

The Word of God

Oh, sons, I do no longer have any trust to make friends on the earth, because today one is a Christian and in a little while he is a pagan. He makes Me a liar and a robber. My little sheep, I came to you and not to turn you into unbelievers, but I came with a heavenly message, and I did not say: „You are obliged to follow Me”, but rather I said: „Take your cross and follow Me”. The cross is a clean life, without sins.

... that the house and cattle of the Maglavit shepherd burnt, and he didn't come out from the liturgy and when he went home, he found nothing but ashes. The Maglavit shepherd had many ordeals. (Petrache Lupu – 14.10.1907-14.12.1994, the second trumpet, r.n.)

... I have always said: do not make prayers without incense, and I said: make cross.

... My little child, My little sheep, why are the crosses fallen and the name of the Lord is wiped out on them? Is there really not even a painter, not even a carpenter? My loved brother, this is the sign, which you will overcome with, and which you will win with. And the time is coming to hide from a dog and you will find shelter at the cross.
