

The Word of God at The Sunday of the memorial of the dreadful judgment.
The feast of the Lord's Meeting (Candlemas)

Strengthen your holy power, and from it, the power of the body, children who open to Me so that I may settle down as word over Jerusalem and over the earth. Your holy power comes from the work and then from the joy after the work over the people of My word. This joy is not made of any kind of your spending with Me and with the people, but it rather produced when the heavenly fruit is seen, the fulfilling of My word over the sons of Jerusalem, over all, sons, and then from you and from them over the earth as the fulfilling of My word. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, sons, My word, which does not become work afterwards, this is what it hurts you. That is why you have to teach always, always, the people of My word to be the people of My word as I have called him. Amen. Who is the one that is able to belong to My word? It is the one on whom My word is being fulfilled, and then the word that I speak upon him may be accomplished always in his nature, and from this work you should always receive holy power, for it is not possible to have joy in the Holy Spirit without the power, which feeds it. Amen.

We are reminded in My book of this day about the dreadful day when I, the Lord, I, the Son of Man, in whose image I will appear when all the angels will be with Me, will make a throne of glory and I will sit and all the nations of the earth will stand before Me, and I will set them on My right and on My left, and I will give each one according to his work. Those who have come together to Me will hear from My mouth: «Come blessed of My Father, inherit My Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world!» (Matt. 25:34) And I will tell those who have gathered for themselves: «Depart from Me, you cursed, into the eternal fire, which is prepared for the devil and his angels!» (Matt. 25:41) This is the work, which I came to do by My coming of today. And as for those who have works and a life pleasant to Me, I exhort them calling them to you, My very little brothers, to do to you good, and you to do Me good and to them as well, so that I may always come, always with My care for their salvation and yours. They are My blessed to whom I will tell: «Most assuredly I tell you, inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these of My brothers, you did it to Me». (Matt. 25:40) Amen. And as for those who have no work and a pleasant life to Me, I do not bring them to you, for they gather for themselves and to their earthly lusts and emptiness, but I will tell them about the throne of glory as I have already done so: «Most assuredly I tell you, inasmuch as you did not do to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me». (Matt. 25:45) Then those who have worked the life for themselves will have eternal life and those who have worked condemnation for themselves will go away into eternal punishment, and this is how the sheep on My right will be separated from the goats on My left, and each one will hear My words for their works, for I will give each one according to his work. Amen.

It is not I to judge the man, but his works will set him on My right or on My left. You are My little ones and whoever visits you, are blessed by My Father, and there is no other greater and better blessing than that one by which they can do you good, My little ones, and help you on My way with you, on your way with Me, for in this way it is the work of My coming as word for any work of the man on earth whom I call out offering him the teaching of life so that I may not be guilty of the man's work without God. I am the right Judge and that is why I have shown the man the right way, coming to him with My word of life giving and of right way, and if the man does not want to work in his life, then I will not be guilty of his life, of his lack of life and of his lack of blessing.

I set you, My little ones, before the nations of the earth, so that the man may alone chose his place on My right or his place on My left, and this is how the day of the man's judgment is made. I, the Lord, make it establishing you, those who make My coming on earth, before the creature on it and before the human people on it, for the creature waited and waits for you, and by this sign, which is you with the cross of My coming on your little shoulders, I can make the judgment of the nations, the man's trial; and after I have finished testing them through you, I will shine from you, because you carried on your little shoulders the cross of My coming on earth as word, a word of life upon the people. And after I will have shined from you as My sign between earth and heaven, all the nations of the earth will cry and will see Me with you on the clouds of glory, with power and much glory of angels. And then those, who did you good, will be My elected ones and I will gather them with the sound of a trumpet, and this generation will not pass until all these will not remain this way. Amen. And those, who did not do good to you after I have established you as a sign of My coming, as word over the earth for the judgment of the creature, it will happen to them as to those in the time of Noah, who did not believe, and who are eating and drinking and marrying and are given in marriage, as they have always done it, until the day when I shine from you, and then, before their reward, they will know their reward, which will put all to My left for this reward, and this generation shall not pass away until all these happen. Amen.

And as for you, children of My coming, who were chosen for My glory, you should work and live day by day and more and more for it, for the payment of your work with Me will be My shining in you, and this generation will not pass until this takes place. Amen. I have created you for My glory, now in the end of the man's time, and I have taken you from among the people and created you, for you have believed in Me and worked My coming with the judgment of the nations of the earth. Amen.

And now, persevere in your prayer for My victory and yours, for the time is near. Be Holy Spirit in word and in work for My fruit to be known in you, and the spirit of humility to clothe you, so that all the sons of the Jerusalem of My coming to be beautiful sons, for humility makes the man to be My pleased one. Amen.

I want to bring you as an offering to My Father for My work with you, as My mother, the Virgin, brought Me before the Lord after forty days since My birth among the people, and when the old Simeon was released from the days of his waiting, seeing Israel's comforting through the Holy Spirit, Who was upon him, seeing Me, the Son of the Father and the Son of the Man, set before the people to the falling and rising of many, and for a sign which is spoken against. (See Luke 2:34, r.n.) This is how I have brought you before the Father forty years after the beginning of My work of word, now, in the end of the man's time, and you have been to the falling and rising of many and as a sign, which has been causing so much hostility, sons.

It was written about Me that after I was brought before the Father, I was growing and strengthening Myself in spirit, being filled with wisdom, and God's grace was upon Me. This is how I also want to work today, and to do this in you, to appear in you and to shine from you, for I have set you as a sign on earth and this sign has been causing so much resistance, as it was with Me in the midst of Israel.

Oh, children from the gates, who have heard Me and have written down My word! Take care of My work through you over Jerusalem and on the earth, so that I may be able to work from heaven, seeing, and from the earth, working, and to take care of you as of My little ones, and then to give the blessing of My father to all who have visited you under the burden of My work carried on your gentle shoulders, for you are so little, so small on earth, because you are Mine, and because this is how all those who are Mine have been. Amen, amen, amen.

02/15-02-2004