

The Word of God

... Lord, Jesus Christ has written from heaven on earth, “Traveler, remember death!” Whoever finds the slips let him read them! Close the pubs and latch the doors, for all these the earth will swallow up first.

... This village, banks, all will remain empty¹, as it did a lot of trouble to Me.

... Woe to the man who became an innkeeper. Woe to the man who sells meat in the fasting days, who sells drink in the fasting days! Sons, a man will come and say, “This prophetic word is a liar”. But I say take heed for the earth will open itself and swallow this man and many of you will fall, for he will come and say the same into his bed as My vessel through which I speak, and will speak against My work and My working and there will be great war.

... Sons, these words are sacred. They are not spoken by mother of father, but God Himself speaks them and He speaks as in the days of Noah when the nations were shouting to his closed door, sisters and uncles, “Noah, please let us come in!” All of Noah’s friends were shouting and Noah was crying too but he was not able to open the door; he kept weeping because of their death. The same will be now, the same. This word is written.
