

The Word of God at the feast of the Holy Cross Ascension

Oh, peace to you, people of the spring of My word in these days over the earth, for My spring flows upon you and is divided to the sides for the life of the people on earth, and then in heaven for them. I am the Lord Jesus Christ and I have become spring upon you, sons. I fulfill into your midst the prophecy of the Scriptures of new heaven, of new earth and of new Jerusalem, and all by the river of life, which flows from Me and becomes word over you for you to give it from Me then to the sons of men who do not want to leave this passing age and come out of it and then to come to Me to give them what I have good for man, for there is nothing, nothing good on earth for man, and man perishes through joys, through deceptions and he gives to himself only with his left hand. My spring of word upon you is My mourning after man, and My tear washes, sons, it washes the man in his mind and then in his heart, if he bows to drink of it and to know the work of the longing after God, the work of the love from above in man. Oh, you have always been tired for Me, for behold, I have told you to get ready beautifully for My glory with you, to start traveling and to stand before man for My work with you upon people, sons.

Oh, you are exhausted, for I have stood now with you in the midst of a great multitude of people, and now we are celebrating the feast with which we have come to you today, the feast of the cross, sons. On the eve of this feast I have taken you and done a holy thing with you after I told you that I would go with you before the priests and bishops of today and before the whole crowd gathered for the memorial of those of old, who ruled or blessed or rebuked this country, the Romanian people, who has had waivodes and holy helmsmen, confirming the history of this nation blessed by Me, the Romanian nation, the nation chosen by the Father for Me now, in the end of the time. I bow to you with thanks because you have listened to the voice of My trumpet sounding upon you and fulfilled with thankfulness My entire walking with you for a moment in the midst of the people. I have shown you, My beautiful ones, My people of today into the midst of the Romanian people, and on which I rely for this whole nation and for every man on earth who bows to take and to know the truth coming down from heaven, and not to know from the earth. I have appeared with you within My glory among people, an example of the kingdom of the heavens on earth, My kingdom with man as in heaven and not as on earth, sons. Oh, My heavenly glory has clothed you within its mystery and it has spread sweet smelling aroma to many, sons. By the sign of the cross, with candles and flowers in your little hands, I have set you to stay now for a moment in the midst of the multitude of people gathered around the feast for My bishop Nifon, who long ago reprimanded for disorder in this country, and then, in the days that followed, when I, the Lord, came out with you in the gates of the city Târgoviște after seventy weeks of years, after four hundred ninety years from the release of binding over the church, spoken then by My righteous bishop Nifon, and by My word and by the word of My bishop Nifon I loosened the knot to turn back My blessing for the renewal of this land and of this people, the Romanian people, out of which I have chosen now a people for My glory of new Jerusalem on earth, for the renewal of the world as it is written. Oh, how beautiful you were among the sons of this nation gathered at the feast on the past day, and today we are celebrating the cross, the sign of victory, sons, and we are speaking on the earth a testifying word, word from heaven on earth!

Oh, people from the spring, you are a great people and you do not know this, but I have you at My spring of word and I release My great word upon you in abundance for all those who take from Me by it, son. Oh, let those, who stand face to face to you and from time to time, not be afraid, for through you I bless those who are faithful to My coming of today and I give them power to become sons of God by the life of the sons in My image and after My likeness among the sons of men. You are My sign for those on the earth and for those in heaven, the sign before My coming, the sign of the Son of Man, and I carry you with the cross into your little hand when I carry you as My sign over the earth. Oh, if only the priests and the bishops of this nation would take from Me through you, to give to the crowd of people My work of yesterday and that of today, as you give for the salvation of many from sin! I have suffered in you from those gathered at the feast, for the people are like sheep without a shepherd and all live after the lusts of the flesh and do not follow My teaching from the Scriptures and from the saints. You are the sign of My judgment upon those who do not fulfill living a Christian life on earth. The wives of the priests and their sons and daughters walk with their head uncovered before Me in churches as well and they are halfnaked and even on the feasts they do not have a proper garment. All have forgotten about the garment of the forefathers and about that of the waivodes and of the ladies of old of the Romanian people. It makes Me suffer; the wound burns within Me and this haughty and severe sin of today makes My eyes suffer as well. Oh, man does not want to be beautiful before Me and before the fore-fathers, and he wants to be beautiful before the world, and the world is ugly; it and its sons are uglier than in all the ages now, and sin is the dough both inside and outside the man, and man is a foreigner to My will and he does no longer have clean pasture and shepherds to guide him for his life from Me. I have shown you as an example of love of God and of man's conduct and beauty before Me. The crowds of people have looked at you as to the Lord's adornment, sons. By My dwelling for a moment with you in their midst, I have shown My mercy and love for their life from above. Oh, let the priests and the bishops not be afraid of you, but rather let them bless you, for you are My good ones, and you are My beautiful ones among the sons of men, when I come with you to My joy and the joy of many who know to see and to understand. I, the Lord, have exhorted you to sound the trumpet and to give the news with your going to the feast and those that are upon the church to bless you, and then I have told you to dress within garment of praise and to go with Me and give joy and beauty to those who know to see and understand and then to put their hope in Me and in My work of salvation, which I make it come down through you in these days over many, sons. Now, I am telling you that many have looked at you with great love, with great hope. Many of the bishops and priests within the mystery of their heart love you and believe that you are Mine and working from Me over the earth, for you preach My word with you to everyone, but their fear for their earthly glory makes them hide in themselves with My mystery upon you. Oh, again, let the priests and the bishops not be afraid of you, but let them rather bless you and want you to be My blessing over the earth, as you already are, for this nation is standing now before Me through you, those who pray to Me at My word upon it. Within a great mystery, I have done great works with you over this nation, and it does not know that, for its eyes are kept from seeing. However, I open the eyes of many every day more and more, and I want them better see from Me through you, for I have on earth the work of the spirit of My testimony, the fulfillment of the Scriptures of new heaven, of new earth and of new Jerusalem, worked in times by the prophets and by the saints, and which have appeared now in the end.

Oh, let the servants of the church, let the Romanian people and all those who lead it, let them all look at you and take an example of the love of God in people, an example of faith and of holy conduct before Me and an example of holy power as well, for those who do away with sin are the greatest on earth and they are the first among many. Amen.

Oh, let the rulers of the church not be afraid, for you are hard working and good, you are beautiful and clean, because I, the Lord, have shepherded you from heaven with a fresh word more than I shepherded My disciples two thousand years ago. Oh, let the servants of the church not stumble against My work with you, as though My word of today, with which I am shepherding you and them even against their will, were not My Gospel, but let them read clearly in the Scriptures, which speak about Me that I will come in the end of the time and that I will work mysteriously and that I will shepherd the nations with an iron rod, with My word of the Shepherd of the shepherds and of the sheep and that My name is wonderful in the end of the time and that it is called the Word of God. (Apoc: 19/13.) Oh, let the man not wait for Me with My kingdom on the earth as he things that it will come, for when My kingdom is, it is in man and it is beautiful and shines where it makes its holy dwelling place, for it is written in My word of two thousand years ago and it says that: «He who believes in Me, I will come to him and I will become a dwelling place with him and I will dine with him and appear to him», and this is a true word. Amen.

Oh, let the rulers of the church not be afraid of you, let them not hate you, let them not envy you, let them not slander you, let anyone of them not blaspheme you, but let them rather believe that you sprang from Me and from My word from above and you were born and are, and I scatter only joys through you over the earth and I give only the word of making to everyone, and I do not give word of punishment, but I give the man power to believe and love and I give him from what is Mine. My sweet voice of Shepherd raises from death and wakes the man up from his sufferance for I am the good and gentle Shepherd and I lie down My soul for the sheep and I am He Who brings them together in a holy fold, and I do not scatter them, but rather I strengthen their steps and clothe them within My last glory, which I have from the foundation of the world and I have it from the Father for the end of the time. I love through you those who love you for My name and I give them holy and praised grace to those who love you blessing you when I appear with you from time to time to stay through you face to face with those who do not know what and how My kingdom in man is, the kingdom without end, as I am.

Oh, let no one stumble against you among those who are with you and among those who come to take the Lord from you, for as one still finds good fruit among those in the worldly church, likewise there is among you some bad fruit either to test those who deserve nothing but stumbling and then separation from Me by their works not known by many. Oh, in order that the one who came and come to be with Me and with you to separate from you and from My work with you, that one cannot do it better than hating you, those who are loved by Me, and stumbling against you, who so hard bring Me from heaven to earth, children sons bearing of God among people during these days. Oh, how hard this sin presses upon those who come to hate you and stumble against you, as many in My time stumbled against Me, who did not want to be with the light but rather wanted to be with their hidden works and with them far away from My will in man. However, you are My very dear treasure and I come out with you from time to time into the midst of the people, and you will be the comfort for many in the time of the great tribulation, which is to come upon the sons of men and many will come to you then and will receive comfort from Me through you in their great sufferance, for it will really be great.

Moreover, behold what I am saying in a day of the feast of the cross: You, those who believe through those who are faithful to Me and to My word of today, you will be happy, soon, soon, when My glory will appear to many by this word! And to those who stumble against Me and against those who are faithful to Me I am telling this: Oh, you would have been happy if you had not stumbled against Me, the One Who lives in those who carry Me to the man! Oh, it would be better for you to stumble against yourselves and then to open wide your eyes and look well face to face with yourselves and wonder of your conduct to your repentance and salvation, and not to stumble against those who can hardly carry Me to be on earth with the people.

Oh, children bearing of God, if you got out of My little boat with sons, those who oppress you because their dissatisfactions might not suffer. Oh, do not keep evil in mind! Stop your ears against those who oppress you and do your work with Me. Bring the spirit of prophecy on earth and this is how you are to work upon My people and this is how you are to raise a people for Me, now, in the end, as the prophecy from Me is not that which speaks well and to the satisfaction of self-loving man, but it is that which shows when the evil comes upon man and which shows the evil in man for his release from evil. However, you should not do as those who serve in My name upon people do; oh, you should not make disciples for you but make them for Me instead, children sons. Oh, do not keep in mind evil and everything will be forgiven to you all, for in this way you will always pass from death to life, loving the spirit of the holy brotherhood among you, the Spirit of God within many brothers. You are tired from pains, but in this state, without any powers left as you are, stay at the helm of My boat with sons in it and do not lose temper because of those who wonder why you always work new and new buildings. Oh, Noah's ark was used only once, even if it was built in so many years, sons! I work with you those that are useful and I see and work in this way, as I worked at Noah's ark for the salvation of the faithful man, for My work with man on the earth. Oh, do not grumble. Let them, the grumblers, do it, and you be obedient to Me sons and build for Me for the glory which is coming, for great will be the glory of those who are faithful on earth, for My glory will be with them. Amen.

I have glorified Myself now in you before the people, oh, sons of My word of today, and I will glorify Myself in them before you by My work with you, for many will raise up from their sins and they will renew their life and will take from the river of My word from you and will wash in it, and they will see with their own eyes the salvation from Me, and happy are and will be those who believe My word of today through those who are faithful to Me, the word of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, in Whose name they, who believe through those who are faithful to Him, worship God. Amen. This name, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, is the name in which those who believe are baptized, and this is how the name and the sign of the holy cross has been put on the earth the name and the sign of the holy cross on the body of the faithful ones, who dedicate their body by this name, with their right hand, with its three fingers, on the forehead, on the chest, on the right and then on the left shoulder, marking themselves with My death and resurrection by the cross. Amen.

Peace to you, sons from the spring! I have walked with you and glorified Myself in you before the people, for you have been My beautiful ones, and warmed the hearts of many of those who have looked at you from the crowd. Also, peace to those who have looked at you and loved you because you are Mine, and I will give them comfort, they have not known about by this time, for the comfort that comes from heaven upon man by those who are Mine on earth with My will in them, this is the mystery, which I want to put in man from now on through you, for man is in sufferance, sons, and he needs much comfort, My comfort. Amen.

Also, peace to the priests and bishops of the church who have looked at you with clean eyes, with sweet and clean heart, for if the eye is clean, then the whole body is clean and his entire love as well! Oh, let them not be ashamed of you before the people near them, let them not be ashamed of the comfort which I have given them through you by giving them My peace and My salvation by My way with you from the Father to man, but let them rather humble in their heart, and let them be humble and gentle in their heart, for this is how I am. Amen.

I am Who I am and I have stayed with you into the midst of the people, and My name upon you is called the Word of God, the name of Jesus Christ in the end of the time. Amen, amen, amen.

14/27-09-2009