

The Word of God at the feast of the Lord's Meeting

In a day of holy feast with you, My people, I bow to the man on the earth and I become word upon him to remind him of the heaven and to tell him no longer to stay as on earth, but to stay as in heaven on earth, as I stay, for I said: «The heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool», (Is. 66:1; Acts 7:49), as the earth is the man's footstool as well, the man asking from Me for My will to be on earth as in heaven, and behold, the man forgets about the heaven on earth with him, and I, the Lord, advise him to come to wisdom and to stay on earth as in heaven and the man to love My will against his will. Amen.

Oh, people of My word, I want to see in you a spirit of meeting for My descent as word into your midst. Humble yourself My people, for humility means love. Bow, son, for behold, I also bow and embrace you in the word, and this is how you should also do, for we are members to each other, My people. Oh, you have to be very wise. You have to understand what My dwelling with you is and what your dwelling with Me is, for in heaven there is only blessing and its glory between Me and My saints, between them and Me, and you have to live on earth as in heaven, My people. Bow son to the work of this blessing, and always bow, for I have set you brother with brother from place to place for the work of the blessing, for it is written: «See how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together in unity! The Lord has commanded the blessing and the life in eternity there where the brothers live together in unity, and this is like the oil of the holy anointment and like the dew on the hills of Zion!». (See Ps. 133) Amen.

Oh, My people, I want you to stay brother with brother in My Spirit and in His work, always, always confessing, and I, the Lord, to be able to leave upon you the dew of My blessing, always, always, My people. Those who have My blessing upon them, My care for them, they have their duty to bless Me on earth, as those in heaven bless Me. The brothers do not gather together in My name but only for their blessing with Me and from Me upon them, be-ing members to each other to the glory of My people on earth that has in its midst the salvation from God.

Oh, My people, My love in your midst gives voice to itself when brothers share Me to each other as the fruit of My blessing. There is nothing without reward on earth and in heaven, and if I, the Lord, take care of you with My blessing, you have to be like the anointing oil which flows for blessing, like the morning dew on the hills of Zion, for this is the work and the glory of those who dwell together in My name, My people. Behold what a great Mystery! With every passing day you should love this blessing more and more. And you should understand, with every passing day more and more, loving My dwelling with you and your dwelling with Me, for where I am is only blessing and its glory between the saints and Me, between Me and the saints, My people.

Oh, it is a day of meeting, Jerusalem, and I teach you how to wait for Me and how to receive Me and how to live Me, for when I was brought to the temple after forty days from My birth, the old Simeon welcomed Me and called Me the salvation and the light of the nations, and he also called Me the glory of My people. Like the dew on the eternal mountains you should be to Me and this is how you have to become for your Lord, and then you should love this happiness to be My people, for you are My people and I have My word in you, and you should also bless it between brother and brother likewise, and always, always you should also become its work and bless My coming to you, if you are brothers to each other, for there is no more beautiful place than there where the brothers become blessing for blessing, love for love, and grace from grace for My meeting, to the glory of the Lord on earth as in heaven, My people of today.

Oh, with whom have I been speaking so much, so sweetly and in such a fatherly way as with you, Jerusalem of today? This is how you are supposed to work among brothers, My people, and this is how you are to make Me a dwelling place and glory and rest in you, for I do no longer have comfort on earth but into your midst, My people, and My will with you becomes My heaven on earth, and I come to My table, and I come with the saints and I testify about you that you are Mine, and My work with you testifies about Me as the God, your salvation, My people. Amen.

Oh, man without My will with your life on the earth! The Lord calls you! Oh, do no longer stay only as on earth, but rather stay in My will on earth before Me, for I said: «The heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool», as the earth is for the man, and behold, you forget about the heaven on the earth and you do your will against My will and you have no teacher to teach you My will. Oh, drink of this spring, man! Wash your eyes and wash your body in the water of My spring and then become My will on the earth, man without any way! Behold, I am the way, and I come into your way with it and I teach you from it; become My will, man without God. I taught My disciples to confess Me as their God that My wills may reign on earth as in heaven, and that I may bless them with bread and protection when they love each other loving themselves within My wills and being saved by them.

Oh, sons of the people, learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in My heart, and I really am. Be like God either, gentle and humble in your heart. Be like God too, oh, people, and then you will be. Behold, My word clothes you in it. Listen to its calling and to its fondness and run to it, and flee from emptiness, from its deceiving wind, for it is a wind from which no one picks up anything and which does not go anywhere. Come to life! I have come as word on earth to exhort you to it and that you may be clothed within it and in its life from Me, to become My saints and to get away from the face of the darkness of this perishable age. Come! I am after you with My spring and I meet you with it. Meet it too, for I said: «He who believes in Me, rivers of living waters will flow from his mouth». Become a spring of My god-ly word that has come to you on earth, but you should believe that I am this word, and pray for the gift of the faith from above, for by faith you will receive and will be My righteous ones, and you will be. Amen.

Oh, My people, I have opened My voice over the sons of people to take from it and to comfort it and then they may desire My wills on the earth. I, the Lord, am with the mercy after the man. I want to help the man to come from the darkness into the light, for this age passes away, but I want the man to come to Me and then to put an end to this age, which keeps the creature closed in it, and then to set the man in My kingdom on clean and holy land. Amen.

Oh, My people, oh, My people, I have taught you beautifully the mystery of the blessing, My long dwelling among those who live together with the brothers into My name. Let your work be My joy from you. Let your love between brother and brother be My comfort. Let your life be God, My people, and this is how My rest has its dwelling in you, and this is on earth as in heaven the work of My disciples, the work of My grace among brothers, My people. Amen, amen, amen.

Eight days ago, those who have gone to sleep from the beginning of the world and to this day, came before Me by calling and by prayer, and they will remain before My mercy until the feast of My resurrection, for until then it is order for their souls, and this is how I clothe in the robe of the resurrection those who wait with it and with My coming, and this is how I work resurrection from your midst, My people, and you should have progress more and more within the mystery of the renewal of the world, for this Scripture waits after you, and all and everything wait for you, My people from the end of the time. Amen, amen, amen.
