

The Word of God at The feast of the Lord's Resurrection

I am the King of glory! Open to Me, children who are My gates, for I am the King of glory. Amen, amen, amen.

I sing with you: Christ is risen! The King of glory come to life after that he submitted Himself to the death on the cross as a man, and after three days, as the prophets spoke, He was resurrected from the tomb. This salvation of the man and of the judgment of the ruler of this world, who was thrown out of everything that is only Mine, this feast I celebrate today after two thousand years ago from My crucifixion and My resurrection as the King of glory. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, Jerusalem of My passions on the cross for your salvation from the shadow of the law! I was put on the cross by you, and I came to life so that you were able to receive Me afterwards, but you did not want to grow less and to receive Me to be Your king; a King that is not of this world, for you are a king in this world all over the earth over which you prosper, because you have been My people. I wanted to be your King over your love, over your faith, over your glory forever, but you did not want Me and you rather took Me out of everything that is yours and you wait for another savior, and when that one comes, you will know him because he is yours, but you do not know Me, because you are unfaithful, and your pride has covered the earth. However, I, your true God, Who came from the Father and out of your midst, after you locked Me in the tomb, receiving My crucified body on the cross, the place where I gave My spirit into the hands of the Father, because I was resurrected after three days, fulfilling this Scripture and not breaking the seals of the tomb, I, the Lord of glory, Who overcame you on the cross, speak to you and I speak to this feast: Christ is risen! Amen, amen, amen.

And as for you, Jerusalem of My glory on the cross, I glorify Myself for you in the word over the earth after two thousand years for all the Christian people from that time and until now, for I am well pleased with you because you have been faithful, and that you are a people chosen from the Romanian nations and you received Me over you as the King of the glory and I write My book of the judgment of the creature into your midst, for I worked out My glory of two thousand years ago by the lowly, and likewise I have also worked for My second coming from near the Father. However, you should receive Me when I knock. You shall open to Me for you are My chosen one and you are tiny, for the children were given to partake of this glory of My Body and Blood that was shed on the cross for the salvation of the creature, for the new heaven and for the new earth, which will be glorified more and more with every passing day, to the glory of My name carried by angels between heaven and earth and between earth and heaven, and My word of that time and the one upon the man now, is the true light, which shines over every man who comes into the world. Amen.

Oh, if I am life, and if the life, which is the light of the people, is in Me, you, Jerusalem of today, like John, the Baptizer, testify to the people about Me, about the light, that all may believe through you, that the word is the true light and as many as have received Him, to those who believed in His name, to them He gave the right to become God's children, born of this word, for I surpassed him because I was before him, and I came and I gave grace to the people, for it is written: «For the Law was given through Moses. Grace and truth came through Jesus Christ». (John 1:17) Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, Jerusalem of My grace and truth, I said «Peace to you!» to My disciples whom I choose from among the Jews to believe and who remained with Me after they had known Me. They were afraid of the Jews and stayed closed during all My passions, for after I left Myself to be caught for crucifixion, I told those who took Me to put Me on the cross: «I am the One you see, and let these go their way». (John 18:8) After My resurrection and after I spoke peace upon them, I showed them My hands and My side, and they rejoiced when they saw Me, and I told them again: «Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, even so I send you». (John 20:21) And I breathed upon them saying: «Receive the Holy Spirit! Whoever's sins you forgive, they are forgiven them. Whoever's sins you retain, they have been retained». (John 20:22-23) And I took care to strengthen their faith up to My ascension from them to the Father, from Whom I came. Forty days after My resurrection I had been speaking with them about the kingdom of God and I commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, that is the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, and I spoke to them: «You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth, and as many as has received Me believing through you in My name, I will give them the power to become children of God». (See Acts 1:8 and also John 1:12) Amen

Oh, Jerusalem of My coming back with the spirit of the teaching about the kingdom of God! The scribes cannot receive the wealth of this word and its greatness. They take it on man's account, but if these who speak this way knew you, those who are the gates of My word, they would understand that I and not the man speak this word, for whom of those who believe this way, as one believes in God, would dare to take My place? Only the evil spirit did and does this, but whatever he does it has always died away; it disappears and it has no power to give life of My life even if he would take or put on the work into My name.

Write the name of the Holy Citadel New Jerusalem everywhere where you send My word in your days, for I speak a word of faith to everyone, and I tell them this: it is not the man who speaks, but I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, Who was dead and resurrected, and I am alive forever and ever. It is not by the scribes, not by the learned man that I work on earth to set into My book of today the word of My mouth, but I work as two thousand years ago, by those who are not taken into consideration. I have established stewards upon My work as I did two thousand years ago, when I had disciples separated from the world and taken care of by those what I established on earth, and I cannot help reminding all the scribes and the teachers of the church from the world that My mouth has been speaking on the earth for fifty years, and it is the voice of My mouth, and not for five, or for ten, or for twenty years. It is the voice of My mouth and I will celebrate with it soon, soon, the feast of its Pentecost. Amen. I, the One Who was resurrected from the dead two thousand years ago, speak, and those who keep watch at the gates receive the voice of My mouth and put it down into the book as I command them to do this, and these people do not hear Me only with their ears, but they also work both with their heart and with My word. Amen.

I have prophesied by the work of this word that because of their unbelief and pride and unrepentance, and because they have not been sharing My word coming out of My mouth and which I give to the church from the world and to its servants, that these will burn together with their dwellings into the fire, sent from heaven, because they have been cold and have minded only their own business and have disregarded the fulfillment of My word. Oh, they build in vain in order to gather the people in their dwellings, for those who are their crowd are not My flock, as also Israel did not want to be, and whoever among the Jews believed in My name, were put out of the synagogues.

Oh, you who are set among you as the rulers of the church in the world, you should know that you do this with the voice of My mouth of today just as the Jews did, who paid the people to say that My disciples stole Me from the tomb while the watch was still sleeping, although they sealed the tomb. However, I was resurrected leaving My shroud as a testimony in the tomb where I had stayed for three days, and then I went to My disciples and appeared to them, because they were locked for fear of the Jews, and they had no way of stealing Me. I left the seals untouched and I came out as the King of the glory, Who passes without stopping through any gates and does not damage its seals, as the one who gave Me birth in the flesh on earth, has remained forever a virgin.

This voice is a voice from heaven, and it is not the man's thought, it is not the man's teaching and knowledge, but it is I, the Lord of glory, the Lord of resurrection and of the live of the age that is to come, and the man cannot speak into My name, but he can be fulfilled within Me by the law of the grace and of the truth by which it confesses Me on earth among the people, as My disciples of two thousand years confessed Me from margins to margins, for the faith of many people. Amen.

Oh, children from the gates, hear how I speak to My New Jerusalem and to everyone who hear My speaking with it: Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Christ is risen! Be teachers on My behalf over those who became children and partakers of My Body and Blood, who is the share of the saints, the food of the saints, and also be teachers from Me upon the scholars of the world, for they do not know the way, the truth and the life. You are My little ones, and you have the wisdom from above because you have received grace after grace and truth, because you have loved Me, and I built the New Jerusalem on your faith, and I will spread with it all those that are My elected. Learn and always exhort My New Jerusalem, the one chosen from the Romanians, so that there may not be allowed any violations on My establishments upon it and that the way of My help over Jerusalem and My coming down to it may not become heavier. Amen.

Oh, My people, it is only I who was resurrected from the grave, because I was the true God, the One coming out from the Father of the heavens before all eternity. No man could ever come to life by himself, but I, the Lord of the glory, came to life by Myself after I had stayed for three days in the grave as a result of My death on the cross when I gave My spirit into the hand of the Father, and after He gave it back to Me, and I came to life with it. God came to life by Himself after He gave His spirit into the hand of the Father on the cross. Amen, amen, amen.

My people, you shall sing the songs of resurrection of the Lord of the glory. Let it be heard in this little village of My word the songs of the resurrection of the Lord of glory. Let all the devilish songs be put out, which the world enjoys for the feast of the resurrection of the Lord of glory. Amen.

New Jerusalem, Christ is risen, the Lord, your God tells you, that is Jesus Christ, the One Who had been dead for three days in the tomb and came to life by Himself and is alive forever and ever. Amen. Blessed be the table and the Christian food, which you put on the table as food, and blessed it be the spirit and the truth by which you stand before Me to receive Me with the voice of My mouth upon you and over the earth.

Christ is risen, people of My coming! Amen, amen, amen.

29-03/11-04-2004