

The Word of God at the feast of the Saint martyrs Catherine and Mercurius

In a day of feast of the saints I become word over the Romanian people, for I am its Shepherd and I shepherd it.

I am the Lord Jesus Christ and My Father Sabaoth has submitted everything to Me and has given Me all the power in heaven and on earth, and behold, I am saying now, in the end of the time, coming in the midst of the heaven as an eternal Gospel for those who live on earth and to every nation, tribe, language and people, and I am calling out in a loud voice: «Fear God and praise and worship Him for the time has come to judge the living and the dead!» as it is written. Amen.

I am coming down into your midst as word, My people of Romanians, for I have picked you up and made you a faithful people to work by your faith the Scriptures of My coming with the harvest, as the time has come for the harvest. I am coming down to you with the saints, son, to strengthen you in your watch and faith and in great holiness of spirit, soul and body, for we have to keep God's commandments and we have to keep My testimony within great work, because it is the time to stand victorious within the fight against satan, «the old serpent, which got up and wants to stand up with power to deceive those on earth by his signs», as it is written, and whoever has understanding from above considers it well and reveals the work of the beast, on which satan has power.

I am with the saints into your midst, My people from My spring of word, and I have My martyr Catherine on the feast with the saints, and with her is the martyr Mercurius, both workers with Me in the time of My today's work on earth. The martyr Catherine overflows with her spirit the wisdom, which I, the Lord, gave her before the wise people on earth to bring them to Me by their faith helped by her to be in them, and My martyr works into the midst of My people and the disciple Mercurius stays with My saints and with Me in a great work for the over-flowing of the cups for the cleansing of the iniquity on earth and for the fight with the enemies of the work of My coming to you, son, My people, and this is how I have worked with armies of saints near you and I give you wisdom to know to take into consideration My time with you, the fulfilling of the Scriptures, for behold, we are in a fight and we overcome by the wisdom from above, by My grace and by the obedience to My advice, because satan's anxiety is great now, when he sees that his hard labor for seven thousand years to destroy the man has been lost. I am the little Lamb of the Father and I am victorious now, in the end of the time, with My work of word over the earth, and satan is afraid of My victory, but we have always, always needed great watch, My people.

We are staying in a great work of word on this day with the Romanian people, which has had now to overcome by war the great and hidden work of the red beast, (The Communists and their successors, r.n.), who have been struggling in secret to take over again the control over the Romanian people. Oh, no, because I have been watching with all the heaven of saints and angels, spread everywhere the lots have been cast for the helmsman of My ship, the Romanian country, My country from the end of the time, and I have overcome, but I had to set you to great watch, to great sacrifice of prayer and holy faith and to days of fast for the victory against demons, as it seems taken out from the Scriptures the page on «the beast which has made the war on the Lamb of God, Who has fought against the great red dragon, having seven heads and tens horns and with its tail to draw the stars of the sky and to throw them on the earth, but he did not prevail, neither was a place found for him any more in heaven», (See also Rev: 12/3-8), because I was victorious, I and you, My people victorious by My blood and by the word of My testimony, as those who wanted to overcome now again upon My Romanian people, all have gathered with one mind, (All the parties united in a coalition against the president Traian Băsescu at the presidential elections on 12/06/2009, r.n.), as it is written in the Scriptures, and they gave the power and control to the red beast, (To the president of S.D.P. - Social Democratic Party, Mircea Geoană, r.n.), all to make war against My holy plan with the Romanian people and against the one I wanted to be helmsman for it through the waves, (Traian Băsescu, reelected for a new mandate, r.n.); however, I, the Lamb of the Father, have overcome by My people working together with Me, called, chosen and faithful, to work with him the victory for the Romanian people, My today's people. Amen.

Oh, Romanian people, oh My Romanian people, get rest now from the hardships we have gone through, I with My heaven of saints and angels, and My people in your midst, set to great watch for your destiny, and you, Romanian people. Let us go to rest now, for the day of the lots has passed for the helmsman in front of you, and I, the Lord, am sitting now at the table of word, for this is what I have promised you. Oh, sit down with faith at the table with Me, for I give you the spirit and the power to believe and to see, for you have seen now how wonderfully I have worked to save you, after I have called out to you for a very long time to stay awake for your future and not to fall asleep, for the red dragon have lain in ambush for a long, very long time, to take over My Romanian people into bondage and crushing. I, I am the One Who has been working wonderfully, and I told to the helmsman upon you to let Me work skillfully on his behalf, for the rebellion against him was great, and the lie was ready to work. I, I am the One Who put into their hearts to work according to My advice, as it is written in the Scriptures, «and to come together in one mind and all, all to give their power to the red beast, until all the words of God will be fulfilled», and behold the fulfilled Scriptures, the work which is written on the Scriptures about: the dragon with seven heads, (Seven presidents of parties, from the coalition against the president, coalition led by the Social Democrat Party – the successor of the communists, r.n.) overcome now by the Lamb of God and by those who are faithful to Him. Amen.

Oh, I have kept My people in great watch, in a woken spirit of prayer with their little hands raised during all the day of the lots, and when I saw how satan and his red offspring have dug underneath, I have immediately strengthened and urged the people of My word to intensify the prayer within a stronger spirit, within a more painful crying for the awakening of the Romanian people to get up and to give help to his victory, and it was so, and it was a wonderful miracle and this man could not work, but only I, the little victorious Lamb, and I did not let the Romanian people to be overcome again by the power of the red beast, that full of the spirit of the lie inside and outside of it and which was brought into the light with its hidden work, and it fell in its own trap because it did not prevail, and neither was found any place for it and for its offspring, as it is written, for the work of the heaven has been working during these days on the Romanian land and it has been making the kingdom of God into salvation and power on this land meant to be its land.

Oh, behold a page of the Scripture fulfilled on your hearth by My victory for you, Romanian people! The red dragon with seven heads and ten horns, all gathered in one mind and in all spirit, gave their power to the beast for one hour (The opinion polls announced at the end of the election days that the winner was the president of the left coalition – Mircea Geoană, r.n.), and they started to make war against My plan, of the Lamb of God, and against the Romanian people, shepherded now by the Lamb of the Father, but I, the victorious little Lamb, prevailed against him and his angels because I am the King of the kings and the Lord of the lords, and I have overcome together with those who were called, chosen and faithful, as it is written in the Scriptures.

Oh, sons of My people of Romanians, and you, Romanians from everywhere, faithful and clean in your heart! Play with the string instruments, play with the lutes and sing your praises to My holy name, the Word of God, (Apoc: 19/13.) and give praises to Him and say: „Oh, how wonderful are Your works, Lord, because for Your great power even Your enemies flatter You by their hypocrisy! Let all the nations of the earth worship You and let them all sing praising Your great name! Oh, come, come, hear and see God's works and see how wonderful He is in His works upon people! He rules the age with His great power and His eye searches over the nations, and let those who are rebellious not be proud, because the Lord has given us life and has not allowed our steps to shake. He has tested and cleansed us like silver and took us out to great joy, and we bring our hearts to Him like a burnt offering. Come, come and hear and listen, you who fear God, as behold how many things He has done to us! He has listened to us and given ear to the voice of our prayer, and may He be blessed because He has not forsaken our prayer, but He has showed us His mercy!". Amen.

And now, I am speaking to you, (Traian Băsescu, r.n.), to you who sit and sit down again at the helm of My ship of today, the Romanian people and My people on it. Oh, I have not left you alone although you felt alone and many were against you. I have stood on your side with all the heavenly armies as in the time of the prophet Elisha, when I stood with the entire heavenly army on his side on the day when the great enemy army came to overcome him because he was My servant, and he stood on the side of justice. The red dragon and all of his offspring have now fulfilled one page of the Scripture and gathered together with one mind to prevail against you, as his spirit is the spirit of lying. This page of history is written in the Scriptures, it is prophesied to be and here it is, but for this one needs mind with wisdom. The beast with seven heads and ten horns, gathered with one mind, kings by their power, they gave for an hour their power and authority to the beast in order to prevail against you, to remove you from the helm and to bring the Romanian nation into bondage again. (On the day of the elections, the polls taken at the ballot boxes put forward Mircea Geoană as winner by 52% r.n.) However, I did not allow the evil power to prevail in the end, and I arose to the end of the election days, I woke up the Romanian people and I brought the miracle for which I have been waging a great war with the entire heavenly army, because I told you that the rebellion was great and that you would have Me to work for you, as you were alone against those who were many, assembled with one thought against you.

Oh, I was filled with tears and heartbreaking pain when I saw them all celebrating and embracing each other like the conquerors, lying to those who were looking at them and calling out their victory against the Romanian people. Then I aroused with the people set to watch on that day, I urged them for a more burning spirit of prayer and calling, and then I woke up the spirit of the Romanian people and woke it up to draw the lots for you, and the scales drew upwards for you and then I brought the miracle and this was how I prevailed in a wonderful manner and gave you victory, because it was not possible to work otherwise against the great rebellion and against the pride that was aroused against you. Then I made them all blind and they thought that they won and sang and played from evening to morning everywhere on the hearth of this nation and they sent gifts and hugs to each other, (In the evening, after the closing of the elections, Mircea Geoană and the parties who supported him declared themselves winners, celebrating their victory, r.n.) but their wedding changed into funeral early in the next morning when I prevailed against them for you. (On the next morning, the Electoral Bureau, after the counting of the votes declared Traian Băsescu winner by 50, 33%, r.n.). Oh, this is how I overcame with you, those clean in your heart, on that day of great trial for the destiny of the Romanian people. I told you to have hope and you listened to Me, and by your hope I took you out victoriously. Now be brave and may a clean heart keep on beating in you. Take care of My country of today, keep it away as much as you can from the whole debauchery on the earth, from lie, from the violation of the commandments of life, and seek after My commandments so that your heart may get used more perfectly with them, to honor Me, son, for I, the Lord, gave you salvation and I have protected you as a faithful son of this elected nation, into whose midst I have been dwelling for more than fifty years with a table of word, work with history into the midst of the Romanian people, work persecuted by the red beast in all manners, and if you want to look into the pages of the time, you will find the persecution against My people and against the vessels bearing of God, with whom I did and do the work of the coming of My word on this holy land, the Romanian land.

I gave you the book of this work when I gave it to the Romanian people; I put it into your arms. Open it and see My history with the people of My word into the midst of the Romanian people. It is the time to have victory with hope, and I have chosen into the midst of the Romanian nation a chosen people for the fulfilling of the Scriptures of My coming of word on the earth now on the hearth of the Romanian people, the country of brightness, because of the river of My word, which flows from Me into the midst of this nation. I am bowing before the Father Sabaoth for the victory now and I hear Him telling Me to shepherd you, to give you My word of Shepherd and to rejoice you with My protection, for your work is hard and you need heavenly support. I will always, always keep the people of My word praying before Me for the future of the Romanian people whenever I see it under a heavy cross, and I will save it. However, I am deeply sorrow now from those who have come together with one mind with My adversary, with satan; with those who are hypocrites flattering Me by their hypocrisy, as it is written about the hypocrites for their high ranks over people. Take care to be gentle and humble in your heart, full of watching and holy love for this chosen nation, and forgive those who surrounded you by their rebellion, «for the revenge is Mine and I will reward», as it is written. Amen.

I give you in great secret the victorious and helping saints, and with them you have to steer My sheep. Get used, you with your entire house, to thank God in all your days and to give Him great honor, because the Romanian nation has the true God upon it, the One Who sits in its midst and holds counsel with it and then fulfills His word. In your whole work of helmsman for this nation before the nation of the earth, do not forget, do not forget to do everything possible to strengthen the faith of the Romanian people and to give God His due honor, because I suffer from a great wound, like its forefathers, because of the disorder for those of old left from forefathers and saints, the fast and the prayer and the spirit of holy church and not only denounced to be a church. Oh, nothing is good without God on earth and upon man and the Romanian people has to be Christian by its fulfillment as its forefathers were, and even more, for the time is with judgment in it against the evil works of the people. The week has two or three days of fast, (Monday, Wednesday and Friday, r.n.) and I am very much aggrieved because of the disorder in which the Romanian people stays together with its shepherds upon it in My name. Oh, this holy fulfillment has to be strengthened, for I, the Lord, have to bring this nation to a great heavenly glory on earth among people and I want to appear with it as a Mount of Tabor for the nations to come and take My word full of resurrection from this holy mountain, the Romanian land. Oh the work of My word and the mysteries it carries are great on the hearth of the Romanian people! Be faithful and not unfaithful, for those who are unfaithful to My work of today, written in the Scriptures to be, behold, these take the same payment as those who are unfaithful, and they will take it, for I come near with the reward of justice according to everyone's work, because I have suffered a great deal from the rebellion of those who of the Romanians have joined now with satan's spirit to put you away from the helm of My ship. Oh, no! I am the mysterious One and I work wonderfully, and I have worked as I promised you that I would work against the opposition who arose to tear you down.

I am embracing you now in My Spirit and I am giving you of My peace. I give you further blessing at the helm of My ship, Romanian country, as I gave you five years ago, when in the same way, I kept My people in the spirit of watching and with praying to Me for you to establish you as the helmsman on My behalf for the Romanian people. Then I told you to speak from time to time over the people and to let it know now the course of everything to keep it watching and to keep it in truth, both in good and bad things, and I am advising you the same thing now. From time to time, write epistles on to the people to know the good and the hardships you go through for it, and let it go with you through it too, prevailing against all the hardships which are and might come unexpectedly, and this is how you will be followed by the people and you will brave for it and for Me during this time of trial and waves, for the antichrist has become great everywhere and he wants to wipe out My name and My trace from the earth and from the man's spirit, and it works with hidden work even under the robe of a holy man. I will help you, but you should also listen to God, and this is how you are supposed to help Him, for I have helped you now.

Peace to you and good order for you before Me. Let no one, no one despise My election upon you, and you should appreciate with great humility and you should work with it from God upon this nation, chosen by Him now for His glory in it, because My word that flows from Me into the midst of this nation is My glory in it, and the people of My word is My faithful servant, with which I am very well pleased for the fulfilling of the Scriptures of My coming again from the Father to man as word on earth, the word of new birth of the world now, in the end of the time, as it is written. Oh, bow under this staff of shepherd, bow under My word that leads the Romanian people and of whose river of word many and much more will drink, for there will no longer be other comfort; there will no longer be any on earth. Amen, amen, amen.

Oh, Romanian nation, I have spoken now to the helmsman upon you, whom I have strengthened with My miracle and I have strengthened him again at My helm. Oh, always pray for his good victory and yours from Me, for the time is hard, and I want to be your help and protection, Romanian son. Oh, the name of Romanian is great! For more than fifty years, I, the Lord, have been bearing in heaven among saints and among angels the name of Romanian, for I have a table of word on the hearth of this land.

All the nations will bless you for My name on you and for the river of My word in you, oh, Romanian people, and there will come nations and languages and will take of My glory from you, as it is written about the mountain to which the nations will come to drink of My light. Bow to glorify the Lord, Who has His dwelling place into your midst by the spirit of testimony, by the spirit of prophecy, Romanian son, for the work of My word upon you is a heavenly crown on your forehead and the nations will worship you, because you are the country of My coming now, in the end of the time. Amen.

Oh, up the faith in the true God, up the confession of the faith, Romanian sons! Do not be ashamed of God, for He confirms you as His people on earth among nations! Be proud of your new name, of My name upon you, for the Romanian country has a new name: The New Jerusalem! The river of My word, the river of life waters it, and I have a new planting and a new harvest. Amen.

Peace to you now, Romanian people, for you have passed through days of trials! Let them be ashamed, those in your midst, who do not have faithfulness with a heavenly heart, with a clean heart like the helmsman, whom I have strengthened again now for you! Be faithful, My country of today! The Spirit and the face of faithfulness will prove that you are so! Oh, there are many traitors into your midst and they will be put to shame if they do not repent from their works. Amen.

I want that the Romanian people may have a clean heart, holy thought and much spirit of humility, by which it will receive the wisdom from above, for I, the Lord God, am the God of those who are humble and I give them of My grace. Amen, amen, amen.

I am coming back to You with My word, My people of Romanians. You are My servant on whom I rely and behold, it happened with the Romanian people as it happened into your midst for My work of word was threatened from the midst, but I have overcome and always overcome for My progress of word over the earth and for the whole fulfillment as the Scriptures require to be fulfilled. I have spoken now with all of the Romanians and I have given them My rest, for which I have struggled for the joy in the Romanian people now. I also thank you because you have listened to Me for a great sacrifice of love, of faith and of prayer with calling for the hard time through which the Romanian people went and for which I had to fight with power and to be victorious for it, and I was victorious. Amen. We are resting now from this victory and we remain to keep on watching with a woken spirit for the Romanian people and for My work with it and for it on earth, My people. Amen.

I have with Me in My descent on this day of feast the two great martyrs celebrated in the synod of saints: Catherine and Mercurius, great victors by their faith and by the word of their testimony over the unfaithful in their time. They are coming in with My word and are saying this:

– Great, oh You are great Lord, and Your works are marvelous, and there is no word to match Your glory when You want to be with it over the earth! We are working together with You over Your people of today and over the Romanian people and we are raising the humble, and we are standing against those who are proud, as You are working as well, and it will be seen and Your people and the Romanian nation will understand Your right judgment for those who are clean in their heart and for those who are not like that, for woe to those who put on the lie and make their garments out of it, for their nakedness will be uncovered, and Your saints will fulfill this! Amen.

– Oh, here we are, I and My confessing saints on earth with the people, for My testimony is the spirit of prophecy. I, the Lord, come on earth as word, I come with the saints, and My testimony is the spirit of prophecy. Amen.

I embrace the Romanians in the glory of My word and I become their Shepherd, for they are like sheep without a shepherd, because the shepherds who sit upon them in My name, they only shepherd each other, as it is written in the Scriptures, and do not have mercy for the sheep; they do not have mercy of the living life of the Romanian nation. I shepherd you, oh, people loved by God! I do not let you, but I embrace you within the spirit of My word, I shepherd you and I wake you up to pasture and I give you of the spiritual milk to be on earth and not to perish, but to be as I am.

I am Who I am. This is how you have to be as well and to be, oh, Romanian people! You should be the top mountain on Tabor and you should be for the nations on the earth, for they will come to take of My glory, of My teaching, to their comfort! I am Shepherd into your midst and I shepherd you with the spirit of the comfort and this is how I carry you, and let us carry each other, for My day is coming and you are its preacher by My Spirit in you, the Spirit of comfort, My people. Amen, amen, amen.
