earth. A sinful man cannot judge the deeds of those who sin. I am the sinless Man, the Son of Man, and I have come from the Father the second time on earth to advise the man to his salvation. Amen.

Woe to those who have no guide, for guide means the Holy Spirit and only those who are holy on earth adorn Him. Amen. When I chose My disciples two thousand years ago, I cleansed them of all their sins and then I gave My life for their life with Me, and then I went to the Father and I sent the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, because they were My saints on earth. This is how I prepared My people of disciples of Romanians today as well, and I have cleansed them of all their sins, and then I have sanctified them by My Body and Blood, given to them as a gift by My grace descending from heaven over them at My command, and I have given them the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, and I have always given Him to them and I have always guided them, because I have never had a people without a shepherd, and the Shepherd of My people is the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who takes from what is Mine and teaches My people guiding him between earth and heaven. Amen.

Many of those who are My servants over the multitudes ask themselves: „Where do these have the grace and the Spirit from?”. And I am the One Who answers them: My heaven is full of saints and angels and I have been working beyond the nature over these for those things that are established by Me into their midst. I have been working by the saints of the heaven, (Through Basil, Gregory and John. See The Word of God from 2002.02.12 and from 2003.02.12, r.n.) by the intercession of My angel and by the intercession of My witness from the church of the world, whom I have had near My bosom all the time when I, the Lord, have established My Jerusalem from Romanians today, and then he has been taken from My bosom by those who have their spirit and have not got the Holy Spirit, Who reveals Himself to those who love God within a holiness of body and soul and spirit.

I have been working with a great heavenly mystery by the bishops, coming down from heaven to them on earth, and I, the Lord, the Bishop of the Father Sabaoth, the Priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek, was the One Who have established them, the same as I established Moses over Israel on the Mount Horeb, and then I sent him to take My people out of slavery. And as the place, where I spoke with Moses when I filled him with grace, was called the Lord's mountain, the same is now, the place where I have spoken over these through whom I have worked with the light of My word over the earth, is called the Lord's mountain. Amen.

Come near, man! This word is the Holy Spirit and I have guided My people of today with Him, the people of My word, the people taken out of the Romanian people, because the Romanian land is the first one that came out of the water at the making of the heaven and the earth, and because the clay, which I made the man from, was taken by My hand-making man from the place in which I have been building again My church in this time, because I spoke ahead of time by this prophetic word that My first church would be built again. The heaven and the earth pass away, but the word that comes out of My mouth does not pass until it comes true. Amen.

I have come as a guide before you, man without any path. Oh, there is no one to show you the holy way and there is no one to cleanse you from sins, for there are no longer saints on earth to have favor with God for your life, for your forgiveness. I want to declare the forgiveness of your sins by your repentance and I want to forgive you by the daily prayer, supplication and sacrifice, brought for the whole human kind here, in the place that I chose as the Lord's mountain, the mountain to which all the nations will flow to receive the laws of the life and the path, as the prophets spoke about My work of today by the Scriptures, My word and My coming as guide on earth. Amen.

Romanian people, praise the Lord! You have into your midst the fallow land with a treasure in it. Sell your wisdom and take Mine instead, for I have put it into your midst to turn your land into your salvation and the new heaven and the new earth, now, at the new making of the world, and blessed will be the one who reads and understands the Scriptures of My coming and those things for the renewal of the world. Amen.

Peace to you, those who truly have come near to the spring! And to those who tempt and do not receive the Holy Spirit of the word of My mouth, woe to you again! I call you to life. There is still a little while, and I will shine on this mountain, and My light will make many people blind, and I tell you that it has already dazzled them, because I have come now again on earth to make those who are blind see and those that see blind. The same as two thousand years ago, the same way I speak today too, for I am the Alpha and the Omega, and I am in the end as in the beginning. The word was in the beginning. And the Word is in the end too and the Word is life, and the life is the light of the people, and the light shines in the darkness and the darkness has not overcome it. Amen.

Peace to you! Peace to you! Peace to you! I am the mysterious Shepherd. I am the Son of Man, Who is coming! Peace to you! And if you are unfaithful, let My peace come back in Me. Amen.

Blessed it is My meeting with the man in the garden of the meeting, in whose sky all the saints of the heaven and all the heavenly powers are, accompanying the Father and the Son in a work of the Holy Spirit on earth.

Peace to you! It is the time of the greatest fulfillment, of the last Scriptures: the Scriptures of the coming of the Son of Man with power and much glory, and My glory is the word. Amen, amen, amen.
