

The Word of God on the Sunday of the fearful judgment

I am the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth. I am up in heaven and below on earth at the same time and I am the One known by those who love Me and want Me in good and bad times, in joy and in sorrow, and I have never been known on earth by those who have not wanted Me with them.

I am the Alpha and the Omega, and I am speaking this now, in the end, to tell the unbelievers that as I was in the beginning, I am the same now in the end, and no one else is known by this name: the Alpha and the Omega, no one but I. Amen.

I am God the Word and the unbeliever does not want Me to be God the Word now, in the end, and this one has stopped My way; he has set up a boundary for Me and told everyone that I spoke everything two thousand years ago and that I have been no longer after that, and if he said that I was, then he would not know to say how I am. Those who rule upon the church of the world say that I am nowhere where I am supposed to be with the faithful ones, who want Me to be with them, but if I am not with them, then what am I, where I am and where I live in order to be and to work on earth? Oh, I have to be somewhere with the man because I said that I would be with My disciples to the end of the time.

Oh, I am with the faithful ones, I am with those who love and want Me and give Me table and housing with them, for I said: «I will come to the one who believes in Me, I will dwell with him and I will dine with him», but those who sit highly over the church of the world want to make the people forget that I said so, and they try to draw the people to them, only to them, as though I am with them and at theirs. Oh, I would like to be with them, but they do not believe that I can be with man as I said that I would be with those who believe in Me, following My steps with their life. I am the Lord God of those who wait for Me to come to them and to be with them and I am not of those that do not want Me with them, and that is why they are alone, they are without God on earth, and in the same they do their work as well, even when they hide under My name, as do those who sit highly over their church, as this authority has come on earth from the forefathers.

I am writing Myself into My book of today with the glory of My word upon you, people, and faithful to My coming on earth now, in the end of the time. Those in the graves hear Me when I speak My word into your midst, because it is written in My Scriptures two thousand years ago that I would speak in the end of the time and those in the graves would hear Me. Those on earth hear My word spoken upon you, because I have made you the sharer of My word upon people, but people do what those two of thousand years ago did, who almost all said that I, the One Who came from the Father to them by My birth of the virgin, was not the Christ, as it was prophesied for Me to come. Oh, the unbelievers love fire and they do not love My coming. I come to them hungry and thirsty after them, naked and a stranger to them, suffering from them and put in chains by them by their unbelief, and they love the fire, for it is written in My word that these will go into the eternal fire because they have not known Me and have not visited Me on earth.

I am speaking now to the servants of the church of the Romanian people. I am coming from heaven to earth on this day and I am speaking to you, those who are not faithful to the power of God, for I have this power to speak to you. Oh, only the sin in you entices you not to submit to the truth that I am this word, which speaks with you by the spirit of prophesy, as God has spoken through all the ages. You have become slow in understanding or you do not want to understand, you who are stiff-necked, that My testimony is the spirit of prophecy. You have read the Scripture to know what is written in it and the knowledge has made you proud, and because of your pride, you do not bow to know God on the earth with the people. Oh, whoever does not know God on earth, does not know Him in heaven either. Nothing is true on earth but God alone, and you do not know Him. Then why do you still become proud with those that you say you know from the Scriptures? Behold, you pose as truer than God upon people, since you break My walking among them with the spirit of prophecy and by which God is with the people on earth. Well, how are you not supposed to do this if you have someone to cheat on? How are you not supposed to stay close to your great seats upon people, to whom you say that God is with you! Well, if I am with you, then show Me! However, you show yourselves in a holy robe, but the one who is holy is he who takes after Me, not after you on earth.

I am speaking to you out of My great pain from you on this day when you are reminding in the churches the word of My Gospel for the day of the fearful judgment. Oh, many times I have spoken upon you by the thread of My word of today, which flows like a river of My mouth, above those who are faithful to Me and to My coming with the judgment of the creature. It is not for one or two days; it is not for a little while that I have become word into the midst of the Romanian people, but for more than fifty years I have been staying with My table of word and feeding My faithful people, who has known Me within his heart, as My disciples knew Me two thousand years ago, when no one wanted to know Me from among those who sat on the seats clothed within the robe of God's servants among people then. And behold now, it is as at that time, all those who are big in the church over it are those who do not want Me with the people on earth.

Oh, either you want it or not, I, the Lord Jesus Christ, am speaking to you from the midst of My people faithful to My coming of today on earth into the midst of the Romanian people and I am telling you that I am the Alpha and the Omega. Do you believe that you can just wash your hands from Me, by putting this word on man's account, and which flows out of My mouth to wash the man from unbelief and from emptiness and chasing after the wind? I have sent you the book of My word of fifty years, but because of the pride of your mind, the heart in you does not want to find Me in this word. I have not come to take your seats on which you sit to be great upon the people's souls, but I have come to heal you from sin and from the unbelief with which you want to cover your sins. Oh, it is not that you do not have faith in My today's word, but you are ashamed to give up for the cleansing of your sins to take them from you and to be able to have the first place at the helm of your life, the work of life giving upon man. Oh, what happens to Me because of you, it happened to Me because of Adam either, who did not want Me to be the Lord over My creation, but rather he wanted to be upon Me with his throne, because he who does this, that one dies to God as Adam died.

Oh, how long will it take you to clothe with My Scripture, which says that the law and the prophets had been until John? How long will you put away the spirit of the prophecy from the earth, by which God is with people on earth? Do you believe by this that you will get away from the wrath that comes and it has already come upon the sons of disobedience, whipped by the damnation of the unbelief? Take a good look into the Scriptures, as near this word you also find written that from the preaching of John, the Baptizer, who showed Me to the world at Jordan, the kingdom of God is taken with great perseverance only by those who strive for it and with faith in it inside the man faithful to it.

Oh, how shall I give you the account that I am not on earth with the people by the spirit of prophecy, which is My way on the earth among the people? Well, if I am not, then how are you supposed to be? How am I supposed to be with you and through you when you say that I am through you? You say that you come through succession by an apostolic thread. If you were not able to say so also for the spirit of the prophecy, then which would be the helm of the church, God the body and the word through the church? On the other hand, do you not know that it is written: „Woe to the city, which does not have any word of prophecy in it?”. Oh, you do not want many to know the Scripture, but you rather want to tell everyone that only you know it, that only you have the right to know, but only if you would take it as your guide, as your truth, and not only to take from it from here and there, as you may need it, and only to keep your thrones over the mobs departed from My way with a cross for man, for he who sees this way has to be like Me and he sees Me as Shepherd on it with the cross.

All the prophesies until John were fulfilled in Me, and those that My Spirit is prophesying today will be fulfilled in Me either. Oh, I was not a prophet and Teacher only two thousand years ago, but I have also remained with My kingdom eternally and the same with My work for it, for since and up to this day it has not come to its end, and I prove this and I am with the people on earth, for I am with the faithful ones under My tent with them, I dwell with them and I am their God, as it is prophesied by the apostle John, to whom I showed how I would be with the people in the end of the time, the Scriptures, which is being fulfilled now more than anytime, and this on the hearth of the Romanian people, the country of brightness, which prophet Daniel announced for the end of the time and I, the Lord, am the Alpha and the Omega, and My coming of word shines on the earth into the midst of this nation. Amen.

Oh, how well it would be with you if you only wanted for a moment to honestly ask yourselves: who has been blowing by this spring of word for more than fifty years, and which has not run dry, but on the contrary, it has flown full of love, calling the man to the life of the kingdom of the heavens with the people? Oh, from the greatest upon you and to the least under you, all clothed in garments of church, I, the Lord am telling you this: fast and pray with perseverance so that God may reveal Himself to you and that He may give you wisdom from heaven, and furthermore, that He may show you the Spirit Who blows by My Spring of word in days like these into the midst of the Romanian people, and I, the Lord, will show you then that I am, and that it is not the devil, and that it is not the man, and that I am with those who are faithful, who gave Me a dwelling place to be with them and they gave Me power to come and to fulfill with them the Scripture of the revealing of the sons of God, as it is written, and here they are, and here I am, speaking with them as with Lucas and Cleopas on the road to Emmaus, and I am coming down on their table as body and word and they are giving Me further, and you cannot wash your hands or the hands of the people before Me and say that I am not this word, for I have not given it to you to know Me by it, and if you say that I am not in this word, then give an answer to this: who blows if I am not the One Who blows by this word, if it is not My Spirit, Who blows wherever He wants and not where you want or do not want?

Oh, your stubbornness makes Me speak like that to you, for I worked with the open Scriptures two thousand years ago when I was unsealing, explaining and then perfecting them on earth, as I am also doing now with those that are prophesied now by the prophets and by My apostles in My time, by John, by Peter, by Paul and by many others like them, who had gifts and prophesied for the time of the end, for Me in the end of the time, and this after that John, the Baptizer, prophesied as the last prophet before Me.

You, servants of the church, how comes that you did not want to receive My comfort, the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, Who takes from what is Mine and preaches and teaches, as I promised that He would come and through Him I would be to the end of the time with My comfort over the faithful ones? Oh, I did not want you to be antichrists who, like those two thousand years ago, have stood against My coming with the saints in tens of thousands, as it is written that I, Myself, may come by the spirit of prophecy!

Oh, do no longer stand against Me, rather be for Me, sons, and prove this by the wisdom from above in you! Oh, repent from this sin, which you make against My comforting word of today; a sin made because of envy, sons. Cleanse away the sin of envy of brother. Wash it away, as it has destroyed in you the spirit of the fear of God, sons. It is the time to embrace with love the under-privileged among you, the bishop (Irineu of Bistrița, r.n.), who was touched by My Spirit in such a way he may be able to deeply understand the mystery of My today's word over the earth, a mystery that prepares for Me the day of My coming with the glory of angels and with the armies of saints and with My trumpet sounding for the raising of those who have waited for Me in the graves to come and to open for them the day of their resurrection. Oh, release My bishop from his affliction and give him your love, since he listened to you and chose you and left Me and My people, loving you with patience until the illuminating light from My Spirit for those who will be to see My truth in the river of My today's word! Oh, do no longer persecute him, son, who is the least among you, the one who has been so much brought low by you, when he could breathe over many the grace of My love for those who are saved, for he has got the spirit of the heavenly feeling in him and he is gentle and humble in his heart and spirit, as I am. Oh, it is not nice what you have done with him that you have covered him in the darkness. What will you do if you were to pay on earth and in heaven for the deep wound in which you keep him in bondage and persecution, after you took from him the chair of apostle (Of Metropolitan from Cluj, r.n.) and gave it to someone else, thus removing him as a convict, as the bishops of that time did with Me? Oh, I cry in him with My Spirit, because you persecute both him and Me, sons.

It is written in the Gospel remembered today in the churches that on My day I will come with greatness, with all the saints and angels, and I will sit on the throne of justice of all things, and from the place of My glory, I will separate one from the other as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and I will put My sheep on the right and I will tell them: «Come, blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave Me food to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger, and you took Me in; naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me, you healed Me of My wounds, and you did this whenever you did it to one of the least of these of My brothers», (see Matt: 25/34-40), and then I will put the goats on the left and I will tell them: «Depart from Me, you cursed, into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels as whenever you did not show mercy to one of the least of My brothers, you did not show mercy to Me». (See Matt: 34/41-45)

Behold, what you have done to My bishop among you, to your brother, and you have done this to Me, sons. Oh, you did injustice to him as though you were just, but you were unjust to him. Oh, you were not just, for the man is sinful. You left him hungry and thirsty of your love and of his work of My apostle. You left him without a praised robe and you gave it to someone else, and you cast lots for his shirt, and you left him without house, without flock and you left him aggrieved and sick of sadness and you closed him under guilt and you did not investigate his cause, because you did not want this, and all these you did to Me, as it is written about the one who does so to one of the least of those who are Mine.

Oh, how are supposed to come to Me those who took the staff of the shepherd out of his hand and gave it to others? Then they left the fear of God, those who put him to darkness, and brought him under guilt without any investigation, as it is written for the church to work. All judged from the distance and after rumors and out of envy that comes from the longing of the greatness, as the rulers of the people of Israel judged Me two thousand years ago, who used their power and ranks against Me, not being afraid of this sin.

Oh, the church had not been divided in two by My work near My bishop among you, as it was rumored then everywhere by unjust judgment against the work of My word and by oppression against My bishop, and instead of this, the church of the Romanian people had been raised with heavenly glory and many had taken the way of the glory of life and holiness, without which no one would see the Lord, as it is written, but all were afraid that they might have taken a turn for the better and they did not want this, for they loved sin and the glory from the people more than the glory from God and they set themselves to put under the bushel the light and committed this sin, and this sin even today is standing on the forehead of the church of the Romanian people, a people that has had times of glory by its victory against the devil and not against God, as it has been working today the Scripture of faith denial upon it, as no one has anticipated that this sin has been committed by those who thrown the stones into the candle with oil of My word, the Comforter, My today's word.

You will meet Me, you those who wanted to put under a bushel the light of My word upon the country of My coming of word on the earth in the end of the time, the country of brightness from which the earth and the heaven shine by My grace, a mystery that those who say that have in their control the mystery of the heaven on earth did not want to find.

Oh, I call you to reconciliation, for the Father is in Me when I speak, and I and the Father are One, and you may have Me as the Intercessor before the Father, if you want. I try to open your sight and understanding so that you may receive Me; so that I may also give you place in the dwelling places of My Father. I ask you nothing, I take nothing from you, but more than this, I give you My love, I give you My glory and I give you power to become well pleased with Me, as without Me is harder and harder, more and more painful on earth for man, because everything that the man has worked without God in his work comes against man, forgetting that My plans are not like his plans.

I have spoken to you, those who stay by the names of the servants of the church of the Romanian people. I have spoken to you in a fatherly way, and your welcome or not welcome will prove you once again that you are God's sons or not, for the sons are those who believe by obedience, and those who love being obedient also listen in love.

Be faithful! My Spirit is the Spirit of the Father, and the Spirit of the Father is My Spirit, and I have spoken to you in the Holy Spirit on a day of the memorial of the Gospel of the terrible judgment, when I will come with My day in greatness, when I will sit with all the saints and angels on the throne of justice, and I will separate one from the other, people and nations, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and I will put the sheep on My right hand side. Amen.

I am the Alpha and the Omega, and I laid down My life for My sheep, for I am their Shepherd and I shepherd them, and My mercy of Shepherd becomes word, and I give Myself to them, for I said to those who are loved, those who have become infants: „I will not leave you orphans. I, Myself, will take care of My sheep and I will shepherd them.”. (See John: 14/18) Amen, amen, amen.
