

The Word of God at the feast of the Lord's Transfiguration

I am coming down within the voice of the Holy Spirit into My book of these days and I am becoming a feast of word for the memorial of the day, two thousand years ago, when I explained to My disciples, bit by bit, that I am the Christ of the Father, and I took three of My disciples, who were more strengthened in the wisdom of My mysteries, and I went up in the mountain with them and I revealed My invisible glory to them, and they saw, on that day, beyond those that could be seen by the man's eye, as I allowed them to be there, for their eyes were opened for a little while so that they were able to confess to the other disciples, and then down from generation to generation and up to this day, so that the faithful ones might be able to speak the truth about Jesus, Christ, the One about Whom the Father spoke from the clouds on that very day over My three disciples in a convincing voice and He said this: «This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him». Amen. (Matt. 17/5)

Peace to My good and faithful people! I am sitting down with a feast of word at his table with Me and I am reminding him of the Father's commandment, Who said to those faithful at that time and up to this day: «He is My Son. Listen to Him!».

I am working upon you by the word, oh, My people, and you have to fulfill the Father's commandment and you should listen to Me, son, for the Father said this and not I. You have to listen to My word, which speaks from above and from below at the same time, and those in heaven hear it, and you hear it too, as well as those in the tombs, and obedience to My word is needed, but you need to know how to come to distinguish it, to take it and to fulfill it. I have put My word into the mouth of those in the gates so that you may know to intensify the power of the fasting and praying in order to ask in this way from the Father those that are against the darkness which comes from the darkness to put God down and that man may reign on earth after that, but this cannot be done, and I want to strengthen Myself visibly as Almighty God in order to come out with My armies and protect the Romanian land and those who are faithful to My today's coming as word into the midst of this nation, for much unbelief presses down upon its soul, and this comes from the ignorance of soul, from the lack of holy watching during the night, when the wolf is hungry and unsleeping and when it lies in ambush, day and night, to get the prey, to tear down even My elected ones, those who are faithful and those who wait for Me to come with great salvation, with the victory against men's unbelief and against their departure from God, and behold, I come, I speak to man and I wake him up to his obedience to God, for if men loved God, they would also listen to Him, and I would not have to call to obedience those who love Me, but they and their love would call Me to them instead, and I would answer them in the day of their trial and I would give according to My will to those who love it for them and with them.

Oh, how sweetly I speak to man so that he may know Me by this word! Oh, how mysteriously I work to help man! Two thousand years ago, My Father told those who believed in Me to listen to Me, and He confessed Me as His beloved Son with Whom He was well pleased. Moreover, how are supposed those who believe in Me and who want Me for them to fulfill and to listen to Me? Oh, if there were faithful people on earth, I would put into their midst sons pleased with Me, with whom I am well pleased, and then the people would listen to Me through them, as there has been all the time on earth My working order over man and My dwelling with man, for whom I come and dwell in the bearers of God in order that the man may listen to Me.

I am aggrieved in heaven and on earth, for man listens only to himself and to his body, which knows by its lusts to make the man listen to him and thus the man is no longer able to work otherwise. Oh, I suffer from this pain, from this punishment from man and from the lack of his concern for his soul, which serves the body, which keeps the body alive. The man's weakness is great and this comes from his lack of love, and every weakness comes from the lack of love. Love is absent and man does not have obedience within love. Only those who love, only those listen, and those who do not love are nothing, but they are only sin, only flesh and mercy for flesh, for the flesh lusts against the spirit, against love, as it is written, and I have been waiting for two thousand years for the time to come on earth as word and to be able to speak the work of love upon man, that which heals him for his self and heals him from sin, for the one who keeps his body in control has done away with sin, and love does this when is able to dwell in man with its work, and then man is able to listen to God through it.

Oh, how beautifully and how mysteriously I had set the boundary between good and evil by the word, then when, before Moses in the mountain, I worked at the commandments of the eternal life for the man's life! I wrote by fire and through the angels on the tablets of stone and I said in writing for man to love God with all his heart, with all his mind and with all his soul, and then to love his neighbor as himself, and loving God to be able to love afterwards, and thus the man's conduct would be otherwise if he wanted to listen to Me as I wrote to him through the angels to listen to Me.

Oh, how warmly I worked two thousand years ago upon My disciples to make them used to loving Me and to listening to Me! There is no endurance on earth like Mine when I want to make man know Me and then to love Me, lest he may take Me in vain and put Me to test or to trample down My word and My commandments spoken by the word written with fire upon man. Oh, man is not afraid when he violates My commandments abolishing those upon him, and you, My people, I have been exhorting you to get a little sheet of paper and to write on it the commandments of the eternal life and then to read them again and again when you come to prayer and to measure yourself to them in the time of your prayer and then in the time of your entire work, so that you may be able to see if you fulfill them or if you trespass them between Me and you, and between you and your brother, and I, the Lord, wait for the people of My word everywhere to work My commandments, which mean love in the one who fulfills them. Any man is able to become a bearer of God if he fulfills upon him and around him God's commandments, written by fire through the angels on the tablets of stones, when the time has come to search out the man's heart and to stand face to face with him by what God's word has meant on the stone through the angels. Every man can see himself as good or bad, faithful or unfaithful face to face with the commandments of the eternal life, and then he is able to work them all if he wants to be in the My image and after My likeness on earth.

Oh, man should do nothing but keep God's commandments, for this was given to man by God to work on earth, after the first created man had received from God the work he had to do and he did not work like that, and then he fell by his disobedience, and two thousand years ago, the Father said again: «This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him!», thus confirming and renewing the commandment of the love of God upon man. Oh, and this is how the Father works today, and He sends Me, His beloved Son, to speak with man and to tell him to listen to those that I speak to him, and there is no patience on earth like Mine.

Oh, man, you are not right with God and with man, for you get hard on yourself and you get upset when you are not understood, when you are not loved and followed, and you forget how far you are from your obedience to God, from His image and likeness in everything that you do or not do!

Oh, My people, man does not know how true I, the Lord, am, by My word upon you, but look in it and see how quickly it shows its truth after I speak it, as for many times I have seen in My people, here and there, how My freshly spoken word is overthrown, and I see the lack of love of those who do not always, always look into My word so that they may not violate it, so that they may not make God suffer by their trespassing of His word. Great watch is needed, but above this, great love of God is needed for man to be able to follow properly My teaching by the word. Man is too weak and that is why I have come now on earth, in the end of the time, and I wanted and want to make an obedient people with whom I may be able to work everything that is still written in the Scriptures to fulfill, until after the resurrection of the dead, when I will make the condition in heaven come down on earth, My rest after much labor done to harvest the fruit of My work of seven thousand years from among people, a people earned by God by great storms, by much sufferance and endurance, by My today's labor, when the Father is sending Me on earth as word, for He has found faithful sons and has been able to fulfill My coming in the word, the time of the judgment of the men's works and the announcing of the great day, in which the Lord will appear victoriously over man and in time and over the unbelief on earth.

Oh, let no one marvel at the opposition, at the carelessness of those who hear and say that they do not hear, of those who know that I have to come and do not receive Me when I come, by those to whom I speak and do not do as I tell them. This is how I was received two thousand years ago, after I proved so much power among the people on earth in word and deed, and those who wanted to be great among people, kept on minding their own business and put Me away from over them when the Father had sent Me to shepherd them to eternal life, and there was no place on earth where I went and where I spoke, that My steps could not be seen over those who did not receive Me when I entered at them, and so it will be today as well and this is how I will prove Myself as true God by My coming through My word of today, as it is written for Me to come and speak, and the dead to hear Me and to come to life if they want, if they have power to believe and to listen to My will upon them.

Oh, all the times have elapsed and there has come the time for Me to approach with the last days and I want to gather a people and to protect it from the time of judgment, because the judgment blows powerfully everywhere, and the Lord has the shovel in His hand and He cleanses His threshing floor and gathers the wheat in the barn, the chaff He throws into the fire, for this is written about the time of judgment and baptism with the Holy Spirit and with fire over the people, and the man does not know the sweet taste and full of eternal life of the Holy Spirit, Who cleanses the man from sin and Who makes him an angel, if man can humble himself and believe, for only the one who humbles himself has a way to the light before him, and the one who cannot humble himself receives the baptism with fire, which is bitter for man.

Two thousand years ago, with a little bunch of disciples, I set a new kingdom on earth and it has lived in time by the faithful ones, who were and are God's kingdom into the midst of the people, and I am working the same today and I am on earth with My kingdom in those who are faithful and I am working through them My word into their midst, and by speaking it then I fulfill it, and this is how I prove that I am a true God and I show the man what truth means, for man cannot prove that is a true man, because his body has always, always overcome him, and man exalts himself by this after that, even if he does not find any greatness from man for him. Oh, it was otherwise when My greatness was confirmed on earth, when My face shone bathed in the light before My disciples in the mountain that was transfigured in an instant while God's glory was upon it. Oh, it was otherwise with Me, for I did not exalt Myself but the Father done this from the clouds when He showed My greatness to the apostles at the time when He spoke in the sky and said: «This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him». (Matt. 17/5) And on that very moment, the Father glorified Himself in Me and the Lord's glory was shown outside, as white as snow over My body and over My garment, and then My disciples confessed My glory, and behold, I do not exalt Myself, but the Father does this within Me and over Me, and man is a liar when he glorifies himself, for I said that man receives his comfort from his sin.

However, now, the Lord has ordered to humiliate the whole high mountain and the eternal rocks, to fill up the valleys and the land to be leveled so that the faithful people may walk fearlessly within God's glory, and My forests and every sweet smelling fruit tree will make a shadow at God's commandment, because the Lord will exhort His people with joy and merriment within the light of His glory, with His mercy and His righteousness, as it is written. Amen.

I start with the saints and angels to prepare from heaven and from earth a sweet feast, joy for My mother, the Virgin, as in ten days We are going to open the gates of the garden, and again and again We open them so that the faithful people to My coming may enter and come to celebrate with Me the day of the ascension into heaven of the Virgin, My mother, the day of her embracing with Me again, an embrace with tears asked and wanted, for My mother had always called Me and said: „Come Son, for I want to be near You, as You are my son, and I suffer from Your emptiness!“. Behold, the voice of comfort and joy will be heard from heaven and earth, and the faithful people will lift up his soul to the Lord, for the feast will give a crown to it. Amen.

Let all, all from heaven and all from earth sweetly serve the day of the feast of My Mother, the Virgin! I will comfort those gathered at the spring and I will give them power to become, with every passing day beautiful sons of God and I will shepherd them. Amen.

As in all the eves of the big feasts, with many people gathered at the spring, I give powers to My people near the spring to prepare My feast for Me peacefully and sweetly, and they to get ready, full of peace and sweetness between Me and them, among themselves, for the power comes from Me and makes them want, and makes them able to do, in the same way as the brightness of My glory in the mountain came from the Father and appeared, and it did not come from Me. Oh, it is the time for My people to work in great unity and prayer, with painful supplication from the Father, for it is My tool within these days, and the destroying spirit of this age sets its teeth on edge and puts forth fresh horns and many heads, one after the other, to try its strength and its schemes in order to do away with God on earth; however, I, the Lord, have prepared a new fallow land to be sowed, watered, weeded, cultivated and grown, the fruit of the new kingdom, the new birth of the world, and I am the One Who makes this dough grow, and I work once with the hidden scheme of the man of darkness, who says that he rules the world with his work, but I, and not him, oh, it is not him who will overcome, as it is written in the Scriptures for the Lamb of God to overcome the dragon with seven heads, and together with Him, those who are faithful to Him to overcome, those who wash their clothes and who overcome by the blood of the Lamb together with the Lamb, and who have on them the seal of the Living God, and the devil mourns and will mourn then, just as he is mourning at this time too, and he does not know what else to do that he may not lose his victory, and he does no longer sleep and always measures, because his schemes have always, always failed, and then he plots again and again. However, I do no longer take any account of it and I prepare his destruction in heaven and on earth, for he stays into My way.

I am coming down with those in heaven to prepare the feast from the spring and I am blessing it even from now. And I am doing the same to those who have come together at the table of the feast; I am blessing their steps to the spring, I am giving them angels on their way and I am giving them longing and love; I am giving them a spirit of faith and power so that they may become sons of God more and more beautifully, for man cannot be born only halfway, either on earth or in heaven. However, I have nothing to give to those who are not faithful, but only what they work for themselves, and they will have it enough and to spare, for their lack of faith or their faith denial is seen, after they have had faith in My word of today, but I keep on going and I do not stay, and My victory is great and there will be great glory for it, for the Father has been preparing it for Me, as in the day when He glorified Me with great brightness in the mountain before My disciples so that they could see fully that I was the Christ, the Son of the Father Sabaoth, coming down to man on earth from the Father.

Oh, My people from the spring, I thank you because you humble yourself to listen to My voice into your midst and bring before Me days of feast for My victory and yours on earth, as the days are full of darkness, son, and the devil works as well, and he is upset with you. Oh, get used, son, with every passing day, more and more, better and better and more faithfully to learn to believe that as the Father is in Me, likewise I am in those who take Me into your midst, and in whom I put My word so that they may speak to you, as I have whispered to them to come before Me with days of sacrifice and calling, to help Me in My victory against the serpent with many heads and with many horns and which I have to cut them one by one, whenever he gets them out, but without a tool, I cannot do My work. I, the Lord, have sent you word and I give you the power to fulfill it, but you should also give Me your spirit to fill it with My love, which stands for everything, for without My love you can do nothing. Then I told My disciples two thousand years ago: «Apart from Me you can do nothing!». (John. 15/5). And I am telling you today likewise, and I am also going to tell you, in great humility I am telling you, that I cannot work and fulfill without you as well, as I have given you power to become God's sons so that the Lord may have a way to do His work on earth, the victory for the kingdom of the heavens with the people, after that the wrath will pass and after that faith remains, for faith will not pass away, because it is God's tool before Him on earth, and with it He cleanses his threshing floor from unbelief and from those who are unfaithful, and this is how the Lord's day will be on earth, and those who wait for the Lord to come with His day in another manner, these do not know what to say and do not know what they have been waiting for. However, those who are faithful wait for My promise for them: a new heaven and a new earth, and they have long endurance, not losing their patience like those who perish in this way then.

I am coming to an end with My word of today and I am sealing it with My new name: The word of God, Jesus Christ. Amen.

My peace I am leaving into the midst of My people for the preparation of the feast that is coming near at the spring! Peace, from now on and up to the day of the feast, and let the peace be always worked out so that it may always be, and to be pleased with Me, and I will shepherd the people gathered together near the spring and I will speak to him about the mystery of the peace between Me and man, between man and man, for man does not understand and does not love to work the peace that I have given to him to have and to work it, and man has always deceived himself for this great work of mystery.

Oh, My people, I would change your face in an instant before the people, but I love you too much and I protect and keep you so much that I may have you, and up to the days of the revealed glory, you should glorify Me as I have been teaching you, by your being, deified with every passing day by My being on your table and by the fruit of My being in you, as I share and give Myself to you to have you as Mine, sons, and to know you after My seal upon you, which you have to leave it to be seen from now on. Oh, peace to you! Love the mystery of peace! Reconcile My Spirit, son, and keep it at peace, and this is how you are to love the mystery of peace. I do no longer have any Bethany on earth except you and the little fold of My people of today. I do no longer have anywhere a table of Emmaus in which to let Myself be seen and confessed after I share Myself on the table, for those who say that they are My servants keep on condemning My glory, covering it with their glory, because they want to increase theirs and they do not want to let Me reveal with My glory, and behold, I cannot reveal Myself into their midst and on their table, for they are far away from My glory. Behold, you are My Bethany, you are My Emmaus and I can come to you with My table, with My walking on earth, with My revealed supper, and which proves Me real near you with My word of Shepherd, for I like to stay on earth and I like to shepherd those who are faithful and to sit with them at the table of My kingdom among people, and which the people cannot see, for their eyes are prevented from seeing.

I am blessing again the gathering at the spring and the burning of the hearts of those who have come together at the table of My word, just as the little hearts of those, with whom I was walking on the way to Emmaus, were also burning, and when I revealed Myself at their table with Me.

I, the Lord, from now on, start sending the angels and the saints down with help for the preparation of the day of the feast of My mother the Virgin, and you will be accompanied by them, people from the spring, for other kind of power have the people who work with those in heaven and not alone, and they have other progress in their entire work, for it is not good for man to be alone, but it is good for him to be with the Lord and with His heavenly servants so that they may be on earth as in heaven, for this is My will and My joy in heaven and on earth, and this is how I want you to live and to work on earth before Me, My people, like this and all the time, oh, My people. Amen, amen, amen.
