

The Word of God at the 22-year celebration from the lying of the foundation stone of the Holy of Holies of the New Jerusalem

I have tears in My cheeks and I am coming down from heaven with the saints above the little garden of My word into the midst of the Romanian people, and I am becoming the word of memorial of the day of the victory against satan, who interfered with the work of My church and got his spirit into it and overthrew the feasts of My saints from their places (Changing a part of the feasts from the Old Style – O.S. – to the New Style – N.S., in the year of 1924, without a prophetic word from the Lord, and on the contrary, the prophets were against this, r.n.), and he put enemies in the church ninety years ago and since then it has played as they have sung; however, I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, twenty two years ago, stood up with a synod of saints and fathers on the hearth of the Romanian people, and I set My judgment seat on earth to work from it by the spirit of prophecy and to speak to the church, as I have been working in all the times since I built the world, and I have not kept silent, as I am the Creator. By the word I made the heaven and the earth, for I am the Word of the Father Sabaoth, and the Father is in Me, and from age to age He is in the Son, and this is how God does His work; God does His work by the spirit of prophecy.

I have spread the news by My voice to the church of the Romanian people that twenty-two years ago, the heaven celebrated the victory on the earth on the hearth of this nation. I, the Lord, Jesus Christ, with a great synod of saints, angels, and bishops from heaven and earth, established with the power from above a foundation stone, and on it the judgment seat, and on the seat, My word over the earth, which becomes a written book both inside and outside, for it is divided in parts and it does not separate, for I am the book and the book is My word, and I fulfill by the word. Amen.

I have tears in My cheeks and I have become the word of memorial of this day, when after seventy years of the stealing of the holy things, I, the Lord, overcame twenty two years ago and set on the hearth of the Romanian people the beginning of the restoration of the things spoiled by satan's spirit, who entered the holy place and handled the course of the holy tradition according to his dark plan. The satan's work, ninety years ago over the church of the Romanian people, which was severely hit and most severely struck then by satan's spirit, has been called the stealing of the holy things and the abomination of desolation. The satan's people came to an agreement with the rulers of the church of this nation and then the holy traditions were removed from their places and the wise people and the Christians of the Romanian people wept then and they were deeply sorrow at the errancy of the rulers of the church at that time, who violated the saints' commandments, as they are also violating them today, and the errancy has become great, greater and greater with every passing day, for it is written to fill the cup of iniquity until it is poured upon those who keep on filling it.

Oh, neither the living nor the dead will escape from this word, from My word, which is prophesied to come and to speak over the earth by My own mouth in the end of the time and those from the graves to hear it and get up at My word, if the living do not stand up for Me but rather follow the spirit of the world in their walking. Oh, how hard and how much the wicked world condemns My coming as word on the earth and those who bear it, no one escapes from the truth of this word. Those who were once righteous and holy on earth get up and they will inherit the earth and redeem their bodies and life between earth and heaven, and the earth will be full of those who will have come to life, of those who are eternal, those who paid for their eternity with their life in the flesh pleased to those in heaven, and their number will be as high as the stars of the heaven, as it is written.

Let those who say that there will no longer be people on earth in time but only very few of them no longer talk foolish things. Oh, there will be many, many of them and they will inhabit the earth as in heaven, for many people have been born from the beginning to the end and many have found their life in Me after that, and they will get up by the mystery of the resurrection of the dead, and then those, who are speaking foolish things now in order to fool all the people from margins to margins to make them forget about God and about resurrection, will see the foolish things they have spoken, but behold, all those who were and are will be called to give an account before the Lord's judgment seat, and here it is where My dominion is and where its seat is, and here is how I rule over those who have sided with Me to be their God and to walk with them, to have a house with them on earth and to come to them with those in heaven with a table of word, as I am doing at this time!

I mark this day and I say: twenty-two years ago, on the twenty-two day of the seventh month of that year, I put to its place My church on its first stone and I rejoiced the holy ancestors of the Romanian people, for ninety years ago, the church of the Romanian people went wrong mostly among the sons of the Orthodoxy on earth and headed for great errancy, but now, I, the Lord, have taken a sprout out of its midst (The Bishop Irineu of Bistrița, r.n.) and set it to bring forth fruit, and thus I have got a holy church into the midst of the Romanian people and I tender it as My dear vineyard and from it I make good wine so that it may have it on the table and the Lord to be always with it.

Twenty two years ago, I took a faithful servant to My word from the body of the Romanian church, Irineu, and I put on his head the crown of bishop and I brought him and he blessed the little garden of My word, that which was destined from eternity to be Mine, and I blessed the foundation stone and the school of the heavenly teaching over the sons of the church, the highest school between earth and heaven, of which I raise My disciples and disciples from disciples, for I do not call them professors, but I rather call disciples those who teach My flock and walk with it on My way; sometimes I also call them religion professors to speak in the language of the world, but in My language I call them disciples with a Teacher upon them, not on their own as are the religion professors on the lands of the world, who do not have any spirit of prophecy or any heavenly counselor to give them to share with their flock.

Behold, I have tears in My cheek and I am coming down with My cry and with My voice, which is being written on earth, as there is little time and the church of the Romanian people will be divided in two, in three, in ten parts, as it only goes by the name of Orthodox, but in fact it is on its own for it is fallen under the curse of the saints because it has violated the holy tradition and joined with My enemies and it keeps on joining them, and now it comes the selection by division, and many of them will unite with Me and with the spirit of prophecy, with the voice of My mouth, and many will humble for Me and choose Me, and to these I am saying this:

Come and start walking in secret and then with your step to My spring of word and wash the little garment of your life in it, for there comes a time of pain as it was ninety years ago, but even more masked than at that time, and you will be hurt by the life and by the answer that you will give Me if you do not start to join the spirit of life, the spirit of prophecy, the voice of My word, which blows from heaven over the earth into the midst of the Romanian people.

And to the church of this nation, which does not want to come out of its curse, I, the Lord, am speaking this: Oh, I have wanted to guide you on your way with Me by the spirit of prophecy, by the speech of My mouth, but you have gone into sexual immorality with all the passers-by and sat at the table with them on high mountain and you have welcomed them. Oh, what answer will you give to the saints and the fathers, through whom I have left you written down what to do and what you are not supposed to trample under your feet? Oh, by this word sent to you for such a long time, I have wanted to wake you up, to watch for you, and you to watch with Me too, oh, church of the Romanian people! Oh, how much good I have wanted to do to you, but I have stood with it at the door, for your haughtiness have prevented you from opening the door to Me and from welcoming Me to come in through the front door, not through the back one, to give you My word for My watch over you and that satan may see that I am your Shepherd and leave off the flock with a Shepherd over it, but your ignorance of your eternal life is great, and that is why satan is able to stand against you under his lamb garment. However, again and again, I have been sending My word to you when it has come down to settle in its book in order to guide and grow for Me a people separated from the spirit of the world, a people of disciples, of teachers on My behalf over the people, for the people do no longer have teachers from Me, as those who are learn in the schools of the world and these are the schools that stand against God.

Oh, church of the Romanian people, you have not wanted to be My way to the people. You have not wanted to give Me as Teacher over those who do not have growth from heaven upon them. Oh, how much glory you would have had, oh, how much! It would have been no one to go before you if your spirit had been one with My Spirit, with the spirit of this word of resurrection and eternal life in it, and we would have raise the man from sin, I and you; however, you have been ashamed to do this, and you have not been ashamed to open to the foreigners to God and to you, who come and keep coming, but they do not come to unite with you, but you to unite with them instead, (With the Catholic Church, r.n.) and that is only to stain your little dress and break to pieces your crisma¹⁰, the swaddling cloth of christening, which you do not longer know how to wear over your little shirt of christening so that you may remain a child for My kingdom and no to grow up without counseling and thus to give yourself to immorality or let yourself wooed by gods foreign to the life from heaven. Oh, you came out of your swaddling clothes and have grown up and you have no longer listened to the saints and fathers, who have left ordinances for you not to be violated, and you do no longer know to keep your little shirt of christening and the swaddling cloth over it, that is the crisma that keeps you tight to Me to grow righteous and to be a righteous church and not to change your way and your walking, as you did and still do. (To change the feast of the Lords' Birth – the Passover, to the Catholic rite, or both to establish a certain date, 1st Mai, for this feast, r.n.)

Oh, here it is what I am going to tell you: I have taken from your midst a good and faithful sprout and I grafted him with the gift of the Holy Spirit by the word and by heavenly anointment and I have made him great within My spirit and mystery on his head and I spoke through him (Irineu, r.n.) the blessing of the new beginning, but you have persecuted him and pulled him out from where I planted him to grow in him the spirit of confession, working in a bad time where there will no longer be light on earth. Oh, I have not meant him to be great upon you, but instead I wanted him to be for you, oh, servants of the Romanian people church! I have prepared him for you, I have been preparing him even from his birth, and I have walked with him in secret to give him the Holy Spirit for you to have in bad time, and when the time is too hard for you. Oh, and many of you will see how much joy you will begin to have when he will show his love and faithfulness, just as he showed you when he turned his back to Me at your request of his separation from Me and from My people, and he chose you, and the separation was done, and after that years in a row he had stayed secretly near with his spirit and love for My word, by which I had guided him step by step and with which, behold, I have been feeding and covering you under it so that satan may see that you have a Shepherd upon you and that you may perish being destroyed by the thieves of souls who want to destroy the Orthodox faith completely and to bring as many as possible to deny their little shirt of christening and their faithfulness to the covenant of the saints left through the church; however, I am telling you that many have forsaken and remained covered above with the garment of the Orthodoxy, the garment of salvation through Christ. Oh, what do the saints and the fathers say, what do the ancestors say when they see from heaven what the church does in the Orthodox Romanian country? Oh, what are you doing? Behold, you mix the things and this does not do you any good, and it makes Me have tears in My cheek. Oh, no one knows what you are any more, for it is written: „Bad company corrupts good character”, for one you call yourselves and do another. When the people of Israel united on its way with those who were foreign to Me and to it, then My people perished in great number and it did no longer enter its kingdom prepared by Me; they did no longer enter Canaan. When you are joining now with those who do not have Me as their God but they have satan instead, then do you still remain? Are you someone else than they are, more than those with whom you come together to make a display of mixture face to face with the saints who left down written ordinances for you not to do so? Oh, you were not supposed to make a display together with the world and with its heads, church of the Orthodox Romanian people! Oh, it is very ugly what you have done! Behold what you do with your freedom with respect to Me and to the saints! You work on your own. You have not wanted to have upon you the spirit of prophecy, to have it as your guide and not to go wrong on the way. Those consecrated to God cry like Me because of you when you violate them with those who are foreign to your faith from the fathers, the faith from the saints. Oh, do not take those who were consecrated to God from the fathers, do not sell them to the violation of the commandments, because you commit sin when you do this, oh, church of the Romanian people. You do this through the rulers you have upon you, and the whole church is guilty if the rulers upon it go wrong. Even if you, those who are rulers over the church, even if you say that this word is not the God Word, you should still know that those who are consecrated from the fathers to Him belong to the Lord, and they are not yours to have dominion upon them for your enemies and for your tables that you have together with them! Oh, how hard it will be for you to answer if you do not stop from this lawlessness in a place dedicated to God, in the holy place of the Lord!

And as for you, faithful bishop, who accompanied Me twenty two years ago when I laid the new stone for the renewal of everything, and on this foundation I have built the work of My Father for the new birth of the world and for the founding of the new Jerusalem on earth, as it is written for it to come and to be with the people, I am telling you: call Me with tears in your cheeks, call Me to help you to wake up many before darkness comes into to be visible. I know that you are put in chains to the place of My word and to the people of My word; however, I am coming to you with the word and I ask you with tears in My cheek: Call Me with tears so that I may wake up many, for you have chosen to remain among them, to show your holy Orthodoxy and to endure hoping in My coming with the revelation of the truth of My word over those who do not believe that I am this word. You do no longer have power now for Me and for My new and holy confession for a holy life, but you can cry, and I give you power to cry and to call Me to come and help the church of the Romanian people while in need, for she sleeps, she sleeps and does not watch for My coming.

I am bringing you now here, near the spring, and I am bringing you mysteriously on this day of memorial, and, behold, the saints and the fathers lay a blessing hand on your head, to have their power when all need it in time of trial over the church of the Romanian people, who does no longer know his color (White, r.n.) and his law from the fathers. Oh, the helm over the church of the Romanian people is far, far from Me. All the servants on the top will be much despised, soon, soon, after they will have seen their disappointment from their mixture with satan's pagans, and they will need holy help, for they all have crushed the holy law upon them, which protected them from above from the fathers.

I am bestowing on your head the great blessing of the fathers from heaven, from the eternal life of those who love heaven on earth and I speak over your little heart and mind the peace from above, for there is no longer pace anywhere but only in My word, by which I speak over the earth and with it I mysteriously rule over the world. Oh, peace to you! From the midst of the people of My word, from near the spring I am telling you this: peace to you! Moreover, you are to speak in secret and you are to confess before all the saints and say: «Blessed is the Lord Who dwells in Jerusalem!», into midst of the Romanian people, as it is written into the Scriptures about the place of My dwelling. Amen.

Oh, peace to you, people of My word! From your midst I have blessed the word of this today's feast, the memorial of the laying of the foundation stone of My new building, of the renewed church, for I have built a people for Me and I have been leading it to My victory with it against the whole unbelief on the earth, and I dwell in My holy tabernacle into its midst, as it is written. Amen, amen, amen.
